

CHAUTAQUA AS SEEN BY LOCAL PEOPLE

"Going out to the Chautauqua this week?"

"That is the question every Ogdenite should be asking, not only every other Ogdenite but him or herself as well."

"Why? Now, I wondered how many kinds of answers could be given, so I commenced asking it. And here are some of the answers."

"Yes, sir, I am going and I am going to have the family go as well. You see I look at it this way, and the speaker was a man who worked hard and had long hours, too. There are not many things I care to take all my folks to see and hear. Some things we older ones enjoy, but the children don't. Some things they like that are boring to us, but this Chautauqua has been gotten up for a family. There is a whole day and night's fun for the children and lots of good entertainment for we older ones as well. No, last year I only attended one or two days, but wife and I have fixed things so I can have four days this year and we all will go. We will have dinner and supper out there those days and with a day at home between for the wife to rest and cook we all expect to have a real family treat repeated four times this year. The cost you see won't be much and we expect a real good time."

"But you say the expense won't be much; how do you figure that?" I said.

"Well, you see yourself," he replied, "that if I was to take all my family to Lagoon the carfare would be about the same as the admission to Chautauqua, and then when we got to Lagoon the money would have to be spent freely or the children would not enjoy it. Now, at Chautauqua, the entertainment is all provided free and I will save the money by going to the Chautauqua."

"This man looked at it as a matter of dollars and cents and found that the Chautauqua gave the cheapest good outing for an entire family."

"How about the Chautauqua?" I then asked another. "Are you or your folks going this year?"

"Yes, I think we will attend the most of it," was the answer. "There is no place we can go where we get the same class of pleasure. I only heard a few lectures last year, but I remember them with profit. It did me good and all the rest of our folks good. It was not only enjoyment, but learning as well. The games they taught the children have been played over and over again at home, and the things we older ones heard, I have been using on the job ever since. It was not only enjoyment, but learning as well. The games they taught the children have been played over and over again at home, and the things we older ones heard, I have been using on the job ever since."

"Here was a man who considered the Chautauqua a good thing because of what he heard and what it meant to the family as an educative factor."

"The third person asked me if I was going and then said: 'That Chautauqua is great. Now what I like about it is the sociability of it. You meet so many friends you have not had opportunity to talk with for years. You know how it is. They live near you, but they and you are busy. Now, last year, I sat down with some of my old friends and had good visits between the music and lectures. 'Twas cool and we all liked it.'"

"This was a new viewpoint but as friendliness is much needed today and the Chautauqua does only that it is a blessing."

"The next man had a different idea.

MISSOULA HAS THREE NEW PLAYERS

Cliff Blankenship, manager of the Missoula baseball team, left Ogden this afternoon for Missoula to attend to a few business affairs before leaving for Seattle. Blankenship is suffering of pleurisy and heart trouble and is in such condition that he seeks a long rest in a low altitude. "Nig" Perrine, second baseman, is managing the team.

Blankenship's illness began in Ogden during the season of last May. Twice during that week he was compelled to remain at his hotel. When he went north, he improved but upon coming to Salt Lake, the hot weather prevented sleep and he stated today that he thinks it about time to get a change of climate.

The Missoula team arrived from Salt Lake highly encouraged over winning the series from the Skyscrapers. There will be three new faces in the lineup this week. Auer is a new catcher who will be in the game today. Marsh, the shortstop, joined the team upon its homecoming, after playing in Ogden. Dawson, a pitcher, is a new member.

Bassey, the man "Blank" would include with Carran in a trade for Van has been released.

Acting Manager Perrine stated today that Maloney will be his pitcher in the first game, this afternoon.

Rustenhaven and Perkins will make up the batteries for Ogden.

Pitcher Fiddler, who was released by Ogden two weeks ago has been signed by John McInerney. McInerney has also secured an Indian pitcher, named Hungary, who hails from Price. The Indian is to pitch in the game with Butte this afternoon.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

KIESER—Leopold Kieser, aged 72 years, died at 5 a. m., this morning at the home, at Nineteenth and Wall avenue. He is survived by the wife and two sons, Leo, in Illinois, and William of Montello. Mr. Kieser is a brother-in-law of Mrs. J. B. Ludwig and a member of the Sons of Herman. The body was removed to the Kirkendall undertaking parlor where friends may see him in his casket. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

RAY—Funeral services for John W. Ray were held at the South Weber meeting house yesterday afternoon with Bishop George Kendall officiating. The ward choir sang selections and Guy Childs gave two solos. The speakers were James Harbison, Adolph Fernelius, Edmund Jernison, James Criddle, George Allen and Miss Pratt. Interment was made in the Uintah cemetery.

UNBALANCED HE REGAINS HIS SANITY

Frank Zoback, who was arrested by the officers and placed in the padded cell of the county jail a few days ago, because of his mental condition, so far recovered as to be able to continue his journey to Los Angeles yesterday afternoon, when he was released.

He had a ticket for Los Angeles, when he was arrested. He also had something over $50 in his purse and carried a bank book showing a balance in his favor of about $200.

He stated to the officers that he could not account for the peculiar condition he was in when arrested, except that change of climate may have affected him.

RECOVER BODY OF MISSING MAN

The body of James McGregor, a wealthy mining man of Salt Lake City, who has been missing from the home of relatives here for a week, was found in the Wabash river at Terre Haute, Ind., late yesterday. It is believed he suffered an attack of heart trouble while walking along the river bank and fell into the stream.

McGregor, who was 68 years old, owned valuable mining property in Utah and had interests in the lead and zinc district near Joplin, Mo.

HO! OH! FOR YELLOWSTONE

The Ogden Elks invite everybody to go on their mid-season excursion to Yellowstone, leaving Ogden August 5th. "Wylie Way." For information call Elks' club or write H. H. Hays, G. T. A., 25 West South Temple street, Salt Lake City.

The third person asked me if I was going and then said: "That Chautauqua is great. Now what I like about it is the sociability of it. You meet so many friends you have not had opportunity to talk with for years. You know how it is. They live near you, but they and you are busy. Now, last year, I sat down with some of my old friends and had good visits between the music and lectures. 'Twas cool and we all liked it.'"

HEAVY TRAVEL TO NATIONAL PARK

Commencing tomorrow, the Yellowstone limited over the Oregon Short Line will be equipped with four Standard sleepers to handle the traffic. Upon until this time, only three sleepers have been used on the train.

In addition to the regular traffic, there are various special parties and special trains scheduled to run over the line. The Frank Grady party of eight cars will be delivered to the Denver & Rio Grande at Ogden tomorrow, returning from the park.

On Saturday the Hutchinson "B" tour party will arrive in Ogden in a special train of five cars. The last named party comes from Chicago and went to the park over the Idaho and Montana divisions of the Oregon Short Line.

CARD OF THANKS.

In our recent bereavement in the sudden demise of our beloved husband, father and son, Thomas J. Rackham, the loving sympathy extended by relatives and friends was a great source of comfort which we sincerely appreciate, and desire hereby to express our heartfelt thanks. Especially do we remember with gratitude the speakers, singers, and string quartette, and those who furnished the beautiful flowers. The attendance of the police and sheriff's departments, the veteran firemen and the Fifth Ward Relief society was a source of great satisfaction, for which kindness we hereby extend our deepest appreciation.

GIRL GOES BACK TO HER HOME IN LOGAN

Sheriff Parker of Logan came to Ogden this morning for Miss Belle Sage, the pretty sixteen-year-old girl who ran away from home a few days ago, and it required considerable coaxing to get her to return home.

The girl was arrested by Sheriff DeVine last evening at a rooming house and it is said by the officers that she had been seen on the streets considerably after her working hours. She was employed in a local laundry and had never failed to be on duty during her regular shift.

She told the local officers that she would not remain at home, as she had determined to make her own living.

The Cache county official was of the opinion that the girl would be turned over to the juvenile court at Logan.

'STAMPEDE' TO BE SEEN ON JULY 24

Yesterday afternoon Manager F. H. Whitcombe of the Ogden Automobile Racing association closed a deal with the owners of livestock used in the Jackson Frontier exhibitions, for the Pioneer day celebration at the Fair Grounds and today J. L. Eynon, one of the owners, is in Ogden looking for a pasture in which to keep the stock.

T. W. Lloyd, C. R. Van Vleck, J. L. Eynon, J. P. Cunningham and Benjamin Jones, the owners, are ranchmen of the Jackson Hole country and they say they have 65 wild steers, 50 wild range horses, 55 outlaw, bucking horses, 25 saddle horses, two chariot teams, "Dlek," the bucking bull, and the greatest bucking wild steer

RAPID TRANSIT FAVORS GOOD PAVINGS

Respecting the petition of property owners on Jefferson avenue, directed to the city board of commissioners last evening, asking the city board to insist that the Ogden Rapid Transit company build a standard up-to-date roadbed over the avenue, when the Twenty-seventh street extension is made, Manager P. D. Kline of the Transit company said today that the petitioners need not worry, as the company will build no other kind of road. There will be no poles in the center of the avenue and the roadbed will be paved just as the street is paved, unless the city desires some other kind of paving.

The company is now removing its poles from the center of Washington avenue, from the Ogden river bridge to the canyon road, and the work will be completed in the course of a few days.

The span wires for the trolley along the "Great White Way" are being placed in position and within ten days the center poles in the district can be removed. Manager Kline says that, so far as the company is concerned, all poles should be removed from the center of the streets of the city. The Transit company will get out of the way as soon as other companies get their poles to the side lines.

OPPOSITION TO HAYDEN

Washington, July 15.—Vigorous protests against the retention of Thomas E. Hayden as a special prosecutor for the noted Diggs-Caminetti white slave case in San Francisco were laid before Attorney General McReynolds today by Senator Ashurst at the request of several California Democrats. They allege among other things that Hayden is a friend of the Caminetti family.

Senator Ashurst did not make public the names of the men at whose request he acted. They selected him to make the protest because California is not represented by a Democratic senator. Another reason given to Senator Ashurst for desiring Hayden's removal as special attorney was his inexperience as a prosecutor.

Hayden was chosen to conduct the case with Theodore J. Roche and Matthew I. Sullivan, when the president accepted the resignation of former United States Attorney McNab.

Later Senator Ashurst stated that that one of the protesters against the selection of Hayden was State Senator J. B. Sanford of California. At the department of justice, Senator Ashurst took pains to say that he was not attacking Hayden personally, but only calling in question his experience as a prosecutor.

"I will examine the charges very carefully," said Attorney General McReynolds, "and if it is demonstrated that the special prosecutor is not the right man for the work we will get somebody else."

Cannot Be Influenced.

San Francisco, July 15.—Thomas E. Hayden, nominated by the president to succeed United States District Attorney McNab here, was due to arrive in Washington today, where it was understood and his office he had gone to consult with Attorney General McReynolds on the Diggs-Caminetti cases.

Friends of Mr. Hayden said that the protest against his appointment came from disappointed candidates for the position to which he had been nominated and that an attempt to influence the charges made had first been made through Senator Works.

Mr. Hayden's office denied that he was in a position to be influenced by any friendship for the Caminetti family.

MILITARY LIFE AND COLLEGIANS

Washington, July 15.—College men are showing the greatest enthusiasm for military life and have the making of excellent soldiers in the opinion of Major General Leonard Wood, just returned from the maneuver camp at Gettysburg. He reported to this effect today to Secretary Garrison, commending the progress being made by the students. Owing to the lack of time in the initial stages it was not possible to secure a large attendance of the collegians, but there are now 175 in camp training with the regular soldiers and receiving special lectures on military science from half a dozen war college officers. The students' en-
