

THE NEW MANAGER SURE MAKES THE PLAYERS WALK CHALK

BASEBALL

Giants 2, Cardinals 4.
New York, July 21.—New York defeated St. Louis today, 4 to 2. Of four pitchers sent in to stop the league champions, only Donk, who pitched the seventh and eighth innings, showed ability. Willis, the veteran New York left-hander, started in his first game of the season on the Polo grounds. He was poorly supported, Crandall relieved him after the visitors had tied the score in the fourth, and was very effective in holding St. Louis to three hits in the last five innings. Burns' hitting and running featured. In five times up he hit two doubles and a single and drew two passes. He also stole two bases.

Quakers 3, Reds 1.
Philadelphia, July 21.—Seaton's twirling, backed up by splendid support, especially by Becker and Doolan, whose sensational work deprived the visitors of several hits, enabled Philadelphia to defeat Cincinnati today by 3 to 1. Lebert's stick work played a prominent part in the victory. He made three safeties, including a home run and a double in four times at bat and scored two of the home team's runs. Manager Tinker was ordered to the clubhouse by Empire Orth when Pakert was declared safe at first in the fourth inning.

Philadelphia ..... 3 9 1
Batteries—Suggs, Brown and Kling; Seaton and Killifer.

Senators Defeat White Sox.
Chicago, July 21.—Walter Johnson's pitching, coupled with opportune hits and errors by Weaver and Russell allowed Washington to make it two straight from Chicago today. The score was two to one. In the opening inning Moeller singled off Russell and stole second, and scored when Weaver threw Gandil's grounded wild to Chase. The next inning McBride singled, Almsmith sacrificed and Russell threw wild to Chase. Moeller walked and Foster hit a bouncer to Collins, who forced Moeller at second and McBride scored. Russell retired in favor of Benz, who pitched a good game but gave way to Cicotte, when a pinch hitter went in for him. Chicago was saved a shut-out when Lord drove the ball down the left field line for a homer.

Brooklyn Wins.
Brooklyn, July 21.—Cross of omission by Pittsburgh in the seventh inning today gave Brooklyn the opportunity to turn an apparent 6 to 3 defeat into a 13 to 6 victory. In the fifth Carey's homer past Moran, who fell, with two on bases, had given the visitors their three run lead.

Meyer and Wheat opened the seventh with hits and Daubert forced Wheat. Smith hit to J. Miller, who threw to Butler to force Daubert. Butler touched the bag on the run before he got the ball and Daubert was declared safe. Stengel, batting for Fisher hit to Byrne, who threw Wheat out at the plate. Stengel fell running to first and should have been doubled up, but Simon was not watching. Hendrix then lost control, forcing two runs with passes. He was relieved by Robinson and two hits off him sent in three runs.

In the eighth Wheat singled, Daubert was safe on Byrne's error and Smith drove the ball to center for a home run. Kirkpatrick singled and Pittsburgh sent in Cooper to pitch. At-

A. G. VANDERBILT, IN ENGLISH COACHING MARATHON, FAILS TO SALUTE QUEEN.

Conspicuous among the Americans entered in the coaching marathon from Hyde Park to South Richmond, England, a distance of about twenty miles, was A. G. Vanderbilt (driving), who passed the royal box, where Queen Mary (arrow) of England was seated. It was noted that Mr. Vanderbilt, with whom is his wife, was the only man who passed by the queen and failed to raise his hat.

len walked and Cushman's long double brought the total for the inning up to five.

Simon caught a poor game, Brooklyn stealing six bases. Moran had a peculiar batting record, getting four hits, a pass and a sacrifice in six trips to the plate, but failing to score. Ragan is credited with the game.

Tigers Have Easy Time.
Detroit, July 21.—New York's fielding today was little short of a farce and Detroit had an easy time winning, 6 to 1.

Willett got credit for an unusual assist. Wolter hit a hard liner which the pitcher deflected, Bush catching the ball with one hand after a short hard run.

Athletics Defeat Browns.
St. Louis, July 21.—Philadelphia by bunching eight hits with a sacrifice in the sixth inning won a weird contest from St. Louis 11 to 8. St. Louis started the scoring with a run in the second when Austin was passed and stole second. He took third on an out and crossed the plate on a wild throw by McInnis. In the next inning Compton hit into the right field seats for a home run. A single, a pass, Baker's sacrifice followed by a single by McInnis and D. Murphy, netted the visitors three runs in the fourth.

In the sixth inning after three runs had been scored off Wielman, Stone was sent in to pitch, but he failed to stop the rally and when the inning was over, the leaders had scored four more runs. In this inning Baker singled twice and scored once, his last single, on the hit and run, driving in three runs. Singles by E. Murphy and Barry followed by Schang's double counted one more for Philadelphia in the final inning. St. Louis tried hard to win in his half of the ninth inning, but four runs was the best the locals could send across.

Brused hands again necessitated a rest for Manager Stovall and Brief went to first and Compton to left field for the home team.

Naps Take Game.
Cleveland, July 21.—Cleveland easily defeated Boston 6 to 1 today. Blanding, though wild, held the visitors to five hits, while Cleveland drove Mosely from the box and Hall lacked control.

SMITH WAS THE UNKNOWN PITCHER
Chicago, July 22.—Pitcher Clarence Smith of the Chicago Americans confessed yesterday that he was the "unknown" who pitched the Coulan Athletics to victory on the North Side last Sunday morning. Then in the afternoon he relieved White and pitched four innings against Washington without a hit of a base on balls.

Smith, who is open to a fine or suspension if the national commission considers his case, told Manager Calahan of the White Sox that working for semi-professional teams on the side is a common thing among major league pitchers, especially in the east where no games are played on Sunday.

TILLMAN GETS FRIED CHICKEN
Washington, July 22.—When Senator Tillman, who is on a diet by order of his physician, declared somewhat peevishly that "the art of frying chicken" was unknown in Washington, he had not reckoned with the housewives of the District of Columbia, many of them southerners and jealous of their ability to cook chicken in any fashion. As a result of the aspersions indignant housewives, and a few score admirers of the South Carolina statesman, have been inundating him with fried chicken. They come by parcel post and by messengers, until each day the senator's committee room takes on the appearance of a camp meeting ground.

At first Senator Tillman tried to return the gifts, but none had the name of the donor on it, although many contained notes defying the senator to destroy the fowls or the cooking. As a result the committee room waste basket is continually filled with chicken bones and committee clerks and senate attendants impressed to aid in keeping up with the incoming supply, are nearing a state of rebellion.

"If you wish to inaugurate a real reign of terror," suggested a colleague of Senator Tillman today, "cackle like a hen in the corridor just outside the senator's door."
So far no one has been sufficiently intrepid to try it.

POSTPONE YOKEL-JORDAN MATCH

Because of rain the wrestling match between Mike Yokel and Chris Jordan at the Majestic saucer track at Salt Lake was postponed last night. The management announced the match would be held tonight. Many of the fans who went to the track believe the match will be postponed indefinitely.

A large crowd had gathered at the saucer track to witness the contest and there was much grumbling when the announcement was made that the bout had been called off.

YOKEL AND JORDAN FAIL TO MEET

Salt Lake, July 22.—Rain compelled postponement of the championship wrestling match between Mike Yokel and Chris Jordan, which was scheduled to take place at the Majestic saucer track last night.

Shortly after 7 o'clock, large drops of rain began to fall and, inside of a few minutes, the mat was so wet that it would have been an injustice to the wrestlers and the fans to have gone on with the match. Promoter Hegren and the two wrestlers held a hurried consultation and decided to postpone it until Friday night.

This arrangement was satisfactory to the fans and all parties concerned, as this is considered too important a match to be held under anything but perfect conditions.

OMAHA TENNIS MATCH.

Omaha, Neb., July 22.—The winners of the second round and of the third round of the fourth National Clay Court tournament were on hand today at the Omaha Field club, ready to defend their honors. The pairings for today were not indicative of any close matches.

The sensational work of the Pacific Coast champion in doubles, Griffin and Strachan, elicited much applause yesterday. Tennis experts pick them both to go into the semi-finals.

The courts are in excellent condition, enabling the racket wielders to play fast and snappy games.

At first Senator Tillman tried to return the gifts, but none had the name of the donor on it, although many contained notes defying the senator to destroy the fowls or the cooking. As a result the committee room waste basket is continually filled with chicken bones and committee clerks and senate attendants impressed to aid in keeping up with the incoming supply, are nearing a state of rebellion.

HALF DOLLARS FOR DERELICTS

Chicago, July 22.—A barrelful of half dollars which helped enlighten life for the derelicts who occupied cheap lodging houses in the First ward on the night of the last election, is to be the subject of today's investigation of the special grand jury investigating the November election frauds. More than two hundred denizens of the "flaps" have been subpoenaed to give their version of the "Horn of Plenty."

Special State's Attorney Northrup will endeavor to learn from what bank the large amount of silver money was obtained.

Evidence is said to have been unearthed that illegal voting was prevalent in the First, Eighteenth and River wards, and that the new voting machines played an important part in a well laid plan. Hundreds of illegal votes are alleged to have been registered by election judges who entered the booths with voters, ostensibly to show them how to operate the devices.

MERCHANTS ENTER STRONG PROTEST

Washington, July 22.—Sale of un-called for and undelivered mass of mail matter, that has accumulated in the postoffice department during the year, at stipulated points throughout the country instead of in the capital, has been the case in previous years, has been asked by the merchants of Washington. In a petition to Postmaster General Burleson today, retail merchants association complain the government sale of "dead letter" matter, enters into competition with them and "injures their business."

DESERTED HUSBAND IS FREE

Provo, July 21.—Judge A. B. Morgan, in the Fourth district court today, granted Lauritz Peterson a divorce from Hannah M. Peterson, on the ground of desertion. The custody of a minor child was given to plaintiff Mr. and Mrs. Peterson were married at Logan October 28, 1892.

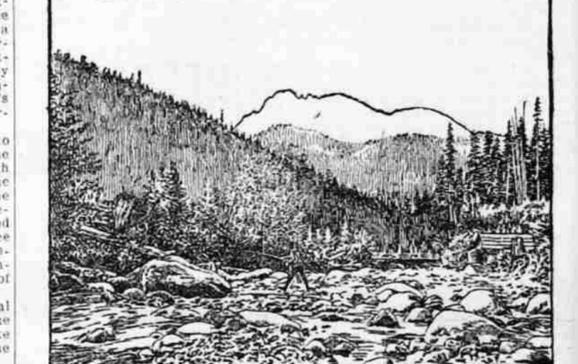

THE ASSOCIATION BELIEVES THIS COMPETITION SHOULD BE MORE WIDELY DISTRIBUTED.

The government sells the packages here without the contents of the package being revealed. The merchants declare that a new order has compelled the department to open all packages and display all contents before bids were asked for. This fact, the merchants declare, operates to encroach heavily upon their legitimate trade and declare the rest of the country should share the loss. The postmaster general is asked to distribute the accumulated matters in lots throughout the country for sale.

SPORTING VACATIONS

"Learn One Thing Every Day" No. 2. FISHING

Copyright, 1913, by The Associated Newspaper School, Inc.

Gently the man in the khaki suit made his way down the bank, and out on the dead, overhanging cedar trunk. Off somewhere a woodpecker was hammering, and in the big oak near at hand a squirrel was chattering. The only other sound was the laughing and bubbling of the little stream. Just down the stream the rapid fumed and tumbled until suddenly it sank out of sight in a deep, black pool. That was the spot! Carefully pointing his rod, the man made the cast. The line spun out, the fly went straight to the center of the pool—splash! A gleam of silver, a sputter of the surface, and he felt the deep delight that always comes with a pull of the line and a bend of the rod. The fish fought and sulked and fought again, until at last, guiding the line carefully with his left hand, the man bent low and scooped him in with the net in his right. Three pounds, silver and speckled, and panting with the unequal struggle!

There is no more exhilarating sport in the world than trout fishing, despite the hard work, the long walks, the discomfort of pushing through bushes and branches, and the slipping on the wet stones and logs.

Maskalonge fishing is different. If you are after this fish, you go to the smaller lakes in the north, or to Canada. Either with frog or minnow bait, or with a fly and "spinner," it is best to cast along the edge of lily pads in the morning or early evening. It is necessary to have a guide or one of the party row the boat, for a maskalonge of any size is all you will want to handle.

Every day a different human interest story will appear in the Standard. You can get a beautiful intaglio reproduction of the above picture, with five others, equally attractive, 1 1/2 inches in size, with this week's "Mentor" in "The Mentor" a well known authority covers the subject of the pictures and stories of this week. Readers of the Standard and the Mentor will know art, literature, history, science, and travel, and own exquisite pictures. On sale at Spargo's Book store.
