Reds Defeat Giants.

Cincinnati, Aug. 8.—Hoblitzell's home run with one man on base, and two out, coming like a bolt out of the blue sky in the ninth inning, today sent New York down to defeat by a score of 7 to 6. It was a free hitting contest, all the pitchers being batted hard. Suggs, who started the game for Cincinnati, lasted six innings, while Tesreau, who began for New York was knocked out of the box in the sixth. Both Ames and Demaree who succeeded them were hit hard, the home run of Hoblitzell coming as the climax.

Cards Shut Out Dodgers.

St. Louis, Aug. 8.—Wingo's home run drive to deep center in the third inning gave St. Louis lead enough to defeat Brooklyn in the second game of the series by a score of 2 to 0. Walker held the home team to three scattered hits and was taken out to permit a pinch hitter to bat for him in the eighth inning. Reulbach, former "Cub," made his debut in a Brooklyn uniform and his wildness netted St. Louis another run in the final inning.

Quakers 16, Cubs 3.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—Philadelphia buried Chicago today under an avalanche of hits, which included home runs, triples and doubles, and won 16 to 3. Manager Doolin's men started their bombardment at the beginning of the game and stopped only momentarily. Lavender started to pitch for Chicago and was hit to all corners of the field for a total of four runs. He was replaced in the next inning by Earl Moore, former Philadelphia twirler.

and although he worked nicely for a few innings, he, too, was met with a fusillade of hits which, with a base on balls, netted three more runs. He finally gave way to Stuart, a pinch hitter, recently purchased from Indianapolis by the locals. Stuart made his debut by striking out. Richie then went to the mound for Manager Evers' men and the cannonading commenced afresh, the visitors making seven hits, which, with four bases on balls and two wild throws by Needham, netted nine runs. Alexander, on the other hand, was almost invincible, the locals making only three hits off his delivery up to the eighth inning when he was eased up. Only one of the first three was clean. Philadelphia's lone error paved the way for the locals to score their first two runs while Alexander really handed them their third run by forcing a man across the plate.

Senators Defeat Naps.

Washington, Aug. 8.—Washington finished strong today and won the first game from Cleveland 4 to 3 by a ninth inning rally. The home team had threatened several times earlier in the game, but could not hit Cullen when men were on bases. In the ninth, Williams, batting for Johnson, singled and Schaefer ran for him. Schaefer was sacrificed to second and scored on Foster's double. Milan then came through with his fourth hit of the day and scored Foster, bringing to an end one of the best games seen on the local grounds this season.

New York, Aug. 9.—When Manager McGraw of the Giants traded three of his men a short time ago for Arthur Fromme, the friends of the Little Napoleon were inclined to believe that he had for the once pulled a "bone." Fromme had occupied the mound for several seasons and had never succeeded in edging more than the epithet of his frame into the limelight of the experts and the fans, all of who think they are experts, could hardly see Arthur at all. But McGraw perceived something that no one else seems to have spied—namely—that Fromme, with anything like a fair chance, would prove to be a regular hurler. McGraw, like the celebrated original of his "soubriquet", is prompt in action. He acquired the unexciting Fromme at the expense of three of his fair to middling men and behold the result. He now has a hurler he can rely upon to hold up his end of the proceedings while Mathewson, Marquard and Demaree are taking a rest. While Fromme's work has not been sensational since he joined the Giants, it has been very valuable and the astute manager aforementioned is vindicated. In a recent game with St. Louis he held that team to five hits and one run. And he frequently does things like that, showing that he is entitled to an honorable share in the lovely lead now enjoyed by the Giants.

In this game with St. Louis, Chief Meyers announced that he had obtained a new grip on his famous war club. In the spheroid three rebounding wallops and drive in one run. And Al Demaree, the wild cartoonist with the weird curve, edged his way into the pastime on this identical afternoon by sending Chief Meyers home with the winning run.

With the big "a" batting slump a thing of the past, with Fromme, the outlander, pitching big league ball, and Demaree, hurler extraordinary, and cartoonist more so, hitting the ball unlike most pitchers, and with the balance of the team maintaining a rapid pace, isn't it up to Connie Mack, rather than to us, to worry as to the final issue of the next world's series?
