Mr. Bartholomay, who is a Chicago lawyer of prominence and a man of wealth, will meet on his wife and daughters at Colorado Springs.

Mr. Becker, at the head of an eight-million-dollar supply house, was called home to Cleveland, Ohio, by urgent business.

Both men said they had a most delightful time on their hunting trip and in Ogden canyon as the guest of G. L. Becker of Ogden.

FRED MUNG, THE MURDERER, CAUGHT

This afternoon Sheriff T. A. Devine received a telegram from Sheriff E. E. Lowry that Fred Mung, the murderer with many aliases, had been captured.

The telegram came from Cobro, Nev., and while no details were given nor any explanation as to where the capture was made, the officers here are of the opinion the man was caught at Cobro and that Sheriff Lowry and Deputy Sheriff Lewis of Pocatello made the arrest.

The telegram stated that the officers would be in Ogden with the prisoner at 4:20 tomorrow morning.

Deputy Sheriff George Crane, who has been in Ogden the past two days looking for Mung, has returned to Pocatello. Sheriff Lowry had followed Mung from Pocatello to Granger and from that point through Ogden to Cobro.

A. R. HEYWOOD BACK FROM COAST

Judge A. R. Heywood is back from California, after seeing the coast cities from Eureka, north of San Francisco, to San Diego.

Mr. Heywood says southern California has been over-boomed while the northern part of the state has been somewhat neglected. He was much impressed with Eureka, the port of entry of Humboldt Bay, a city of 12,000 in the heart of the redwoods, to which point a railroad is now being built from Sausalito through some rough country, the Utah Construction company of Ogden having the contract.

Eureka, says Mr. Heywood, shows up like a city of 40,000, although it is a comparatively small place and isolated. With railroad communication, it should go ahead rapidly. The climate, like that of San Francisco, was pleasing and invigorating. The Ogden visitor rather enjoying the fogs that sweep in from the ocean and cool the atmosphere.

The big sawmills, where redwood timber 8 feet to 18 feet in diameter is reduced to marketable lumber, impressed Mr. Heywood. While on the coast, Mr. Heywood made a side trip to the Yosemite and saw California's wonderland.

In San Francisco he met Lindsay Rogers and H. T. Harris, formerly of Ogden. Both are men of wealth and permanent residents of the coast.

CURRENCY BILL OUT OF CAUCUS

Washington, Aug. 28.—The administration currency bill was finally agreed to in the house Democratic caucus today.

The Democratic caucus amended the currency bill to reduce the reserve which banks outside of central reserve and reserve cities would maintain, from 15 to 12 percent of the aggregate amount of their deposits, and to require national banks in reserve cities to maintain a permanent reserve of 18 percent of their outstanding deposits.

YOUNG BRIDE IS DESERTED BY HUSBAND

At the instance of Deputy Sheriff J. L. Hobson, J. A. Dudley was taken into custody today at Green River, Wyo., and will be called upon to explain why he left his pretty bride of three months in this city without means of support. It has not yet been decided, however, whether a complaint charging him with wife abandonment will be made.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley are residents of Indianola, Neb., where they were married three months ago. Recently they decided to take a trip west, traveling from Indianola to Denver and from there to Salt Lake. Friday afternoon they came to Ogden, since which time Mr. Dudley had suffered from tonsillitis. They had but little left of the $500 they started out with, and Mr. Dudley, according to the statement of his wife, became somewhat discouraged. He is a barber by trade but had not succeeded in getting work to help defray their traveling expenses.

Last evening Mr. Dudley left his wife, saying he would get some refreshments. After he was gone a much longer time than she thought necessary, Mrs. Dudley walked out on the street to find him. Not finding him, she went to the depot where to her surprise she learned that her husband had purchased a ticket for Denver and had departed. She immediately advised the officers and a telegram was sent to the Green River officers to apprehend Dudley, which they did, the sheriff's office here receiving word of the arrest by wire this morning.

Mrs. Dudley was left with only $7. in a strange town, but she has been cared for, she says, and feels that she is among friends. She cannot account for her husband's sudden departure except that he became so discouraged that he concluded to give up the struggle to keep two and again go it alone. She says she does not have to support her and that she is capable of making her own way in the world. However, she is of the opinion that were she to see him again and talk over their affairs, he would brace up and make another effort.

MEXICAN MINISTER REPLIES TO LIND

(Continued from Page One.) This perplexing and distressing situation not only to pay the most scrupulous regard to the sovereignty and independence of Mexico—that was taken as a matter of course to which we are bound by every obligation of right and honor—but also to give every possible evidence which we act in the interest of Mexico alone and not in the interest of any person or body of persons who may have personal or property claims in Mexico, which they may feel that they have the right to press. We are seeking to counsel Mexico for her own good and in the interest of her own peace, and not for any other purpose whatever. The government of the United States would deem itself disgraced if we had any selfish or ulterior purpose in transactions where the peace, happiness and prosperity of a whole people are involved. It is setting out of friendship for Mexico and not as any selfish interest dictates.

As to the course of action suggested by you to be taken by the United States, I may say that the president of the United States regards the question of recognition of the de facto government and of any future government in Mexico as one wholly for the United States to determine. In the exercise of its sovereign rights in this behalf, the United States will not hesitate to suggest the adoption by the de facto government of Mexico seeking recognition, especially at a time of serious domestic disturbances, of such course of action as in the judgment of the United States case one lead to recognition in the future.

In the present instance the president of the United States sincerely and ardently believes that the de facto government in Mexico will see in his suggestions the most peaceful plan for securing the highest interest of Mexico and for insuring the speedy re-establishment of domestic tranquility.

In that spirit and in the spirit voiced in his original instructions, the president of the United States of America authorizes me to submit for the consideration of the de facto government in Mexico.

First—That the election called for October 26, 1913, shall be held in accordance with the constitutional laws of Mexico.

Second—That President Huerta, in the manner originally indicated by the president of the United States of America, give the assurances called for in paragraph "C" of my original instructions.

Third—That the remaining propositions contained in my original instructions shall be taken up later, but speedily, and resolved as circumstances permit in the spirit of their proposal.

The president of the United States of America further authorizes me to say that if the de facto government of Mexico at once acts favorably on the foregoing suggestions, then in that event the president will express to American bankers and their associates assurances that the government of the United States of America will look with favor on the extension of an immediate loan, sufficient in amount to meet the temporary requirements of the de facto government of Mexico.

It is sincerely hoped that your excellency's government will deem it consistent with the best and highest interests of Mexico immediately to accept these propositions. They are submitted in the same spirit and to the same end as the original propositions, but in this more restricted form so that the de facto government in Mexico may act thereon without requiring the co-operation or concurrence of any factor in the situation.

Permit me also, Mr. Minister, in submitting this final suggestion from the president of the United States of America to assure you of my deepest sense of appreciation of the numerous evidences of personal good will of which I have been the recipient at the hands of your Excellency, of individual citizens of the City of Mexico and of the provisional president.

It only remains for me to renew to your excellency the assurance of my high consideration.

Personal Representative of the President of the United States of America.

GOING TO THE YELLOWSTONE

Among those who are leaving to-night on the excursion train to Yellowstone are: Miss Alice Hadfield, stenographer at the Weber club; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Lyman, formerly of Ogden, but now residing in Morgan; Miss Elva Smith, Mrs. Paul Cobb, Mrs. S. W. Postle.

An extra Pullman will be needed to care for the Salt Lake and Ogden excursionists.

HARBERTSON IS NOW REGULAR PATROLMAN

At the meeting of the city board of commissioners this morning, Commissioner T. Samuel Browning reported that on August 1 he appointed Joseph Harbertson a patrolman and he requested that the appointment be confirmed. By a unanimous vote the confirmation was made.

The petition for sewer building on Ballantyne avenue, between Twentieth and Twenty-first streets, was referred to the superintendent of streets.

The following payrolls and claims were allowed and the auditor instructed to draw warrants for the several amounts:

Table with 2 columns: Department, Amount. Payroll: Official $2,952.50, Fire department 1,798.16, Police department 2,273.67, Waterworks department 656.00.

Claims: L. Noble Livery Co. $100.00, Ogden River Reservoir Co. 365.10, Ogden River Reservoir Co. 87.16.

CARD OF THANKS.

We hereby desire to thank all those who so kindly assisted us during the illness and funeral of our baby, Ruth, particularly the speakers and singers at the funeral services, and the many relatives and kind friends who sent floral offerings.

MR. and MRS. W. H. WILLIAMS.

E. L. EMERY IS IN OGDEN ON GOOD ROADS

Erna Lowman Emery, field superintendent of the Intermountain good roads department of the National Highway association, Washington D. C., arrived in Ogden this morning in an automobile over the Overland trail. Mr. Emery and J. D. Larson of the Weber club went to Brigham City this afternoon to meet A. L. Westgaard, vice president of the National Highway association.

Westgaard is on his way to Ogden from Boise on road matters will be held at the Weber club this evening.

Emery refused to express an opinion regarding the logical route for a transcontinental automobile highway, stating that his official capacity will not permit of his expressing any opinions. He must send in a report, complete in every detail, regarding road conditions. As he declared the Overland trail to be fast and good and as he has ridden over the Midland trail, it is believed his report to the Highway commission will leave that body in no doubt as to the best road.

Emery said he did not know but that he might be arrested. While traveling over the Red desert in Wyoming, he and his driver came upon a stalled touring car with curtains drawn. When they investigated, they found within the curtains of the abandoned car, a box containing oranges, bananas and peaches. Such a find in the desert was too much of a temptation and Emery said he fell.

"That is the first time I have ever plucked bananas on the Red desert," said Emery, at the club this afternoon.

SOCIETY

BIRTHDAY PARTY

A pleasant afternoon was spent Wednesday in honor of Louise Brien, it being her fourth birthday. The little one received many pretty presents and spent a joyous afternoon in playing games.

Those present were: Thelma Siefert, Helen Reed, Margaret Bell, Madeline Reeder, Jannette Reeder, Virginia Reeder, Ella Fleming, Dorothy Faulkner, Bernadine Anderson, Arnold Faulkner, Howard Reed, Ronald Paquin, Leslie Flemings.

ENGAGEMENT

Mrs. Edward A. Rich announces the engagement of her sister, Miss Lucile Cozens of Montpelier, Ida., to Herbert C. Hancock of Ogden. The marriage to take place in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ikk leave today for Mr. Ikk's former home, Ashland, Wis. Before returning they will visit Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City.

Lawrence Osaman of Salt Lake and Albert Aland of Ogden left Monday evening last for Cleveland, Ohio, where they will take a four-year course in medicine at Western Reserve university.

THE MISSES HARRIS ENTERTAIN The Misses Fern and Emma Harris entertained at a prettily appointed party Wednesday evening at the home of their parents at Harrisville. The home was artistically decorated with ferns, marguerites and gladiolas and the evening was spent in games, music and merry-making, after which a delicious repast was served in the dining room by the mother of the hostesses.

Those present were: Misses Fern and Emma Harris, Marguerite Hanley Myrtle Wilson, Pearl Peck, Leona Dwyer, Francis Stoddard, Celia Ford, Flo and Mable Ferrin, Wilma Hopkin, Lillie Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Hayes, Lillian Hayes and Athel Later were present from Idaho.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

The Ogden Historical society will open the 1913-14 club year September 6 with a meeting at the home of Mrs. J. M. Greer.

"President's Day" by Miss Erb and Current Events by all members will be the leading items on the program.

BUSY BEE CLUB.

Another happy meeting of the Busy Bee club was held yesterday afternoon with Miss Leona Revor as hostess at her home, 257 Twenty-eighth street. The usual hour spent in embroidery work was followed by the serving of refreshments and merry games that all enjoyed to the utmost.

The dining room was made especially attractive for the occasion and the dining table was daintily laid and decorated. A bowl of pink asters made a pretty centerpiece and prettily little green boats filled with pink asters and tied with dainty pink ribbons were the attractive favors. Pink napkins with bright pink carnation design were laid at each plate and suspended from the chandelier and at each window and doorway were gay Japanese lanterns. Pink ices and cakes with pink decorations were a tempting and pretty part of the daintily served menu.

The last meeting before the opening of school will be held next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Ruth Rathbun at 365 Twenty-eighth street.

Covers were laid for June and Alleen Gray, June Geiger, Leona Revor, Ruth Rathbun, club members, and Sevilla Mollerup, Verna and Mabel Reeves, guests.

In the merry peanut game Mabel Reeves won the prize, a dainty cream pitcher.

MRS. FROST RETURNS.

Mrs. W. H. Frost, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Nellie, has returned home after a five weeks' trip along the Pacific coast. They visited Seattle, Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles. They were delighted with California. In Los Angeles Mrs. Frost met E. M. Luckett and wife, formerly of Ogden, who are now residents of that city.

BANQUETED AT HERMITAGE. Tuesday evening members of Salt Lake people were the guests of "on duty" Wilson and Mrs. Wilson at the old residence at the Hermitage. They were banqueted with trout and chicken under the supervision of Mrs. Wilson, after which there was a delightful automobile trip from the Hermitage via Eden and Liberty through North Ogden canyon, the beautiful sunset across the Great Salt lake being viewed from the summit of the mountain.

The guests arrived in the city at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and were immediately taken to the banquet table in automobiles, the start for North Ogden canyon not being made until nearly 7 o'clock.

Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wenne of the Hotel Utah, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Stewart, Miss Florence Gill, William Gill, Julius Bamberger, Mr. and Mrs. Ashby Snow of Salt Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and the Misses Hattie and Flora Wilson of the Hermitage.

PATHFINDERS HAD ROUGH JOURNEY

As a result of the hardships and poor trails encountered on the pathfinding expedition sent out by the Weber club, Secretary J. D. Larson, in his report to be submitted will oppose the spending of any money for the construction of a trail between Ogden and Weber canyons. Conditions were such, according to Larson, that a fortune would be required to build the road as a link of the Overland. The party returned today.

C. A. Wright, Walter Dean and Larson left on the pathfinding expedition last Friday. They went through Ogden canyon, South Fork and Scull Crack canyons to Wasatch. In many places they encountered only saddle horse trails and in many instances the road was so rough that there was danger of the Ford tipping over on its side. Frequently the three were out of the car exercising on the block and tackle to pull the car along.
