CHARLTON MAY PLEAD INSANITY

Come, Italy, Sept. 12—Dr. Sala, part of whose duties consists of a visit to the prisoners in the Como jail every two weeks, today examined Porter Charlton, the young American, charged with the murder of his wife at Lake Como.

Dr. Sala said it would be necessary to make a further examination of the prisoner before he could give definite opinions concerning his mental and physical condition. Charlton, however, seems perfectly well.

Dispatches from the United States have hinted that Charlton's defense will include an allegation of insanity. The trial probably will go over until April.
