SENATOR LODGE IS MUCH IMPROVED

Nebant, Mass., Sept. 30.—A comfortable night was passed by United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, who has been in a serious condition for some days as a result of an illness which necessitated an operation last Friday for the removal of a gastric ulcer.

This bulletin was issued this afternoon: "Senator Lodge was much improved today. The nervous strain is passing off and he is becoming calmer. Visitors will not be allowed to disturb him and we have every hope of a swift recovery."

HOMES ROBBED ON THE LAST NIGHT OF FASHION SHOW

A burglary, believed to have taken place on Saturday evening with several mystifying features, was made known to the police today by Mrs. M. Nielson, 2830 Adams avenue, reported the loss of $35 and a handbag. The people in the adjoining rooms of the same house also reported the loss of two jeweled pins valued at about $30.

Mrs. Nielson said today that she had remained at home with a baby two years old while the others in the house were down town to participate in the Fashion Show festivities. At about 9 o'clock, a neighbor came to the house and asked for assistance as a member of the family had sustained injuries from a fall. Mrs. Nielson left, leaving the baby in the front room. She did not close her front door and observed that the adjoining door was opened. When she returned, after an absence of 20 minutes, she found things as she had left them. She went to the table where her money bag was kept. Although she found the drawer pulled out a trifle, she does not know why she did not see if the purse or money was gone. She closed the drawer and did not look again until yesterday when she was about to pay a bill. She found the purse and money gone. The lady living next door also discovered that her jewelry was missing. Both believed it of no use to notify the police, but today Mrs. Nielson decided that the thief might be traced by means of the missing handbag and a description of the jewelry was also reported.

The handbag in which the money was kept was of the plain black leather variety with polished nickel trimmings. The most valuable of the jewelry articles taken was a ruby stick pin which was highly prized by the owner.

S. H. HENDERSHOT AND O. A. PARMLEY NOT CANDIDATES

Since the announcement in the Standard that Commissioner J. C. Nye will not be a candidate for reelection, the political air has somewhat calmed and the commissioner field left open to me out for the first term. There still is a little anxiety as to the mayorship, as the incumbent has not stated definitely whether he will ask for reelection. It is conjectured, however, that Mr. Fell will be in the race.

A number of people are spoken of for the positions, but in most instances, when approached on the subject, they declare they are not going to get into the race, and they prefer not to be considered in any way in connection with the primary election.

O. A. Parmley of the Ogden Steam laundry and S. H. Hendershot, of the Troy laundry, have been talked of as possible candidates for commissioner, but both men when questioned on the subject today stated emphatically that they are not in the race and have had no intention of running. They said that they had not authorized any one to use their names in connection with the fall election.

HORSE ABUSED WHEN JOY RIDERS TAKE A SWIFT DRIVE

A horse and buggy owned by Mrs. Addie Angel Fellows were taken from in front of the residence of Mrs. William Myers, 2225 Madison avenue, last evening and the rig was not recovered until after midnight when the horse was found tied to a street car pole at the end of the Twenty-fifth street line.

The animal had been beaten and evidently abused by hard driving. The robe had been taken from the buggy and the whip destroyed in slashing the horse.

The police are searching for the joy riders.

M. E. WILCOX SELLS A RIGHT-OF-WAY TO THE CITY

The question of extending the intake of the water supply for the city on Wheeler Creek was settled this morning when the city board of commissioners accepted the proposition of M. E. Wilcox to give the city right-of-way over his property for $100, reserving the privilege of placing a 2-inch water pipe in the trench. The right-of-way is to be ten feet wide and about 400 yards in length.

Some time ago the city decided to extend its Wheeler Creek intake to a point beyond the Wilcox summer camps and to this end negotiated for a right-of-way but the commissioners could not agree with Mr. Wilcox as to the price. The board offered $100, but Mr. Wilcox wanted about $300. The city fathers then began an investigation as to water contamination and Mr. Wilcox was advised that it would be necessary to protect the city water intake against refuse or excrements from his camps and the city physician and sanitary inspector were sent to the Wilcox place to make investigations, the gentlemen returning to the city with the information that the Wheeler Creek water was being contaminated.

In the meantime the city commissioners and Mr. Wilcox got nearer together until this morning when an understanding was reached and an agreement entered into by which the city may extend its water pipes to a point above the Wilcox camps. The mayor says the extension will be made at the earliest possible time. He also said that there was no necessity for publishing the report of Dr. Whalen and Inspector George Shorten because it had to do only with sanitary conditions on Wheeler Creek near the intake. A settlement with Mr. Wilcox was also at hand, the mayor said, and it was a question of only a short time when the nuisance would be abated and it was deemed not advisable to unduly disturb the public.

In the recommendation of Commissioner J. C. Nye, the city auditor was instructed to draw warrants on the special tax fund for paving district 100 to pay refunds as they may be called for.

August Jensen was awarded the contract for building sidewalk district No. 122. The bids offered were as follows:

J. P. O'Neill Construction Co. $2,216.59

August Jensen 2,994.15

The following claims were allowed and the auditor authorized to draw warrants for the amounts: Charles W. Goodman, decorations $30

PLAN TO REDUCE REPRESENTATION

Washington, Sept. 30.—Comprehensive plans to reduce southern representation in Republican national conventions will be submitted tomorrow to the Republican congress campaign committee, by an advisory committee of five members of the house, which will offer three proposals, each based on the idea that the delegates to national conventions shall represent votes actually cast in elections. Efforts will be made to keep a quorum of the congressional committee in Washington long enough to act on one of the three plans and send it to the Republican national committee, so that an extraordinary national convention may be called next winter to determine its merit.

W. A. JONES DIVORCE CASE BEFORE THE DISTRICT COURT

Answering the complaint and also the order to show cause in the case of Lillie A. Jones against W. A. Jones the defendant maintains that he is able and willing to provide for his family, if the wife will return to the home, stating further that Mrs. Jones has ample means with which to conduct her case against him and sufficient funds with which to supply the needs of herself and children.

Mr. Jones states in his affirmative reply that his wife left home surreptitiously about September 10, of this year, while he was away, taking with her the bedding, a washing machine, the dishes and canned food and about $150 in cash which had been left in the bureau drawer. He also says that she has done nothing to help support the family except to do the duties of a housewife and that she is not a fit person to have the care and custody of the children because she has failed to give them enough to eat and has objected to him doing so.

The defendant was cited to appear in Judge Howell's court yesterday morning to show cause why he should not pay temporary alimony and advance money for attorney fees and the prosecution of the suit, but the hearing was continued until this morning, the attorney for the defendant filing an answer in the meantime.

Judge Howell was not able to attend court this morning, due to a slight indisposition, so the hearing was again deferred.

JUDGE ON THE TRAIL OF THE TOBACCO DEALERS

Editor Standard: I want to reach the ears of the men who are engaged in retail tobacco business in Ogden city, and ask to do this through your paper.

Persons say to me occasionally that boys under eighteen years of age can purchase tobacco at cigar stores in this city any time they want to do so, and that such sales are constantly made.

I have thought enough of these dealers—considering them in almost every instance men of good character, desiring the reputation of being good citizens—to reply to these assertions by declaring my belief that the law against selling to minors is not frequently broken. Occasionally I have had sufficient reason to fear that my confidence in the tobacco dealers was not fully justified, but then I was disposed to lay the blame upon careless clerks.

I have before me now what appears to be sufficient cause to feel that the tobacco dealers, in considerable number, are either determined to disregard the law or to observe it only in the most careless and indifferent manner. Time was when these indifferent dealers could make

We fully realize that there is but one sentiment in business— CONFIDENCE After that the entire structure is built on quality, price and service. Every purchase made at this store carries with it an insurance policy against the possibility of any imperfection in manufacture or any dissatisfaction that may occur to the purchaser. We value your confidence above all else and earnestly strive in all our words and actions to fully merit it. You are real sure to enjoy doing business here. Why not try us today? BURTS' the plea that there was great difficulty in telling whether a boy was eighteen or nineteen years of age or only seventeen, or even sixteen sometimes; but now this excuse is not workable for the reason that the age is fixed at twenty-one years by the law, and any owner of or clerk in a store can tell that a boy under eighteen is not over twenty-one.

Now, I very much wish to avoid public prosecutions of boys or dealers, regarding the tobacco question, and I make this one more appeal to dealers, and give this one more warning to them and to the boys, and say that the law prohibiting the sale of tobacco to minors, or use or possession by minors, and concerning the frequenting of or visiting cigar stores by them, will be enforced if possible, even if boys have to be sent to the industrial school, and men be sent to jail.

It looks as if the saloon men are observing laws of the kind here referred to better than tobacco dealers and there must be a change on the part of the latter. (Signed) VOLNEY C. GUNNELL, Judge Juvenile Court, Ogden, September 30.
