BANKERS TAKE A FINAL VOTE

Demand Amendments to Federal Reserve Act and Approve Own Currency Commission.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 9.—The bankers of the United States again declared yesterday their opposition to the proposed federal reserve plan of reform in the currency and banking system.

With only one dissenting voice on the final vote, more than 2000 bankers from all sections of the country gathered at the first day's sessions of the annual convention of the American Bankers association ratified the action of the conference of bankers in demanding amendments to the federal reserve act, now pending in congress.

The resolutions in which this ratification and approval were contained also included commendations of the president, the secretary of the treasury and congress for their efforts to create in this country an elastic as well as safe currency, and pledged them hearty support for the enactment of proper legislation to that end.

RAILROAD FINED BY U. S. COURT

Found Guilty of Working Men Overtime and Assessed For Each Man.

Los Angeles, Oct. 9.—The San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake Railroad company was found guilty and fined yesterday in the United States district court on a charge of working its employes over time. Judge Olin Welborn instructed the jury to return a verdict of guilty of a violation of the interstate commerce law.

The railroad was assessed $100 each for sixteen engineers and trainmen, $150 each for six trainmen, and $150 each for four telegraph operators all employed overtime according to the charge.

The company's defense was that the violation was unavoidable and had been caused by a succession of wrecks.
