REPORTS ON WATER AND MILK ARE MADE PUBLIC

At the meeting of the city board of health this morning, the reports of R. L. Byrnes and George W. Bailey on the examination of milk and water samples were submitted. City Physician Walter Whalen was given a month's leave of absence, the proposed ordinance reorganizing the health department were discussed and Sanitary Inspector George Shorten submitted his report for the month of September.

Following the reading of the reports by the city physician, the reports were ordered filed.

Dr. R. A. McCune was appointed to attend the duties of the city physician during the absence of Dr. Whalen.

Dr. Whalen intends to take a short vacation and in the meantime investigate methods of health departments in other cities.

City Attorney Valentine Gideon met with the board and the proposed ordinances were discussed but no decision was reached.

In the reports submitted by R. M. Byrnes, state bacteriologist, he finds that one of the water samples and one of the milk samples contained gas-producing germs. He reported favorably on the others.

George W. Bailey of the High school however found colon bacilli in both samples submitted and he states that a usable water should not possess such bacteria.

The reports of the bacteriologists, dated October 2 and October 6, respectively, follows:

From State Chemist. "Samples of milk #46 and water 235 have been completed and while each contain gas-producing organisms, there was not found evidence of fecal contamination or sewerage. The milk examined contained more or less of gas-producing varieties and is therefore not as clean as it should be."

"Samples of water 274 and 275 are not entirely completed. The former contains organisms of the colon group which we must yet differentiate. Sample 275 seems more favorable in its content, but it too must be tested further. I shall send you the findings at the earliest possible date."

RESERVED SEATS FOR BIG WRESTLING CONTEST

Joseph Goss, manager of the Orpheum theatre, has received a blue-print of the Salt Lake area in which will be staged the Yekel-Jordan championship match and he is now preparing to sell to Ogdenites tickets to the match, which will be held next Monday evening. A section has been reserved for Ogden from which the fans may select their seats.

A special train has been arranged for the accommodation of local people for that evening. The train will leave Ogden in ample time for the match and will be held in Salt Lake until after the contest.

NARRAMORE TESTIFIES IN THE GARNER HEARING

Hearing of the question as to whether the retail liquor license of Frank P. Garner shall be renewed was resumed this morning by Judges James A. Howell and Nathan J. Harris in the district court.

Testifying for Mr. Garner, Dr. F. L. Narramore said that he was at the St. Anthony bar on the evening of July 25 when August Bodh and David Edling came to the place and purchased three bottles of beer.

The witness said that it was Edling who was of age, who purchased and paid for the beer, rather than Bodh, who was under age. He remembered distinctly that Edling paid the purchase and that he carried the beer under his arm when the two left, and he was also certain that no drinks were served the two men while they were in the saloon.

Mr. Garner took the witness stand and explained to the judges the circumstance of J. N. Kimball being found in the rear of his place of business a number of months ago. He said that Mr. Kimball came to the saloon early in the morning bespattered with mud and wet from the storm and asked permission to sit down and get warm.

He was given the privilege and Mr. Garner said that as soon as he could get word to his friends to take care of him, he did so, and that the man was taken home in a cab. He denied that he had ever sold Mr. Kimball liquor when intoxicated. He had sold him whiskey only a few times when he was sober.

Mr. Kimball, he said, was not on the blacklist and that he had never been requested by Mr. Kimball's family or the city officers to not sell him liquor.

The witness also testified that he had instructed his bartenders at all times to conduct the business in accordance with the laws of the city and state, and that no complaints ever had been made against his place by anybody.

Mr. Garner said that Edling purchased the beer in question when he came to the saloon on the night of July 25 with August Bodh and that Bodh had nothing to do with the transaction, and that as a matter of fact he was in the rear of the saloon when the purchase was made.

In relation to the conversation with Nelson, Bodh's brother-in-law, and Edling, in which it had been alleged that Nelson asked for funds to aid in young Bodh's defense in the district court, Mr. Garner said that Nelson told him that if he did not contribute to the fund he would make him trouble. The witness said that he refused to give any money and told Nelson and Edling that they were blackmailers and he ordered them out of his place of business.

Mr. Garner also stated that Nelson told him that his attorney had sent him to the saloon men after money with which to clear Bodh of the charge of assault with intent to kill. Deputy Sheriff Hobson. He knew of a number of saloon men to whom Nelson had gone for money.

Other witnesses called to testify regarding the manner in which the Garner saloon has been conducted were J. E. Gossett, T. C. Iverson, J. W. Brown, Officer H. C. Peterson and W. C. Osborne, all of whom gave testimony to the effect that the saloon bears a good name and is being conducted according to the city ordinances.

Mr. Iverson is a saloonkeeper and he testified that Nelson, Bodh's brother-in-law, had approached him for money to aid in the young man's defense. A sergeant person stated that he had never had occasion to go to the Garner saloon on account of disturbance and Mr. Osborne, Garner's bartender, said he had been instructed by Mr. Garner to not sell liquor to minors or habitual drunkards, and that the instructions had been adhered to strictly at all times. He said that he had refused to sell liquor to Mr. Kimball even when he was not intoxicated.

STEEL FOR THE NEW BRIDGE HAS ARRIVED

Steel for the new wagon bridge across Weber river which is being jointly constructed with the Bamberger railway bridge is at hand but Commissioner J. C. Nye states that the steel construction will not be started until after the first of the year. He says that the work cannot be done advantageously until Mr. Bamberger has completed a part of that portion of the bridge which he will use.

Mr. Nye also states that macadam work on the dugway road is progressing nicely and that before the winter, it will be completed to the top of the hill. He thinks it will be among the best roads in the country when it is fully rolled.

Society GREENWELL-HALGREN

Yesterday at noon in the Salt Lake Temple, Miss Beryl Greenwell and Levon O. Halgren, both of this city were united in marriage. Miss Greenwell, one of Ogden's most popular and charming young ladies, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Greenwell, 231 Twenty-third street. Congratulations from numerous friends have been extended and many social affairs given in her honor the past two weeks.

Mr. Halgren is a trusted employee of the Geo. A. Lower Hardware company and a host of friends, both in the business and social world, wish him happiness.

Last evening at 6 o'clock in the Hotel Utah an elaborately prepared wedding supper was served a number of relatives and intimate friends of the popular young couple being present. After a short stay at the Hotel Utah, Mr. and Mrs. Halgren will reside in Salt Lake City until the new year when they will move to Ogden. One of the prettiest bungalows of the city is being built on Twenty-third street, between Van Buren and Capitol avenues.

HESE-WINTER

Yesterday morning at 11, Father P. M. Cushman united in the holy bonds of matrimony Miss Helen Hesse of Ogden and Arthur Winter of Salt Lake, present manager of the Gray News stand. Miss Hesse is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hesse of 2581 Lincoln avenue, and has been for some time an assistant bookkeeper for the firm of Blackman & Griffin. The young bride has a long list of friends and is popular in her social set.

The marriage ceremony was pronounced at residence of Father Cushman, Miss Frances Marsh and Harry Hesse, Jr., brother of the bride, accompanying as bridesmaid and best man. The bride was attended in a handsome dark blue going-away suit and carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

Following the marriage a beautifully appointed wedding breakfast was served at the Hesse home. Mrs. Hesse was assisted by Mrs. H. T. Marsh. The parlor was bright with red carnations and ferns and in the dining room a dainty color scheme in white and green was prettily carried out. The tables were perfectly laid and at the bride's table a huge bride's cake adorned with white roses and ferns formed the centerpiece. Only the bridal party and close relatives and friends were present.

Many gifts of cut-glass, silver, pictures, embroidered linens, hand painted china and various other appropriate articles were the tokens of the esteem of many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Winter will be at home at their cozy cottage at 242 South Seventh East street Salt Lake after November 22.

BAPTIST KENSINGTON.

One of the most successful and delightfully arranged meetings of the Ladies' Kensington of the Baptist church was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. J. B. Trimble in Wilson Lane. Forty ladies of the church were present and a most enjoyable time was spent.

The newly elected officers felt greatly encouraged on the hearty response to their invitation for the first meeting. Mrs. Jay A. Smith, newly elected president, presided for the first time.

A nicely prepared luncheon was served by the hostess being laid for forty ladies present.

OFFICIAL VISIT.

Corra A. Hadley, president of the Rebecca State assembly of Utah and staff officers will pay an official visit to the Queen City Rebecca lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F. tomorrow evening.

FAREWELL PARTY.

An event that will live long in the memory of three of Ogden's stalwart sons, was the farewell social and dancing party held in the Weber academy hall last night.

The guests of honor were Boyd Lindsay, Robert Jones and John Hancock. All three are graduates of Weber, the first two being well known for their brilliant work on last year's champion basketball team, and with Mr. Hancock for their prominence in general student body activities during their four years at the school.

The hall was specially decorated for the occasion with Weber academy pennants, while a bower of palms and chrysanthemums covered the orchestra platform.

Delicious fruit punch was served by several young ladies and the dancing was much enjoyed by more than 400 friends of the young men. The music was furnished by an excellent orchestra of eight pieces.

During the evening, an address was made by each of the guests of honor, in which they expressed their appreciation of the presence of such a large number of friends and said that the affair would always be a pleasant memory to them.

The party was arranged by the Fifth Ward Amusement committee, with Thomas Cunningham and Moroni Poulter in active charge at the hall.

The missionaries will leave in the near future for foreign climes. Messrs. Lindsay and Jones to the Swiss-German mission, and Mr. Hancock to England.

GRANITE BOOSTING FOR NEXT GAME

Salt Lake, Oct. 23.—Never in the history of the Granite high school has the football spirit been so strong as it is at the present time. Every boy and girl, as well as the teachers, at Granite are working hard to help the football eleven win from the Ogden high school tomorrow afternoon.

The teams will clash at 3:30 o'clock and the game promises to be one of the hardest fought contests ever played on the farmers' field. Ausherman, Spencer and Hamilton, who were out of the freshmen contest because of injuries, will be back in the game.

A football assembly has been held every afternoon at the Granite high school. Coach Wild Ashton has high hopes of defeating the Orange and Black team. Matthews, Cahoon, Ausherman and Hamilton will make up Granite's backfield, while Spencer, Jones, McDonald, Carlson, Dundas, Riches and Hentze will be in the line.

Coach Lon Romney of Ogden has given the men a little rest since the game last Saturday and it is likely that the Tigers will be on their toes when they enter the Granite game tomorrow. A large number of the Ogden students are also coming down with the team, which still has a chance to take the state championship by winning from the other high schools and taking the next game from the Salt Lake high school. None of the Ogden men were badly injured in the Salt Lake game and this showed that the Orange and Black spirit is back of the team, which is training hard for a successful season.

The United States produced more white arsenic last year than ever before and the imports also were the greatest on record.

This offer will not be repeated when the present stock is exhausted.

Correction

Our advertisement of Sunday, quoted "Never-Rip" Overalls at 75c. This should have read "Boys' Never-Rip Overalls 75c; Men's Never-Rip Overalls $1.00." These are our established prices on these splendid Overalls and we do not deviate from these prices. We are glad to make this correction and to also state that we advise our customers to buy "Never-Rip" Overalls in preference to others, as they are made in Ogden, by Ogden people exclusively and we believe in fostering this "Home Pay Rolls." Most of our customers feel the same way about it.
