

The National Special Sale On Ladies' NEW FALL SUITS

Shipments arrived too late, manufacturer allowed us 1-3 off on them, and we are going to give you the benefit—There were 85 suits in the lot—in all materials and the very latest styles to be had—If you want a high class suit at a medium price, come here and make your selection—

ONLY ONE MORE DAY—SATURDAY
OCTOBER 25TH.

1/3 Off

$20.00 Suits . $13.33 $32.50 Suits . $21.67
$27.50 Suits . $16.34 $45.00 Suits . $30.00

IF YOU HAVEN'T THE CASH
Come and Investigate Our Dignified Credit System.

Specials on Coats, Furs, Millinery, Dresses and all Ladies' Furnishings; also Men's Clothing, Hats, Shoes and Furnishings.

THEATERS

AT THE ORPHEUM.
With an abundance of good music and sufficient comedy to make over the Orpheum theatre into a sanitarium for the cure of the grouch, the Pantages' bill this week is one that will delight even the most hardened patron of vaudeville. The first-nighters were out in force last night, the seats for the first show having been sold out early in the performance, necessitating a wait outside on the part of those who had failed to make reservations early.

In point of numbers and general all-around worth, the musical act of the five musical lassies deserves its place as the headline. Amid unique stage settings featured by electrical effects, the lassies give several popular selections upon various combinations of brass and string instruments. Special mention should be given to the one who played with brilliancy upon a soprano saxophone and another who did solo work upon a sousaphone, an immense brass instrument.
Curran and Clifton open the bill with a pleasing offering of vocal and instrumental numbers. The lady of the team handles the banjo in a highly satisfactory manner, playing with such ease that her work does not appear difficult. Her partner plays the violin and sings in good voice. If there was one defect in the act it was that the tones of the violin could with difficulty be heard when the young lady played forte upon her banjo.
Styling himself the inward conversationalist, Tilford entertains his audience for a time with some new and old tricks in the ventriloquist business and then sings a selection in such a manner that a hearty demand for an encore is made. Tilford's success with the conventional manikin of his profession lies in part to his use of new jokes.
Dancing is always popular in vaudeville, especially if the dancers have several new and unique steps in their program and the dancing in part accounts for the popularity of the Marshall and Trillie act last night. "The Troubles of Sambo and Dinah," their offering, gives opportunity for some clever negro dialect work, some comedy singing and much better dancing.
Great men, past and present, are presented by Joseph Callahan, who "makes up" for the parts in view of the audience. He represents six celebrities, giving excerpts from their speeches or writings. His Mark Twain, Brigham Young and Pope Leo were his best.
Presenting an entirely new brand of comedy, Thomas H. Dalton, as the editor of the Daffeyville News, had his audience laughing from the beginning of his act to the end. Dalton explains why his paper should be subscribed for by showing how the "stories" are written. In conclusion, he gives a song introducing an imitation of a bagpipe that is good.

other who did solo work upon a sousaphone, an immense brass instrument.
Curran and Clifton open the bill with a pleasing offering of vocal and instrumental numbers. The lady of the team handles the banjo in a highly satisfactory manner, playing with such ease that her work does not appear difficult. Her partner plays the violin and sings in good voice. If there was one defect in the act it was that the tones of the violin could with difficulty be heard when the young lady played forte upon her banjo.
Styling himself the inward conversationalist, Tilford entertains his audience for a time with some new and old tricks in the ventriloquist business and then sings a selection in such a manner that a hearty demand for an encore is made. Tilford's success with the conventional manikin of his profession lies in part to his use of new jokes.
Dancing is always popular in vaudeville, especially if the dancers have several new and unique steps in their program and the dancing in part accounts for the popularity of the Marshall and Trillie act last night. "The Troubles of Sambo and Dinah," their offering, gives opportunity for some clever negro dialect work, some comedy singing and much better dancing.
Great men, past and present, are presented by Joseph Callahan, who "makes up" for the parts in view of the audience. He represents six celebrities, giving excerpts from their speeches or writings. His Mark Twain, Brigham Young and Pope Leo were his best.
Presenting an entirely new brand of comedy, Thomas H. Dalton, as the editor of the Daffeyville News, had his audience laughing from the beginning of his act to the end. Dalton explains why his paper should be subscribed for by showing how the "stories" are written. In conclusion, he gives a song introducing an imitation of a bagpipe that is good.

seats for the first show having been sold out early in the performance, necessitating a wait outside on the part of those who had failed to make reservations early.
In point of numbers and general all-around worth, the musical act of the five musical lassies deserves its place as the headline. Amid unique stage settings featured by electrical effects, the lassies give several popular selections upon various combinations of brass and string instruments. Special mention should be given to the one who played with brilliancy upon a soprano saxophone and another who did solo work upon a sousaphone, an immense brass instrument.
Curran and Clifton open the bill with a pleasing offering of vocal and instrumental numbers. The lady of the team handles the banjo in a highly satisfactory manner, playing with such ease that her work does not appear difficult. Her partner plays the violin and sings in good voice. If there was one defect in the act it was that the tones of the violin could with difficulty be heard when the young lady played forte upon her banjo.
Styling himself the inward conversationalist, Tilford entertains his audience for a time with some new and old tricks in the ventriloquist business and then sings a selection in such a manner that a hearty demand for an encore is made. Tilford's success with the conventional manikin of his profession lies in part to his use of new jokes.
Dancing is always popular in vaudeville, especially if the dancers have several new and unique steps in their program and the dancing in part accounts for the popularity of the Marshall and Trillie act last night. "The Troubles of Sambo and Dinah," their offering, gives opportunity for some clever negro dialect work, some comedy singing and much better dancing.
Great men, past and present, are presented by Joseph Callahan, who "makes up" for the parts in view of the audience. He represents six celebrities, giving excerpts from their speeches or writings. His Mark Twain, Brigham Young and Pope Leo were his best.
Presenting an entirely new brand of comedy, Thomas H. Dalton, as the editor of the Daffeyville News, had his audience laughing from the beginning of his act to the end. Dalton explains why his paper should be subscribed for by showing how the "stories" are written. In conclusion, he gives a song introducing an imitation of a bagpipe that is good.

MAJOR WELCOMES W. C. T. U. DELEGATES

New York, Oct. 24.—The triennial convention of the World's Women's Christian Temperance union, opened in the Academy of Music, Brooklyn, today, with nearly 10,000 delegates, representing every state in the union and thirty foreign countries present.
The delegates were welcomed by Mayor Adolph Kliegel.
Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, vice president of the international organization, presided in place of Countess Rosalind of Carlisle, the president, who was unable to come. She sent a greeting which was read by her daughter, Lady Avera Howard, who is here with a delegation of forty from England.
Today's sessions were taken up with reports of committees and with missionaries in various parts of the world.

WILL SEARCH FOR EXPLORER.
New York, Oct. 24.—Friends of Dillon Wallace announced here yesterday that unless the explorer is heard from within a fortnight a relief expedition will be organized to search for him in interior Labrador, which he entered in July for a three-months' trip.
Wallace went north to make scientific studies and place a tablet on the rock at the place where his friend and fellow explorer, Leonidas Hubbard, died of exhaustion ten years ago.

Dance with the Fraternal Brotherhood

Monday night, October 27.
Eagles' Hall, Hudson Ave.
Admission 50c per couple.

RATE HEARINGS END IN BOSTON

Interstate Commerce Commission to Decide Case at a November Conference.

ROAD'S HEAVY DEBT

Enormous Salaries Paid to New England Railroad Presidents.

Boston, Oct. 24.—The investigation of railroad rates in New England, which has been conducted by the Interstate Commerce commission at various times in the last year, was brought to a close yesterday after Howard Elliott, chairman of the New York, New Haven and Hartford directorate, and Morris McDonald, president of the Boston and Maine had been heard.

Charles A. Prouty of the Interstate Commerce commission who sat with commissioners of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont and Massachusetts said after the hearing that without any doubt the Boston and Maine railroad would be permitted to increase its rates. But before coming to any conclusion in the matter, he said, the full Interstate Commerce commission would come to Boston next month and confer with the representatives of the roads and the shippers in an effort to decide just what was best to do.

Boston and Maine in Debt.
Mr. Elliott told the commission that the New Haven Railroad controlled the Boston and Maine and was interested vitally in its success. The Boston and Maine, he said, met obligations of $27,000,000, with in the next six months or go into the hands of a receiver.

Receiving salaries, McDonald said that an allowance of $60,000 was voted last June to former President Charles S. Mellen, who had been paid no salary. The Maine Central also voted $40,000 to Mr. Mellen.
Mr. McDonald said that he was receiving $56,000 as president of the Boston and Maine and $15,000 as president of the Maine Central although he was only able to give his Sundays and possibly a few Saturdays to the latter road.

In dismissing Mr. McDonald, Commissioner Prouty said:
"It is our opinion that the man who is president of the Boston and Maine has enough to do to devote all his time to that road."

NEW SEAMAN'S BILL IS PASSED

La Follette Substitute Amends Measure to Agree With Treaty Relations.

UNION SEAMAN LAUDED

Measure Goes Through Without Rollcall After Extended Debate.

Washington, Oct. 24.—The La Follette substitute for the "Seaman's Service bill" so amended as not to affect the treaty relations of the United States until the president has been given an opportunity to readjust them, passed the senate yesterday at the end of a debate that was characterized by unusual proceedings.
In the end the debate became a eulogy of Andrew Feruseth, president of the Seamen's union who was lauded as the man chiefly responsible for the passage of the bill. Mr. Feruseth who sat in a senate gallery throughout the debate was declared by Senator La Follette (Republican) and Senator Williams (Democrat) to have worked in Washington for many years "at a seaman's pay" to secure legislation reforms.
"The giving of greater freedom to seamen, the promotion of greater safety at sea for passengers and crew and the equalizing of the wage costs in operating vessels in foreign and domestic trade."
Many Changes in Bill.
The La Follette substitute differed in many respects from the original bill, which passed both houses of congress last winter, but which did not meet with the approval of President Taft. It's chief provisions would require improved working quarters and working conditions on ships; increase the requirements for safety appliances and efficiency of sailors; release sailors from some of the stringent regulations that compel them to remain with ships when in foreign ports and would direct the abrogation of any treaties that prohibit the enforcement of the provisions against foreign ships coming to American ports.
Efforts by Senator Burton and Senator Bacon to amend the bill failed.

Senator La Follette closed the debate on the measure with an attack on E. T. Chamberlain, United States commissioner of navigation, who he said ought to be removed. He declared Mr. Chamberlain had held office since President Cleveland's administration by "trimming and turning and twisting," but that all of his reports showed that his recommendations were against foreign ships coming to American ports.
Efforts by Senator Burton and Senator Bacon to amend the bill failed.
Senator La Follette closed the debate on the measure with an attack on E. T. Chamberlain, United States commissioner of navigation, who he said ought to be removed. He declared Mr. Chamberlain had held office since President Cleveland's administration by "trimming and turning and twisting," but that all of his reports showed that his recommendations were against foreign ships coming to American ports.
Efforts by Senator Burton and Senator Bacon to amend the bill failed.

OBJECT TO THE SUFFRAGETTE PUBLICATION.

New York, Oct. 24.—Acting on complaints that copies of The Suffragette, a magazine devoted to the suffrage cause, published in England and sold in this country in connection with Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst's visit, contained objectionable matter on sex questions, representatives of Police Commissioner Waldo have asked

The Corporation Different

Every once in awhile we run across a business man of strength and capability who is under a misapprehension regarding our company

Because of a lack of knowledge he classes us with those who pay big dividends on watered stock

He thinks our rates are too high because he doesn't know that we have no bonds, no preferred stock, and no water in the common stock

A little straight talk, with figures to back it, is enough to set such a man right

We have facts and figures to prove that we only pay out in dividends a reasonable return, (7 per cent), on the actual money invested in telephone plant

Perhaps you are one of those who didn't know this

You want to be fair, don't you?

You want to do everybody justice don't you?

Well then, let us prove to you what we've proved to others Write us if you are in doubt

Write us if you have any idea that we are not "on the square"

We can prove ours to be the "corporation different"

The Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Company

for a "Jane Doe" warrant for a woman who has been selling the publication. The specific sale complained of its alleged to have been made in the rooms of the Political Equality association.
The warrant was applied for in Chief Magistrate McAdoo's court, but Mr. McAdoo will not act on the affidavits of the policemen until after he has conferred with District Attorney Whitman.

In a new bubbling fountain the outlet pipe can be raised to the lips so that a tall person will not have to bend over to get a drink of water.

BIG FOOTBALL GAMES SATURDAY

Princeton Expecting Close Battle—Hanovers in Fine Shape.

New York, Oct. 24.—Some of the larger eastern colleges have big football games in prospect for tomorrow. The first time this season, although Yale and Harvard will be still engaged in the so-called tuning up process of secondary contests. One of the closest fought battles of the day may be expected at Princeton. Twenty-seven members of the Dartmouth squad arrived in New York from New Hampshire early today on their way to meet the Tigers, planning to put in the late afternoon here in final practice on Ohio field at New York university.

Five hundred undergraduates who followed the Dartmouth squad down from Hanover seemed more enthusiastic than on previous journeys to Princeton, confident that the Green stands a better chance this year than in the past of defeating Princeton.
Squad in Fine Shape.
Coach Cavanaugh said today that with the exception of Ambrose and Snow his team was in the pink of condition and well fit for a great battle. He admitted his team lacked weight, but he said it could take all kinds of punishment and had the sustaining powers of a much heavier squad.
At Princeton the problem of dealing with the forward pass plays of the Hanover team engaged Coach Andrews in a light drill yesterday afternoon. The team showed improvement, particularly in the work of Gile, who may be seen tomorrow at either left guard or tackle. Lamberton and some of the other regulars were given a rest taking no risk of injuries before Saturday's game, for the Tigers admit they are none too sure of their strength. Trainer Keene Fitzpatrick thinks his men are in fine condition and ready to give a good account of themselves.

Careless Strenuous Players.
The University of Pennsylvania against the Carlisle Indians is also expected to prove an even struggle tomorrow. The Pennsylvanians lined up against a second eleven trained in the new kinks of the Indian formation yesterday afternoon and broke them up with the utmost ease. Meanwhile at the Carlisle school Coach Warner with the use of an ingenious strategem forced his men into a strenuous afternoon's practice. His new idea was a manikin drill which proved interesting to the few onlookers. The idea was to fill out a team opposite the varsity, instructing it not to resist the onslaught of the regulars. The men went through the general defensive formation but refrained from coming forcibly into contact with the varsity players. This exercise, which Warner thought very beneficial, was used to save the much bruised Indians from further hurts.

New Haven Apprehensive.
At New Haven some slight apprehension is said to be felt over tomorrow's game with Washington and Jefferson, after the latter's 17 to 0 victory over Penn state. Generally, however, this is not taken seriously and those who saw the varsity playing at top speed against the scrubs yesterday were confident that the team was in form to deal with the visitors, however hard opponents they might prove to be. One of the latest sources of enthusiasm in the Yale camp is the work of Benjamin Avery at left end. In yesterday's practice he handled Wilson's forward pass from the 15-yard line for the only score of the afternoon.

On the basis of the Washington and Jefferson score against Penn State, Harvard tomorrow should have less to fear than Yale, engaged with the former. The Crimson player worked with a vengeance in final practice for the game yesterday afternoon. The scrimmage lasted for forty minutes with mixed lineups, and with honors even between the opposing squads. Captain Storer played his first game at end and made such a good showing that it seemed likely he would be kept at that position. Gilman, who took his place at tackle, showed up strongly and will probably be kept in Storer's old place.

Gloom at Harvard.
A source of gloom in the Harvard camp is announcement that John Milholland will give up football at the request of his father. Milholland had proved a good end and a good kicker and his loss is likely to be felt. At West Point there has been no letup all week in development of the army eleven, with the army-navy contest in distant view, and the cadets expect to defeat Tufts tomorrow, although they have suffered a considerable setback from injuries, and weakness was shown in last Saturday's contest with Colgate.

At Ithaca the Cornell team is said to have emerged from a long slump, as shown last Saturday in the game against Bucknell, and in brand new uniforms they will descend upon Pittsburgh tomorrow looking for a victory. Williamson, one of the biggest men in the line, however, is still suffering from a kick in the arm and probably will not be able to play tomorrow.

AUTO REPAIRING

Does your auto need repairing?

Just drive your car over to our shop, we will tell you what it needs—our work is done only by expert workmen—

And our prices are right.

GRANGE BROS.

In rear 2566 Wash. Ave.
Entrance on 26th St.

FLEISHER YARNS

—the yarns whose superiority is so generally recognized that four-fifths of the yarn users of the country will have no others. They are even, lofty, elastic and brilliantly dyed in all the wanted shades. Whatever kind of yarn you need, always insist on Fleisher's—look for the trademark on every skein.

Clip Coupon on This Label
Send this Coupon to S. B. & B. W. FLEISHER, Philadelphia 101
Name _____ City _____
Street _____ State _____