

Only Eight Days More

One week from next Thursday is Christmas Day, which means that there are but eight Shopping Days in which to do all of the shopping which remains undone. Happily many have Shopped Early, but to those who have not finished we urge Early shopping.

Wright's

A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE

Buy Some Red Cross Stamps

Buy some Red Cross Stamps and place one on every Christmas Package—every letter. The stamps cost but one cent each and nine-tenths of the receipts of the sale will go to the helping of less fortunate children of our own community. Buy them here on First Floor.

What Shall I Give?

Seeking an idea? A good many are. With the usual eagerness to help our customers we have gone over the entire store carefully, selecting gifts for every member of the family, of course. We have not listed everything, but doubtless this carefully prepared list will help to guide you. And let us urge Early Shopping—early in the week and early in the day.
