Pea Crop of Huntsville—The pea viner which was set up in Huntsville, near the creamery, by the Wasatch Orchards company, was put into operation yesterday and it is expected to prove a profitable venture, both to the farmers and to the Orchard company. During the spring, contracts were made for the growing of eighty acres of peas by the Huntsville farmers and the pea viner was placed there to reduce the cost of transporting the peas to the cannery west of Ogden.

HUTCHISON TOURING PARTY TO ARRIVE ON JULY 6

Depot Master John Shields received his first letter this morning under the official letterhead of E. C. Mansou, superintendent of transportation of the Oregon Short Line. The letter contained a number of announcements as to different parties that are expected to transfer to the Oregon Short Line at Ogden.

Among them is the Hutchison Touring party, which is scheduled to reach here on July 6, en route to the Yellowstone park, from Chicago. The party numbers 125 people and is traveling in a special train of nine cars, in charge of Tourist Agent James Murrain. The visitors will return from the national park on July 12, and will go east from Salt Lake City via the Denver & Rio Grande.

THEATERS

AT THE ORPHEUM.

For uproarious comedy, the travesty entitled "Circus Days," which is being presented at the Orpheum this week, is the best thing that has been sent out by the Empress vaudeville booking agency in some time. The "Circus Days" is a comedy in two acts, presented by a company of nine acrobats and clowns. The acrobats present a line of stunts that could easily entitle them to an act of their own and the same could be said of the clowns. There is plenty of local color in the staging of the act as it is started off with a big parade that is a "scream" from the first hand to the steam calliope and about 25 happy "kids" form the imaginary audience.

The "big show" consists of an act by the acrobats and clowns and an exhibition by a trained horse (?) the latter being assisted by the entire company. "Circus days" as a warm-weather attraction, proved an exceptionally well chosen act.

The circus was not the only comedy sketch on the program, however, as Demarest and Doll were also booked. This duo, with the aid of a piano, kept the audience so well entertained that the applause for their work continued until the curtain went up on the next act. In addition to being a natural comedian, Demarest is easily the best freak pianist that has yet been seen and heard and "Doll" is a young lady who puts on some clever dances with excellent effect.

The sketch presented by Porter J. White and company, entitled "The Beggar" is a far away cry from the two mentioned above. Mr. White is a finished actor and is ably assisted by Miss Adelaide Fairchild, Harry Stephens and John Bradbt. The plot of "The Beggar" is very much out of the ordinary and is intensely dramatic. The sketch and the players received the well earned approval of the audience.

Bijou Russell, the "Dixie Girl," presented a buck and wing and soft-shoe dancing specialty that was well executed and well received.

The Great Johnson, who lays claim to being the world's greatest contortionist, opened the bill. Whether he is what he claims to be or not, he displays almost uncanny ability in an original manner. He received plenty of applause for his effort to entertain.

HEAVY TRAVEL ON THE DAY BEFORE THE FOURTH

The passenger directors at the Union depot were kept busy nearly every minute today, owing to the large number of in-coming and out-going passengers, who took advantage of the Fourth of July excursion rates to make trips to different parts of the state.

The through traffic was also unusually large, both east and westbound.

KANSAS CITY PEOPLE ENTERTAINED BY THE CLUB

The hospitality of the Weber club today was extended to the last of the thirteen parties of eastern railroad agents that has visited the west within the last month as guests of the Union Pacific Railroad. The party was the one from the Kansas City district, consisting of 31 members, including 12 ladies.

The visitors arrived from Yellowstone Park in company with the Omaha party of 22. The Omaha party continued on to Salt Lake City for a sight-seeing tour of that town, while the Kansas City party was escorted to the dining room of the Union depot hotel by General Agent W. H. Chevers of the Union Pacific and Depot agent C. A. Henry. There they were treated to an excellent breakfast as guests of the Union Pacific.

At 9 o'clock the automobiles arranged for by the Weber club were at the depot and the visitors boarded them. They were first taken for a drive through Ogden canyon and north to the orchards of the Ben Lomond Orchard company, at North Ogden, where the easterners were given the privilege of eating all the luscious cherries they cared to and of taking a quality away with them.

From the Ben Lomond farm, the party returned to the city and the drive ended at the Colonel Hudson Building. Here they were taken to the Weber Club rooms and after a brief reception and rest, were given a chicken and trout luncheon.

Deaths and Funerals

JAMES—Funeral services for Wilfred Woodrow James, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George James, will be conducted by Bishop E. A. Bingham in the Third ward, Sunday at 4 p. m. Friends wishing to see the baby in its casket may do so at the family home, No. 4 Wilson Lane, tomorrow afternoon and evening and Sunday until 3 p. m.

ENOCH FARR, SR., IS BURIED IN CITY CEMETERY

The funeral of Enoch Farr, Sr., was held yesterday afternoon in the Seventh ward meeting house, with an attendance of friends and relatives that filled the building to its capacity. The wealth of floral offerings also spoke a silent testimony of love and friendship gained through a life of good works. The service was presided over by Bishop Miles Jones.

GERRIT FORT IS THE GUEST OF THE WEBER CLUB

Among the prominent visitors Ogden has had within its gates during the present season, there is probably none more prominent than Gerrit Fort, general traffic manager of the Union Pacific railroad and party, who arrived here at 3:10 p. m. today, is now enjoying the afternoon in Ogden canyon as guests of the Weber club. In Mr. Fort's party are W. S. Basinger, general passenger agent of the Union Pacific at Omaha; W. H. Cundiff, assistant general passenger agent of the Union Pacific at Kansas City; T. C. Peck, general passenger agent of the Salt Lake Route at Los Angeles; and R. S. Ruble, assistant general passenger agent at Denver, Colo. The entertainment of Mr. Fort and his fellow visitors this afternoon and evening is in the hands of President Joseph Scowcroft and Secretary I. L.

REYNOLDS OF THE WEBER CLUB; R. E. BRISTOL, DIRECTOR, AND J. D. LARSON, SECRETARY OF THE OGDEN PUBLICITY BUREAU AND HAROLD E. PEERY OF THE WEBER CLUB.

The entertainment began with an automobile drive to South Fork canyon, a genuine camper's supper, while at South Fork and is to end with reception at the Weber club, after the return to the city.

"Neath the Lion's Paw" presents one of the most interesting and unusual pictures ever shown in this city. The performance of the savage lions is marvelous to say the least.
