An Easily Made Traveling Hat—Directions and Material Needed to Make Hat—Newest Idea for an Apron Is One Made of Toweling—Double Duty Garment for the Infant in Long Clothes—Some Uses for Ribbon—Never Neglect an Opportunity to Pick Up Bargains in Ribbons—Care of the Garbage Can in Summer Months.

AN EASILY MADE TRAVELING HAT

A comfortable and becoming traveling hat can be easily made with the aid of a paper pattern.

It can be made of taffeta or plique or canvas or linen, or of duvety. It can even be made of tweed, but as tweed reveals easily it is difficult to work with.

The method of making this hat calls for heavy canvas as an interlining for the brim and heavy crinoline or canvas as an interlining for the crown. The crown can be made in shaped sections, stitched together, or all in one piece in Tam-o-Shanter fashion. This crown can be gathered or pleated into the brim which has successfully lies in the stitching of the brim. It must be neatly stitched, around and around, beginning at the edge and working toward the center in one long, curving line. This stitching, and the shape of the brim, make it curve upward at the edges, and the curving brim gives it its greatest claim to distinction.

The brim can be fastened up on one side with a quill or a neat rosette of the fabric, or it can be left to roll in any way it happens to roll. When the hat is worn in the bright sun, the brim can be turned down to keep out the light. Its flexible brim also makes it suitable for steamer wear, for it can be worn without fear of damaging it.

TOWELING APRONS.

The newest idea for an apron is one made of toweling. The kind that can be purchased by the yard, with stripes or wide stripes at each side, is used. The blue barred toweling also can be turned into attractive aprons.

These toweling aprons are usually made with a bib and can be used for sewing, housework or chafing dishes. Of course they have one or two large pockets, a necessary adjunct to all serviceable aprons.

The edge is sometimes fringed, which makes a very good finish, or it is simply hemmed, using the French method, which makes the stitches invisible.

The use of Turkish toweling made into aprons has been discovered by young mothers, as it is just the thing to wear when giving baby his bath.

DOUBLE DUTY GARMENT.

For the infant yet in long clothes the caped coat has been in fashion for some time. There will be times, however, when the caped coat will be too heavy and a lighter wrap will be needed.

If the cape is made separate from the coat and simply joined to it with buttons and buttonholes, it is an easy matter to take them apart and let baby wear either the cape or the coat alone. Do not make the cape too short or it will not be quite the right thing or warm enough to wear without the coat. A pretty fashion is to scallop and buttonhole the edges of the cape with white silk. A spray or two of silk flowers may be embroidered upon the fronts of the cape, but it is really best to cling to the simplicity of the scalloping. When the little baby outgrows the coat, it will still, in all probability, be able to wear the cape.

SOME USES FOR RIBBON.

Never neglect an opportunity to pick up a bargain in ribbons. On every counter of "short lengths" you will certainly find at far less than its former price, a yard or more of ribbon which may be made into an accessory or be used as a trimming of one sort or another. The broad brocaded sash ribbons make rich-looking waistcoats for tailored coats and effective panels for dinner gowns. They also make handsome girdles for satin frocks and facings for evening wraps. For the new collar, revers and cuffs needed for the street suit's jacket, there are gold or silver brocaded dull-toned satin ribbons and for the sleeves and plastron of the male blouse are similar tinsels brocaded gauze.

On a chiffon or net frock there is nothing prettier than the three-tier ruffled collar or the short tunic made of flowered ribbon and for the décolleté bodice that is veiled with lace, the pale-toned fancy sash widths are ideal and much less expensive than would be the same quantity of "piece silk."

The little camisole which is so rapidly ousting the corset-cover is easily made entirely from sashing, but even though preferred chiefly in lace or net it still must have shoulder straps, belt and draw-strings or ribbon somewhat wider than that used on all kinds of lingerie.

The daintiest of boudoir slippers are evolved from four-inch wide ribbons, and so colonial shoes are added and edged with ribbons which, flaring from under the buckles and covering the front of the instep, make the feet look many sizes shorter.

CARE OF THE GARBAGE CAN.

If the proper methods are employed during the summer months when cleaning and caring for the garbage pail, this much lamented necessity need not be a menace to health.

All garbage should be kept in a covered galvanized can. When possible, have a wooden box with a hinged lid to hold this receptacle. Otherwise nail an ordinary wooden box bottomside to the fence or back shed. Give it a coat of outside paint. It will be easier to clean and much more sightly.

As garbage breeds mosquitoes and the deadly germ-bearing fly, the greatest care must be taken in cleaning the pail. This should be done each time the garbage is removed. Weak solutions of any coal-tar products, such as kresso or creolin are advised. These are at once disinfectants and deodorizers. They are inexpensive and will kill not only the flies and mosquitoes but their eggs. Kresso, about 50 cents a pint and creolin about 55 cents for a similar quantity, may be obtained at any drug store.

In making a solution of either of the above, use in the proportion of a teaspoonful to a pint of water; or, if made in gallon quantity, which may be bottled and kept until used, have the proportion a quarter of a pint to a gallon of water.

A solution of chloride of lime, one teaspoonful to a pint of water, or a strong solution of water and washing soda make good cleansers. All of these are recommended by the city health authorities. These solutions will kill the grass, and should, therefore, be emptied into the hydrant drain.

Keep a discarded whisk-broom for cleaning out the garbage can, for the hands need not come into contact with the dirty water. Put the clean can in a tilted position so that the sun can penetrate the entire inside.

The box in which the garbage can is kept should be cleaned two or three times a week. Some housewives advise putting freshly cut grass or a layer of newspaper in the bottom of the can to prevent the garbage from sticking to the bottom.

DANDRUFF ON SCALP HAIR FELL OUT

Scalp Scaly, Pimples Small and Red, Would Fester, Dry and Itch. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Crust and Pimples Gone. New Growth of Hair.

P. O. Box 395, Berkeley, Calif.—"My scalp was dry and falling out and my scalp scaly. At times there were pimples on my scalp. The pimples were small and red, would fester, dry and itch. My hair would grow a certain length and break off and fall out. The falling out was always preceded by a breaking out of pimples and itching. Dandruff scaled off my scalp and could be seen in my hair.

"I tried for some time but when I stopped its use my hair had the same dry brownish color, and the scalp was not healed. Then I covered the scalp with glycerine and the hair condition remained the same. I then used Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertised in the newspaper so I wrote asking for a free sample. I applied the Ointment and let it remain over night. In the morning I washed the scalp thoroughly with Cuticura Soap and water. I then bought some Cuticura Soap and Ointment from my druggist. I treated my scalp for nine months. Now the scaly crust and pimples are gone and I have a new growth of thick, dry, brown hair." (Signed) Mrs. E. K. McVaine, Apr. 8, 1914.

REBELS OPPOSE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Tampico, July 26, via Laredo, Tex., July 27.—A decree limiting the scope of the Roman Catholic church in the state of Nuevo Leon on the ground of "Public health, morality and justice," was issued today by Antonio L. Villareal, governor and military commander. He said:

"During the life of the nation the church has been a pernicious factor in disruption and discord and has entirely forgotten its spiritual mission."

The most drastic feature of the decree is the prohibition of confession. Villareal gives as his reason for this the charge that the confessional and the sacristy in Mexico have become a menace to morality.

The decree issued in Monterey makes the following orders for government of Catholic schools and churches:

- "1. All foreign Catholic priests and Jesuits of whatever nationality will be expelled from the state of Nuevo Leon."
- "2. Of the remaining Catholic priests those who cannot prove their complete abstinence from politics will be expelled."
- "3. Churches will remain open daily from 6 in the morning until 1 in the afternoon. Only priests having permission to do so will be permitted to officiate."
- "4. Confession is prohibited."
- "5. The public is prohibited from entering the sacristy."
- "6. Church bells shall ring only to celebrate fiestas in honor of the country, or triumphs of the constitutionalists' arms."
- "7. All Catholic colleges shall be closed which do not obey the programmes and texts ordered by officials and which do not have at their head some professor who is a graduate of the normal schools of the country, who will be responsible to the government for any infraction of the rules."
- "8. Any infraction of these laws will be punishable by a fine of $100 to $500 and arrest and imprisonment from two to four months, or both fine and imprisonment."

Explains Decree.

Explaining the grounds for the action, Villareal's decree reads:

"In the interest of public health, justice and morality, the state of Nuevo Leon will limit the scope of the Catholic church, which during its life has entirely forgotten its spiritual mission, its sole right to be recognized by modern society. The church has consecrated itself principally to conquest in politics. To secure its object it

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING—CAME NEAR DROWNING

Salt Lake, July 28.—Charles Holberg, an employe of Heagren's fish market, and Francis King, a companion, are congratulating themselves up on their escape from death Sunday afternoon, first by lightning and second by drowning.

The two young men were fishing in the Jordan river, near the old copper smelter. Lightning struck the tree under which they sat and both fell into the river stunned. King recovered himself first and called loudly for help. The two were helped out of the water by women picnickers, who caught hold of hands, forming a chain down the bank, the last woman extending her hand to King, who climbed out, pulling his friend with him. Neither was seriously injured.

DEMOCRATS COMBINE WITH PROGRESSIVES

Tooele, July 27.—The Democrats and Progressive of Tooele county perfected their affiliation plans today at county conventions held here and agreed on a combination-county ticket to be supported by both parties at the fall election.

The Democrats held their convention in the courtroom and the Progressives in the jury room. A. I. Eagle acted as chairman of the Democratic convention with R. J. Huntington as secretary. Dr. B. Logan was chairman of the Progressive convention and G. W. Snyder secretary. Both conventions met at 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon. The regular committees of the two conventions were named and in addition affiliation committees were chosen.

The affiliation committee met at noon and agreed on a division of the offices. Under the arrangement agreed upon the Democrats made nominations for representative, commissioner for the four-year term, sheriff, treasurer and superintendent of schools and the Progressives the nominations for clerk, assessor, recorder, commissioner for the two-year term, attorney and surveyor.

DID NOT AID GIRLS TO ESCAPE SCHOOL

Farmington, July 27.—The trial of John Brown and Hay Hiteaman of North Salt Lake, charged with aiding and abetting the escape from the reform school of Fern Stokes and Sadie Hiteaman on May 15, was held today before Precinct Justice Joseph L. Mabey. Both defendants were acquitted, the court ruling that the evidence was not direct enough to connect them with the misdemeanor.

The case grew out of the escape of the Stokes and Hiteaman girls on May 15, when they walked from Ogdens across Davis county and lodged at South Bountiful with the Luker family. From there they telephoned to relatives at North Salt Lake for clothing, which was furnished by Hiteaman and Mrs. Hattie Hiteaman. Brown, who was tried last week, are alleged to have taken the clothes to the girls.

What Thin Folks Should Do To Gain Weight

Physician's Advice For Thin, Underdeveloped Men and Women

Thousands of people suffer from excessive thinness, weak nerves and feeble constitutions, who, having tried advertised flesh-makers, food-laxatives, physical culture stunts and life-long skinnings, and think nothing will make them fat. Yet their case is not hopeless. A recently discovered regenerative force makes fat grow after years of thinness, and it also unqualifies for repelling the waste of sickness or faulty digestion and for strengthening the nerves. This remarkable discovery is called Sargol. Six strength-giving, fat-producing elements of acknowledged merit have been combined in this peerless preparation, which is endorsed by eminent physicians and used by prominent people everywhere. It is absolutely harmless, inexpensive and efficient.

A month's systematic use of Sargol should produce flesh and strength by correcting faults of digestion and by supplying the missing elements of the blood. Increased nourishment is obtained from the food eaten, and the additional fats of the blood are made available. A. R. McIntyre Drug Store and other leading druggists supply Sargol. Write for a free trial bottle. It will give splendid results as a nerve-tonic and vitality. It should not be used by nervous people unless the wish to gain at least ten pounds of flesh.—Advertisement.

VALUES INCREASED.

Provo, July 27.—In spite of the fact that the valuation of property as assessed by the state board of equalization is $78,388 less than in 1913, the total assessment of property is $323,091 greater than in 1913, making the increase by the county assessor $401,479.

The summary of the valuation for the property in Utah county for the year follows: Real estate, $4,985,180; improvements, $3,403,230; livestock, $762,780; personal property, $2,473,899.24; property assessed by state board, $4,638,488; grand total, $16,271,577.24.

HARNESS SHOP ROBBED.

Cokeville, Wyo., July 27.—Some time Wednesday night the Cokeville harness shop was broken into and between $40 and $50 worth of harness was stolen. The robbers secured entrance by cutting out a panel of the back door and then reaching in and turning the key, which has been left in the door. No clew has yet been found that might lead to the arrest of the robbers.

PROGRESSIVE ISSUE CALL.

Provo, July 27.—The official call for the Progressive county convention to be held in Provo, August 11, has been issued. Primaries will be held in the several precincts for the always has been allied with the reactionary government and the despots, and even foreign invaders. It has showed itself an implacable enemy to the liberal movement and progress from the first revolution of Ayutla until the present and has fomented its ridiculous excommunications over the most grand and glorious benefactors of the country: Hidalgo, Juarez and Lerdo de Tejada.

"The clerical rulings of Diaz and Huerta, against which the Mexican people have been struggling heroically for many years, have had the sympathy and assistance of the Mexican church. The church has had its benedictions for the crimes and corruptions of Huerta and has unsuccessfully worked to incite the public against the constitutional cause."

Some of the ceremonies of the church were criticised, Villareal alleging that in Mexico they have tended toward the weakening of moral character. He declared it the course of wisdom to close the clerical schools for the present on the ground "it is a supreme national necessity to stamp out at the root the arrogant abuses of the Catholic church and remove the grave danger which the institution represents."
