the home of the former on Quinoy avenue. Progressively 500 was the main diversion, the lucky players being Mrs. A. Rutherglen and Mr. J. Egan.

Refreshments were served, the following guests, in addition to members of the club, participating: Misses Maber of Salt Lake and Foley of Wyoming; Messrs. Rutherglen, Egan, Baughman, Baumunk, Clark, Moore, McCarty, Stretch, Blain, Straup, Kallher, Barrer, Whitmyer and Dr. Bartlett. The Misses Wall and Davenport will be hostesses to the club at its next meeting at the Wall home, 460 Twenty-ninth street. The date of meeting will be announced later.

MISS BURTON HOSTESS.
Miss Hala Burton entertained the members of her club at her home, 2550 Quinoy avenue, on Wednesday evening. An election was held, the following officers being elected: Mrs. Fern Elliot Shagru, president; Miss Rhoda Dye, treasurer; Miss Ellen Dee, secretary, after which Miss Burton served a delicious luncheon. The club adjourned to meet with Miss Ellen Dee at her home, 2903 Adams avenue, December 14.

GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATION
One of the interesting events of the week was given on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Eddington, 762 Twenty-seventh street, in honor of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. T. S. Wadsworth, who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on that date. Mrs. Eddington was assisted in entertaining by her sister, Mrs. V. C. Ballantyne.

The home was prettily decorated with a profusion of yellow and white chrysanthemums and in gold and white throughout.

About sixty members of the family and guests were present at the Eddington home during the afternoon and evening, several arriving from different points of Utah and Idaho for the occasion.

Dr. and Mrs. T. S. Wadsworth are old time residents of this city, where they have a host of friends. Mr. Wadsworth is 75 years of age and Mrs. Wadsworth is 69. They have nine living children, forty-two grand children and three great-grandchildren, nearly all of them being present at the golden wedding celebration.

Late in the afternoon a course dinner was served by the Mesdames Eddington and Ballantyne. In the center of the beautifully set table, an immense cake, about four feet high, had been placed. Fifty gold and white candles were used to decorate the cake which was cut by Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth.

Following are the names of the older members of the family and guests present:
Dr. and Mrs. T. S. Wadsworth, Jack Eddington, Messrs. and Mesdames Samuel Thomas, Wallace Washburn, Thomas Ballantyne, L. C. Ballantyne, A. C. Ballantyne, Max C. Tyler, Joseph Littlefield, Charles Stewart, T. J. Wadsworth, Ed. N. Wadsworth, Andrew Jordan, Earl C. Ball, Will Farr; Mrs. James Mason, Mrs. Margaret Jordan, Mrs. Earl Chandler, John Boyle, Don Wadsworth, Miss Lenore Eddington and Miss Gwendolyn Eddington.

Very novel and appropriate invitation cards were issued by Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth. On one side were the photos of the couple with a gilt border and on the other side were gilt wedding bells and announcement of the celebration given on Wednesday.

THE RED CROSS TEAS.
Mrs. Ezra L. Rich entertained fifteen ladies one of the chain of Red Cross teas at her home, 2652 Washington avenue from 3 until 5 o'clock last Tuesday afternoon. A prettily appointed luncheon was served and a social hour enjoyed.

On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. W. C. Parker of 177 North Washington avenue was hostess to the following ladies at a Red Cross tea from 3:30 until 5 o'clock: Mrs. M. E. Stinson, Melford Williams, Edward L. Rich, Albert S. Davis, W. J. Manning, I. M. Kershaw, James McGregor, L. G. Read, Edith Read Van Dyke and the Misses Melba Read and Rose Cand. Mrs. Parker was assisted in serving a buffet luncheon by Miss Rose Cand. In addition to the luncheon a social hour was enjoyed during which time musical numbers were given by the Misses Melba Read and Maxine Parker.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Edward Rich entertained a number of ladies at one of the teas. Mrs. Rich served a delicious luncheon and during the social hour musical selections were given by the Misses Oertel and Cleone Rich and on the piano by Mrs. Rich.

Those present were: Mesdames John Volker, I. L. Clark, Guy Clark, Frank Stevens, Ed. Browning, J. M. Mills, Dr. Kansier, Valentine, Chris Flygare, S. H. Winters, Leroy Pugnieri, Conrad Bohn, Charles Woodward, James Wallin, Thomas Ballantyne, James H. Douglass.

Morley afternoon Miss Joseph Ballantyne will entertain at one of the teas at her home.

THIMBLE CLUB MEETING.
Mrs. Sarah Baumelster was hostess to the Thimble club of Ogden Circle No. 581, Women of Woodcraft, at her home, 361 Thirty-second street, Friday, December 4. After the usual business several games of cards were played, honors being won by Mesdames Grix, Baker, Hanley and Furness, after which a well prepared dinner was served. Mrs. Baumelster was assisted in serving by Mrs. Louise Shipley. The decorations were yellow and white chrysanthemums.

MAIDS AND MATRONS' CLUB.
Mrs. Fred M. Nye will be hostess to members of the Maids and Matrons' club Monday afternoon at the club rooms. The usual tea and dance will be the main diversion.

Yesterday afternoon and evening Miss Rae Wright acted as hostess. She was assisted in pouring by Mrs. Joshua Grant. Quite a number of guests were present in the evening when dancing was enjoyed.

The club members have perfected plans for an open house the afternoon and night of January 1, when an elaborate dancing party will be given, music for which will be furnished by an enlarged orchestra.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY TO R. M. C. ENTERTAINED.

The regular meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Railway Mail association was held at the home of Mrs. R. Corlew on Twenty-fourth street, Mrs. Frank Price assisting. Regular business matters were attended to and a very interesting talk on "A Social Christmas" was splendidly given by Mrs. Dunsmore, after which a social hour was enjoyed and

A Special Service for Christmas

Said a Customer today---"This 'Shop Early' said is all very well, but what is one to do who has to wait until the end of the month for their Christmas money?"

Our special Christmas service provides for this condition. An elaborate "Lay-a-way" plan has been perfected, which has been a great help to hundreds of our customers during several past Holiday Seasons.

We invite you to come to the Christmas Store Now---Now that all departments are resplendent with complete Christmas lines. Make your selections from all departments---take time to select your gifts with care---survey all the stocks before you decide, and when you have decided; let us wrap the package carefully, and hold it for you in the Christmas Package Room. By a simple system of numbering each package we'll find it when you're ready---in a moment.

Pay for the package when you take it. Call for it any time before the store closes Christmas Eve. And note this: We guarantee you that the prices quoted today are just as low as they will be the last hour of Christmas Eve. This rule applies to all departments---including toys. All goods are marked cheaply today---there'll be no "last hour" reductions.

You'll like the store service this year. Pleasant clerks will help you with your shopping. Abundant stocks offer many suggestions. The store is light and clean and roomy. Christmas shopping has already begun. Select now. Pay later.

a delicious luncheon, served by the hostess, was especially delightful. The following ladies were present: Mesdames James, Livingston, Bradley, Corlew, Dunsmore, Hall, Jensen, Keys, Lemon, Marchant, Morrison, Miller, Price, Smith, Thacker, Winchester, Riley, Lundquist, Runt, Prout and Mrs. Bangasser as a guest of the auxiliary.

FROM SPOKANE AND CALIFORNIA
Mrs. E. L. Short of Spokane, Wash., is in Ogden at the home of her mother, Mrs. Andrew Freborg, 2721 Monroe avenue. Barney Freborg is also home from California. Mrs. Short and Mr. Freborg were called home on account of the serious illness and death of their father.

MISS BELNAP HOSTESS.
The members of the Ogden stake primary board and their friends were delightfully entertained by Miss Flora Belnap at her home Thursday evening in honor of Jennie F. Budge. The spacious parlors were artistically decorated with ferns and carnations. Delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Jennie F. Budge, Delia Reeder, Mary Storey, Lillie Oborn, Florence and La Rene Zitzman, Charlotte Stallings, Viola Nelson, Jennie Gibson, Rosella Ferrin, Judson and Olive Belnap, Arthur Budge, Hyrum A. Belnap, David Wilson, H. A. Dixon, E. A. Larkin and Walter Wilson. Mrs. Budge was presented with a hand-painted vase by the board.

MARRIED IN WASHINGTON.
The many Ogden friends of Miss Beatrice Boreman and Lieutenant Halver G. Coulter were interested to know of the marriage of Miss Boreman and Lieutenant Coulter, November 26, in Washington, D. C. The following was clipped from the Washington Herald of last Sunday:
"Miss Beatrice Boreman and Lieutenant Halver G. Coulter were married Thursday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ramsey, at 1723 Columbia road. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Taylor of the Central Presbyterian church. The bride, who for the past year has been a resident of the city of Washington, is the daughter of the late Judge Jacob S. Boreman, for many years judge of the supreme court of the state of Utah. The bride wore a traveling gown of blue broadcloth, an American Beauty hat, and carried American Beauty roses intertwined with lilies of the valley. Lieutenant Coulter is in the Coast artillery corps, U. S. A., and is at present detailed as instructor of mathematics at West Point."
Mr. Coulter is the son of Dr. C. E. Coulter of this city where he has numerous friends.
