

10 DAYS AND CHRISTMAS

Some suggestions that will help make the short time for buying easy.

Sweaters, Caps, Gloves, Tea Aprons, Neckwear, Handkerchiefs, Mittens, Hosiery, Dainty Undermuslins, Silk Kimonos, Bath Robes, Furs.

Ladies, Suits, Coats, Dresses and Skirts at CLEARANCE PRICES.

The M. M. Wykes Co.

2335 Washington Ave.

When you think of the PRESENT Think of the future GIVE SOMETHING THEY CAN USE EVERY DAY.

Why not a pair of glasses? Lenses will be changed free after Xmas.

RUSHMER

OPTOMETRIST and MANUFACTURING OPTICIAN 2464 WASHINGTON

STANDARD TELEPHONES.

For Editorial, News and Society Department, Call Only Phone No. 421. For Subscription and Advertising Department, Call Phone No. 56.

RANDOM REFERENCES

Good watches 1/2 Price. 278 25th. State Tax Convention—The Weber county officials who attended the state tax conference in Salt Lake City on Thursday and Friday, returned home last night. The party was composed of Commissioner Skeen, County Clerk Hales, County Treasurer Storey, Assessor-elect Robson and Deputy County Clerks Van Dyke and Bluth.

Richard Denam, wife Mrs. E. L. Oline, Ogdem, Utah, Gen. Del.

Charged With Forgery—Leonard Boyle of Ogdem was brought here from Salt Lake City last night by Detective George Warlaw after being arrested at the capital on a charge of forgery. It is alleged that he forged the name of a relative to a check for $50. Boyle is 28 years old and is being held at the city jail for trial.

COAL—All kinds. M. L. Jones Coal and Ice Co., office 413 24th St.

Globe Theatre Remodeled—Next Wednesday afternoon the Globe theatre will be opened to the public as a roller skating rink. This announcement was made yesterday by a member of the Alhambra Theatrical company, who stated that the building was to be entirely remodeled for the new venture. The floor is to be one of the finest in the west and a large rest room, gentlemen's rest room and check room is to be added.

For safety first insist on B & G Clover Leaf Butter.

The First Congregational—Adams avenue near Twenty-fifth street—F. G. Brainerd, minister, 11 o'clock, morning sermon, "God," 12:15, Bible school; 6:30, Christian Endeavor; 7:30, the chorus, assisted by violins; will repeat the cantata given last Christmas so acceptably. "The Shepherd King" by J. Lincoln Hall. Any are invited to attend the services.

W. Eugene Marsteller, Dentist—Specialist in crown and bridgework. 406-407-408 Colonel Hudson Building.

Break Jail—Sheriff T. A. DeVine received a telegram from officers of Tipton, Ia., today stating that George Tillery, who was arrested at that place a short time ago charged with petit larceny, and who is wanted here for grand larceny, last night succeeded in breaking jail. No details of the jail delivery were given.

Dr. J. M. Tanner will speak in the Eleventh Ward meeting house Sunday evening at 7 p. m.

Burglary—The fruit and grocery store of Sam Onello, on Washington avenue, was broken into last night by thieves and a quantity of food products stolen.

Released—Arthur Hutchins of 124 Twenty-seventh street was released from quarantine today. He has just recovered from an attack of smallpox.

In Twelfth Ward—Apostle David O. McKay is to be the speaker tomorrow at the evening meeting of the people of the Twelfth ward. The meeting will be held in the Fifth ward institute, beginning at 7 p. m.

Children Go Home—Of the deaf and blind students attending the state school in Ogdem, 135 have returned to their homes for the holidays. There are 25 students remaining at the school and they will be made happy during the Christmas time.

Kaysville Guests—Harvey King and wife of Kaysville are in Ogdem today doing Christmas shopping. They are the guests of Mrs. King's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McBride.

First Methodist Episcopal Church—454 Twenty-fourth street. G. F. Rasmussen, pastor. Miss Mable Lamb, deaconess; Miss Vera Frey, pipe organ.

Thoroughbred colts pups at special Christmas prices at Oak Poultry Yards, 37th and Grant Ave. Phone 18-K3. 12-19-14wk

Modern Woodmen Excursion to Salt Lake via Bamberger, Tuesday, December 22. Round trip $1.10, good on all trains. Members requested to be at depot at 7 p. m. to pay a fraternal visit to the Salt Lake Camp.—Advertisement.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY. YOUNG lady wishes other lady to share room. Board optional. 2757 Washington Ave. Phone 2415-W. 12-19-14wk

THOROUGHbred colts pups at special Christmas prices at Oak Poultry Yards, 37th and Grant Ave. Phone 18-K3. 12-19-14wk

Books, Stationery and all XMAS GOODS at SACRIFICE PRICES at BRAMWELL'S

JOS. F. SMITH AT THE HEAD OF SUGAR COMPANIES

The Amalgamated and Lewiston Sugar companies held stockholders' meetings this afternoon and consolidated the two companies into one which will be known as The Amalgamated Sugar company, with a capitalization of $6,000,000. Over 88 per cent of the stock of the two companies was represented at the meetings.

The first officers of the new company are:

Joseph F. Smith, president; L. R. Eccles, vice president and manager; Joseph Stowcroft, vice president, who with H. H. Rolapp, M. S. Browning, W. H. Watis, Adam Patterson, D. C. Eccles, E. O. Watis, R. B. Porter and C. W. Nibley, form the directorate. Fred G. Taylor was elected secretary and treasurer. C. W. Nibley, W. H. Watis and M. S. Browning constitute the executive board. H. H. Rolapp was made chairman of the board of directors. The executive committee is composed of C. W. Nibley, W. H. Watis and M. S. Browning. H. H. Rolapp, C. W. Nibley, W. H. Watis, E. O. Watis, R. B. Porter, Joseph Stowcroft and Charles Pope attended the Amalgamated meeting which was held in the Eccles building. The Lewiston meeting was held in Lewiston.

"LIFE'S SHOP WINDOW"

A Victoria Cross masterpiece adapted from the popular play and novel, featuring Claire Whitney and Stewart Holmes, presented by the New York Box Office Attraction company, one of the greatest releases this season, to be shown at the Isis theatre with enlarged orchestra tomorrow night and continuing three days. No advance in prices, 5 and 10c, afternoon and evenings.—Advertisement.

CARLOAD OF GOODS TO BE SENT TO THE BELGIANS

The European War Relief society of Ogdem held a meeting last night at the city hall and, from the reports that were received, the executive committee is sanguine of being able to ship a carload of non-perishable articles to the people of Belgium. In fact, it was stated, subscriptions had already been made to assure the assembling of more than a carload of goods and an effort will be kept up to fill another car.

Mrs. John C. Culler, president of the society, acted as chairman of the meeting and during the evening appointed a committee consisting of Judge A. R. Heywood, Commissioner Chris Flygare and Rev. J. E. Carver to superintend the loading and shipment of the car of provisions.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

Notice is hereby given that Joseph N. Staley and Harry C. Blaney, heretofore doing business under the name of the Hudson Cafe, at corner of Hudson avenue and Twenty-fourth street, (basement), Ogdem, Utah, have, by mutual consent, dissolved the partnership heretofore existing between the parties, the interest of the said Joseph N. Staley being acquired by Cornelius Osborne, and the said Harry C. Blaney and Cornelius Osborne assuming all obligations and collecting all debts owing the former firm of Staley and Blaney.

Signed this 18th day of December, 1914.

HARRY C. BLANEY, JOSEPH N. STALEY.

GENERAL MANAGER OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC IN OGDEN

W. R. Scott, general manager of the Southern Pacific, arrived in Ogdem yesterday and left on the 4 p. m. Fast Mail today.

Mr. Scott expressed regret over laying off of employees at the shops, but said it was absolute necessity that compelled such action—that the railroad reports would show a decrease in revenue of over a million dollars a month since last July.

Ogdem is not the only shop that has reduced its employees. The Sacramento shops are closed and reductions were made at other places.

Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the board of directors, came in with Mr. Scott and continued on east last night.

ENJOYABLE CONCERT AT THE SIXTH WARD

One of the most enjoyable concerts of the season was given before a large audience last night in the Sixth ward meeting house. The program was finally arranged and every person participating did well. In addition to the Ogdem talent represented, the Clive string quartet of Salt Lake, each member a soloist, furnished some splendid numbers. The song and instrumental numbers were all finely rendered and enthusiastically received while the whistling solo by Miss Rowse and the reading by Mrs. Bassett Pardee were especially appreciated.

ROBERT MOYES TO BE ADMINISTRATOR OF ESTATE

By consent of counsel representing all parties so far known to be interested in the settlement of the estate of John F. Smith, deceased, Judge J. A. Howell this morning appointed R. A. Moyes administrator and fixed his bond at $25,000.

There were three petitions asking for the appointment of an administrator, two of which requested the appointment of either Dr. E. M. Conroy or R. A. Moyes, and the other presented the name of Emery Smith, a brother to the decedent.

Oracle Theater, Sunday and Monday: "Called Back," a vivid dramatization of Hugh Conway's astounding mystery, story in 4 parts. Will Herbert Rawlinson, Anna Little and Wm. Worthington.

Advertisement.

MRS. S.S.G. BLODGETT DIES AT AGE 82

Mrs. Sarah Susannah G. Blodgett, wife of Greenleaf Blodgett, Sr., and one of the well-known pioneers of the state, died this morning at 2 o'clock at the family home in North Ogden. General debility was the cause of death.

Mrs. Blodgett was born in Diss, England, February 4, 1832, the daughter of Timothy and Susannah E. Gerard. She came to Utah in 1853 with the "10-Pound Company," first settling in Salt Lake City. She afterward moved to North Ogden, where she was married in 1871 to Greenleaf Blodgett, who with the following children survive: I. S. Campbell of North Ogden; Sarah S. Campbell, North Ogden; Frederick R. Campbell, Weston, Ida.; Caroline A. Clifford, North Ogden; E. R. Campbell, North Ogden; Greenleaf Blodgett, Jr., 45 grandchildren and 41 great-grandchildren; also a brother, William J. Gerard, who resides in North Ogden.

Mrs. Blodgett was a member of the Mormon church and was active in Relief society work for many years. Time and place of funeral will be announced later.

Deaths and Funerals

WEBB—The funeral of Mrs. Inez P. Webb will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. in the Second ward meeting house. The body may be viewed at the residence, 3241 Grant avenue, this evening, and tomorrow until the funeral hour. The interment will be made in the City cemetery.

HODSON—Ethel Almeda Hodson, the 13-month-old daughter of Jed and Chloe C. Hodson, died last evening at 4:30 o'clock at the family home in Plain City. Bronchitis was the cause of death. The babe was born September 25, 1913. Beside the father and mother, 2 sisters, Alta and Vivian, survive. Funeral services will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. at the residence, Bishop Henry Garner presiding. Interment in Plain City cemetery.

Society

CLARENCE CHANDLER SURPRISED.

Yesterday afternoon Master Clarence Chandler was the recipient of a delightful surprise when eight of his schoolmates, representing the Sixth grade of the Grant school, called at the Chandler home on Twenty-fourth street and tendered that young man a number of lovely gifts. The young people also brought with them a de-

HEALY HOTEL CAFE

Wall Avenue. Special Turkey, Trout and Chicken Dinner tomorrow at popular prices. Wm. Dunkerley, Mgr.

CHRISTMAS TIME

IS here, and so are we, ready to meet your demand. You will find in our store an attractive line of merchandise, both useful and ornamental—We will just mention a few items as a reminder, knowing that your time is limited at this time of the year to read a long list of articles. Come in and get acquainted with us and our goods.

TOYS ARE SELLING FAST

Our Ready-to-Wear Department has many good things for your consideration—$15.00 and $20.00 Coats, $9.98. Suits 1/2 price. Furs greatly reduced. Dresses at a bargain. Skirts and Waists, Petticoats in Silk and Cotton. The notion Department offers the finest line of Handkerchiefs in the city as well as many other little gifts—A Dress or Waist Pattern. A set of Table Linens—A Kimono—Bath Robe—Umbrella—A nice Rug—are all good gifts.

Paine & Hurst Dry Goods Store

licious luncheon and a Christmas sentiment as follows:

"Best wishes for a speedy recovery; a merry, merry Christmas and a happy, happy New Year from Mrs. Brooks and the boys and girls of the Sixth grade, Grant school."

Master Clarence Chandler has been seriously ill of typhoid fever and complications for the past three weeks. He is slowly recovering.

DANCE ON NEW YEAR'S EVE.

On New Year's eve the degree team of the local lodge of Woodmen of the World will give a dancing party in the lodge hall in the Fraternity block. Elaborate preparations are being made and special decorations will be used. The Woodmen have already engaged a number of prominent local musicians who with the lodge orchestra will furnish excellent dance music. In addition to the program of dances, exhibition drills will be given by the degree team, under the direction of Captain Sam Jost. A special caterer will serve refreshments during the evening.

Quite a large number of persons are expected to be present and special arrangements are being made to accommodate them. The event promises to be one of the most delightful of the several entertainments to be given New Year's eve.

DR. AND MRS. GOWANS HONORED

Last Monday evening, Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Gowans were the recipients of a pleasant surprise arranged by the young people who are doing social uplift work on Sundays among the boys and girls of the State Industrial school.

The evening was delightfully spent in music and games and at midnight a delicious lunch was served in the beautiful private dining room of the main building.

As a token of the esteem and affection with which Dr. and Mrs. Gowans are regarded by their young friends, they were presented with a set of silver spoons, each bearing an appropriate sentiment.

Besides the host and hostess, those present were Miss Lucille Wallace, Miss Zina Larkin, Miss Alberta and Vera Wright, Miss Rae Wright, Miss Minnie Brown, Miss Bertha Hellewell, Miss Martha Wallace, Miss Marjorie Gowans, Miss Elva Littlefield, Dr. Mark Brown, Moroni Olsen, Robert Binney, Dow Browning, Joseph Williams, and Leo Goates.

CHI RUE CLUB.

Mrs. Grace Russell Bartlett entertained members of the Chi Rue club in a delightful manner last Monday evening at her home, 2846 Grant avenue. The ladies brought their needlework and after an hour's sewing, musical selections were given by Miss Madeline Lauzon. A prettily appointed luncheon was served by Mrs. Bartlett, the holiday spirit prevailing in the menu and decorative scheme.

Miss Norma White, 171 Patterson avenue, will be hostess to the club at its next meeting, Monday, December 21.

CANTATA TOMORROW.

The cantata "The Shepherd King," which was sung at the First Congregational church a year ago, will be repeated tomorrow evening in the same edifice, by special request. There will be a large chorus and a stringed orchestra.

RED CROSS TEA.

One of the pleasant affairs of the week was given yesterday afternoon when Mrs. John Watson, 2556 Madison avenue entertained at one of the chain of Red Cross teas. About 16 ladies were present and enjoyed an hour at their needlework after which a delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Watson.

HOME CULTURE CLUB.

Mrs. J. F. Hobbs was hostess to the Home Culture club ladies Thursday afternoon of this week at her home, 2269 Adams avenue. The usual business meeting was followed by a most interesting discussion on the development of science in the United States. Mrs. T. W. Horn gave a paper on "Art in the United States," which proved especially interesting as well as instructive. "The School" was the subject of a paper given by Mrs. T. J. Fitzgerald. Mrs. Jay Smith read a well prepared paper on "Literature" after which Miss Ruby Cook proved her worth in giving several selections from American writers. Mrs. H. Markie followed, reading Van Dyke's "America" after which the club members sang the national hymn.

Guests of the club for the afternoon were: Mrs. Zimmerman, Mrs. White, Mrs. Wentz and Miss Ruby Cook. Mrs. E. L. Howes, 811 Twenty-fifth street will entertain the club at its DOORS OPEN SUNDAY AT 6 P. M. 3—SHOWS—3 "LIFE'S SHOP WINDOW" BY Victoria Cross A World's Film Featuring in 5 Reels. A Keystone Comedy and the Isis Orchestra—All For 5c and 10c. COME EARLY EVENINGS. MATINEE MONDAY and TUESDAY. OPEN 1:45 CONTINUOUS. 3—DAYS—3 SUNDAY, MONDAY, TUESDAY. 5c AND 10c DON'T FAIL TO SEE IT.

land, Ore. The marriage ceremony will be performed in the near future. ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Clay announce the engagement of their daughter, Amy, to Frank Oscar Creasey of Portland, Ore.

In Every Direction we want to spread tidings of our unusual offerings at this season. Your Holiday Shopping will be incomplete without a visit at our store. VARIETY that will make Xmas shopping a pleasure. PRICES that will place the goods within the reach of all. A BIG ITEM in buying Christmas Estates is in getting the most of the best for the least money. The very best new mixed nuts ..... 20c lb. Almonds ..... 25c lb. Walnuts ..... 20-25c lb. Fancy Virginia Peanuts ..... 15c lb. The best Hawaiian Pine-apples. 30c size ..... 25c 20c size, 6 cans ..... $1.00 15c size, 2 cans ..... 25c 20c Saved on the Dollar.

AN ENTICING ASSORTMENT OF CHOICE CHOCOLATES IN FANCY BOXES, AND CHRISTMAS CANDIES OF ALL KINDS THAT WILL PLEASE YOU. WILCOX GROCERY CO. 2462 WASHINGTON AVENUE. PHONES 244-245.

Oracle Theater SUNDAY AND MONDAY "Called Back" A Vivid Dramatization of Hugh Conway's Astounding Mystery Story in 4 Parts, with Herbert Rawlinson, Anna Little and William Worthington. "The Heart of a Magdalen" The Story of a Woman's Reformation, in 2 Parts, Featuring EDNA MAISON. "He Married Her Anyhow" COMEDY

CHRISTMAS TIME IS here, and so are we, ready to meet your demand. You will find in our store an attractive line of merchandise, both useful and ornamental—We will just mention a few items as a reminder, knowing that your time is limited at this time of the year to read a long list of articles. Come in and get acquainted with us and our goods. TOYS ARE SELLING FAST Our Ready-to-Wear Department has many good things for your consideration—$15.00 and $20.00 Coats, $9.98. Suits 1/2 price. Furs greatly reduced. Dresses at a bargain. Skirts and Waists, Petticoats in Silk and Cotton. The notion Department offers the finest line of Handkerchiefs in the city as well as many other little gifts—A Dress or Waist Pattern. A set of Table Linens—A Kimono—Bath Robe—Umbrella—A nice Rug—are all good gifts. Paine & Hurst Dry Goods Store