LOGANITES NOT IN GOOD SHAPE

On Way to Bozeman, Montana to Play Game Tomorrow—Both Teams Determined to Win.

Logan, Utah, Nov. 11.—Although Coach C. Teetzel of the Utah Agricultural college is taking a bunch of cripples back with him on the trip to Bozeman, where his warriors will clash with the Montana Aggies, the students of the local institution feel that they have shaken the hoodoo that attached the squad in the early part of the season. Seventeen men, the coach, the trainer, and a few rooters are accompanying the team to the domain of the Montana potato diggers.

Young, the sensational back of last year, is still suffering from the effects of his lame ankle and may not be able to last more than a quarter in the game Saturday. Twitchell is another plucky back who has been limping around on weak spindles. Added to these disabled stars are Judd and Kappel, although Judd is expected to play his usual stellar game in the fray with the Montanans. Hatch is complaining of a dislocated toe, while Linquist has a sprained wrist, and Lewis a broken nose. But outside of these handicaps, the Logan outfit is in fair fighting shape.

Coach Teetzel and Coach Bennion are ancient rivals on the gridiron, both having waged many fierce battles with each other in past seasons when Bennion was the University of Utah pilot. Both predict victory for the eleven, which is mutually agreed to be impossible.

The dope favors the Utah crew. The Loganites dished up a defeat to the Butte Miners last week, while Montana's alfalfa raisers were lucky to get off with a tie. The element of doubt which is injected into the fray lives up the interest and promises to make the game a memorable one.

Those who are on the trip are Coach Teetzel, Trainer Ackmann, Manager Wilson, Captain Owen, Judd, Kappel, Young, Rigby, Luke, Steve Owen, Church, Doutr, Lindquist, Lewis, Twitchell, Curtis, Halton, Hatch and Wilson.

SPORTING NOTES

President Charles Comiskey, of the Chicago American League club, announced that he had selected Mineral Springs, Tex., for spring training quarters.

It is reported that the five Yale athletes who resigned from athletics when the Quoge incident was uncovered will be reinstated some time after the close of the present football season and before the opening of the baseball season in the spring. Harry LeGore, the best shortstop and one of the best football players in the East, will therefore be eligible to play on the Yale baseball team in 1916 and 1917 and the football team of 1916.

The net of professionalism has spread over Howard Berry, the greatest all-around athlete in collegiate circles, according to information reaching Amateur Athletic Union officials. Accusations against Berry, which are said to be in the hands of Secretary Frederick W. Rubien, of the Amateur Athletic Union in New York, assert that he played semi-professional baseball before he came to the University of Pennsylvania.

In a letter to a friend in New York Ernie Hjertberg states that he sees no chance for an Olympic meet to be held for many years. "The war has knocked the props from under everything," he writes.

Lawson Robertson, has secured an all-star entry for the 1000 yard run which will be a feature of the Irish-American A. C. games in Madison Square Garden on November 27. The big trainer is confident that a new world's record will be made. Every champion in the East has entered for the games, and from all indications the meet will be one of the best ever held indoors.

New York, Nov. 13.—Tom Cowler, the heavyweight who Jim Corbett says will win the championship of the world in time, has been matched to six Battling Levinsky ten rounds in New York November 15. Cowler has engaged in two fights since his arrival from Australia, but his coming battle against Levinsky will undoubtedly prove to be his first real test.

President Wilson has indicated that he will attend the football game between the eleven of the Naval and Military academies at the Polo grounds on November 27, and has, through his aid, asked accommodations for a party of eighteen.

The first "golf island" in the history of the royal and ancient game is to be the site of the new eighteen-hole course of the Ocean City Golf club, on which work of construction is to be started in a few weeks. The entire course of this latest addition to the sequence of coast golf links along the New Jersey shore will be surrounded by salt water. Golfers throughout the East are speculating on the possibilities suggested by the coming opportunity to play their favored game under the same climatic conditions as prevail on the famous boardwalks of both this resort and Atlantic City.

JOE RIVERS WILL BOX WITH MORRISSEY

St. Anthony, Idaho, Nov. 11.—Lee Morrissey, intermountain lightweight champion, and Joe Rivers, the Mexican who boxed Johnny Dundee, November 8, will box twelve rounds here Thanksgiving day. Rivers, his manager and trainer left Milwaukee November 9 for St. Anthony. Morrissey and Rivers will do their training at Idaho Falls, Pocatello and here.

GUERNSEY BACK; YALE STUDENTS CHEERING UP

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 11.—Practice in fundamental and a long signal drill constituted the workout of the Yale football team here today in preparation for Saturday's game with Princeton. Guernsey who will do the punting, lifted high spirals for an average of fifty yards and he also practiced drop kicking with good success.

John W. Minton of Syosset, L. I., has presented the eleven with a mascot in the shape of "Brutus," an English bulldog weighing seventy pounds.

SUE ON A PROPOSED ELECTRIC RAILWAY

Alleging breach of contract in connection with the proposed construction of an interurban line from Salt Lake to Provo, E. W. Hammer and W. C. Alexander sued John MacGinniss and Thaddeus S. Lane for $200,000 damages in the district court yesterday.

It is set out that the defendants and plaintiffs entered into a contract by which the plaintiffs were to make a survey, secure franchises, rights of way and promote construction work on the proposed line, while the defendants were to furnish the finances to the extent of about $1,500,000. The plaintiffs, under this alleged contract, were to receive $300 a month salary each and forty per cent of the capital stock. They aver that they performed their side of the contract as far as possible, but that the defendants failed to furnish the finances, and in consequence all the franchises and rights of way were lost. It is claimed by plaintiff that had the defendants performed their side of the contract the plaintiffs' profits would have been $200,000. Consequently they ask judgment for that amount. The road in question was to have been operated in competition with the Orem line.
