LAYNE, WARBALOW AND BURK DROPPED FROM POLICE FORCE

The formal police list for the week ending today makes the following changes:

The officers in charge of the Layne-Warbalow and John Burk cases, in the City Police Department, have been removed from their posts and will not hear these cases. Based on this change, Layne-Warbalow and John Burk cases have been cleared.

AMUSEMENTS

TRIPLE PLAY

A young man who succeeded in getting his hands on a license to drive his father's car was severely punished by the authorities.

CONCERTS

The concert given by the city orchestra last night was a great success. The audience was pleased with the performance.

PARKS

The city parks were crowded last weekend. Many people enjoyed the pleasant weather.

SOCIETIES AND CHURCHES

The Women's Benefit Association held a meeting last night. A large crowd attended.

OTHER EVENTS TONIGHT

A lecture on the history of the city will be given at the library tonight. The public is invited to attend.

NAVAL BATTLE IS DESCRIBED

The warship's progress in the battle was described by an eye witness. It was a fierce battle.

GARDEN OPPONENTS

The gardeners of the city refused to accept the offerings of the soldiers. This was a controversial issue.

LIFTING EMARGO

The embargo was lifted, and the soldiers were able to proceed with their operations.

PAYMENT

The soldiers were paid for their services. This was a significant event.

FRIENDS' UMBRELLA HELPS THIS SINGER

A new umbrella was given to the singer. It was a valuable gift.

WHAT NEW YORK PAPERS SAY OF "The Disciple"

(Paying-to-day at the Ogden.]

"Full of Action and Romance." - Herald.

"Magnificent scenery and wonderful storm empleased photostages." - Tribune.

"Realism to the last degree." - Press.

"A fine production." - Evening News.

Salt Lake Times review: "The Disciple" was a hit. The public loved it.

"The picture shows the progress of a war in a storm." - Tribune.

"It is a thrill for the audience." - Tribune.

"It is a powerful and gripping film." - Tribune.

And, in conclusion, Hale Hamilton in the Triangle-Keystone production:

"Her Painted Hero"

For Laughing Purposes Only.

TODAY

The Ogden Theatre

$2.00 Shows for 10c.

From 2 until 11.