

MELBA

ALHAMBRA, SUNDAY, JAN. 30
RESERVE NOW

OGDEN STANDARD LEADS.
For actual paying subscribers the Standard leads all other papers in Ogden and Northern Utah. Home competitors not excepted. Subscribers themselves to be the proof. Who dares challenge this statement.

For Subscription and Advertising Department, Call Phone No. 156.

RANDOM REFERENCES

Good watches 1/2 Price. $78 25th. Kodak Films developed 10c each roll. Velox paper used. McIntyre Drug.

Railroad Agents—J. W. Lowrie, traveling freight and passenger agent of the New York Central, and J. M. Davis, general agent of the Colorado Midland, were in Ogden yesterday on business.

All kinds of Coal. Parker Coal Co., cor 27th St. and Pac. Phone 198-W.

Eagles—A delegation of members of the Ogden Eagles' lodge will go to Salt Lake City tonight to assist at the initiation of about 40 new members of the Salt Lake lodge.

Doctor Fred G. Clark removed to Suite 707-S-9-10, David Eccles Bldg.

Marriage License—Marriage licenses have been issued to Edward S. Danks of West Union, Iowa, and Helen Johnson of Lamonia, Idaho, and to Thomas L. Vaughn and Mary Gibson of Ogden.

Well here we are again—the Barbers' fourth annual ball, at the Royal, Tuesday, February 1.

Damages Awarded—Yesterday afternoon Judge N. J. Harris rendered a decision in favor of the plaintiff in the case of Mary Mattson against W. C. Keim. Damages in the sum of $7.50 were awarded and the plaintiff shall retain possession of the tombstone in question.

The best of the season for "there's a reason"—the Barbers' fourth annual ball, at the Royal, Tuesday, February 1.

Canadian Party—Mrs. R. J. McKenzie, wife of the manager of the construction department, and Mrs. W. F. Shepard, wife of the chief clerk of the same department, of the Canadian Pacific railroad, accompanied by three servants are expected to pass through Ogden this evening. They are traveling eastward from San Francisco in the C. P. R. private car "Dauphin," en route to Omaha, over the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific railroads. From Omaha the party will go to Chicago, thence to Detroit and from Detroit to Ontario, Canada.

Spargo's for rubber stamps, seals, etc.

Look for a Brother—Mrs. H. C. Stewart of 1981 Oak avenue has requested the assistance of the Ogden police department in locating her brother, N. K. Lambert, who was last heard of at Layton, Utah, in September 1915. He is a moulder by trade, is 30 years of age, short and heavy of stature and light complexioned. At Layton, he was employed in the construction of the new sugar factory.

CSTEOPATHY—Dr. John Finley Morrison moved to 511 Eccles Bldg., Ph. 417.

Stolen—The theft of a Spidorf magnet and coil from an automobile belonging to A. R. Shupe was reported to the police yesterday. The theft was committed while the automobile was standing in front of the Shupe residence, 3208 Washington avenue.

All Kinds of Good Coal—Rawson Bros., 2279 Wall Ave. Phone 484, 1m.

Bicycles Taken—A bicycle was stolen from the Covey Cycle company, and a wheel with a red frame and cork handles was stolen from in front of the Smith Grocery store yesterday, according to a report received by the police.

B & G Butter is an opportunity for economy.

Ogden Visitors—W. L. Greiner, commercial agent of the New York Central, and A. W. Gory, traveling passenger agent of the Chicago and North Western, were in Ogden today on business.

Royal, perfect coal, sold and guaranteed by M. L. Jones Coal & Ice Co. 1-15-11

Guardianship—In the estate and guardianship of Laverne Farr et al, minors, Mrs. Clara Farr, the mother, has petitioned the district court for letters of guardianship. The minors are the children of the late Winslow Farr.

Dr. E. R. Dumke, Eccles Bldg. Phone, office 803, residence 1349-J.

Births—The following births were reported to the city health department today: To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leffler, a daughter, January 26; to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Noorda, a son, January 22; to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin L. Allen, a daughter, January 24; to Mr. and Mrs. Orson L. Taylor, a daughter, January 23; to Mr. and Mrs. John

ELECTRIC LINE NORTH BLOCKED AND CITY CARS ON SLOW TIME

Snow Drifts Prevent Traffic Beyond Idlewild in Canyon and Mail Goes Through on Horseback—Deep Cuts on Road to Logan Filled With Snow—No Trolley Service Between Dewey and Wellsville.

Following the fierce gale of last night snow fell to a depth of more than four inches by noon today. At one o'clock it was reported that there were four feet of snow at the power dam in Ogden canyon and that it was still snowing and blowing. The Huntville car was blocked at a point near Idlewild and the mail was taken from there to Huntville by a rider on horseback.

In the city, snow sweepers have been constantly at work clearing the track of the fast falling snow and the crews succeeded fairly well in the operating of cars. However, the Twenty-third street cars are being run only to Van Buren avenue and all cars are on slow schedules.

MANY TRAINS ON O. S. L. ORDERED BACK TO OGDEN FROM THE NORTH

Snow Fills the Cuts and Engines Cannot Force Their Way Through—Southern Pacific Delayed Freight Trains Arrive—200 Snow Shovelers Leave For Scene of Blockade—Old S. P. Line Snowbound.

Passenger traffic through the Ogden terminal of the steam railroads was virtually at a standstill today, as a result of the worst wind and snow storm in years. The Oregon Short Line, Southern Pacific and Salt Lake Route were hardest hit by the storm, the Denver & Rio Grande and Union Pacific trains being but little delayed.

Commercial agent M. D. Shortz and City ticket agent D. R. Owen of the Southern Pacific were busy today completing transportation arrangements for the local people who are to depart tomorrow on the Southern Pacific mid-winter excursion trains (for San Francisco and Los Angeles).

THE BEST SHOW OF THE SEASON

The Alhambra patrons who enjoyed the Orpheum vaudeville will find equally as much pleasure in the show this week at the Alhambra Hippodrome. Every act is first-class—a most pleasing program—Advertisement.

Deaths and Funerals

WILSON—The funeral of Mrs. Helen Elate Wilson was held yesterday afternoon in the Eden ward meeting house, with Bishop George Fuller presiding. The speakers were Daniel O. Walker, C. J. Lindquist, Adam L. Peterson and Bishop Fuller. The Eden ward choir sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee," "Sweet Rest in Heaven" and "Shall We Meet Beyond the River" and Wilbur Ferrin sang "Sometime We'll Understand." The service was largely attended and many beautiful floral offerings were placed upon the bier of the deceased. Interment was in the Huntville cemetery, the grave being dedicated by Bishop Fuller.

CLAIMS FATHER WAS DRUNK WHEN HE SOLD STOCK

Respecting the claims of David S. Tracy and Charles H. Gosling, that they each purchased 1000 shares of stock from the late Lorenzo Farr in the Lake View mining company for a nominal sum, and for which they seek adjustment in court, the administrator Charles L. Farr has filed an answer. The administrator avers that if the purchases were made, the transactions were entered into when Lorenzo Farr was intoxicated, and that he was not accountable for what he did. It is also alleged in the answer that Mr. Farr was an habitual drinker and that when he was under the influence of liquor he would sell any thing he had for money which would to purchase more liquor. The administrator asks the court to hold the transactions as unconscionable and void.

ALLIES LOSE MANY FLYERS

Berlin, Jan. 28, via London, 4:22 p. m.—The allied forces on the western front have lost three aeroplanes since October 1, last, according to a report issued today by the German war office.

Send the children to the Alhambra Saturday. You are assured of their safety and a refined program. 2 and a half hour show for 5c. Adults 10c matinee.

UTAHNA DRUG CO. ASSIGNMENT

In the matter of the hearing in the settlement of accounts, decree of distribution and allowance of items of disbursements, in relation to the assignment of the Utahna Drug company the case was called by Judge N. J. Harris today but the hearing was continued until February 18, before it had hardly begun.

PASSENGERS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE

Newark, Ohio, Jan. 28.—One man was killed and one seriously injured when a New York-St. Louis, Panhandle limited train struck an automobile being driven by a Pataaskala, 15 miles from here shortly before last midnight. The engine, three mail cars and two Pullmans were derailed and rolled over into a 15-foot gully.

FRANK PHILBROOK TO APPEAR IN COURT

JANUARY 31

The preliminary hearing of the case of the State of Utah vs. Frank Philbrook, the alleged murderer of Pat Quigley, was this morning, ordered continued until 10:30 a. m., January 31, by Municipal Judge G. S. Barker. The order was made at the request of the defendant, who stated that his attorney Soren Christensen informed him this morning by telephone that it would not be possible for him to appear in court to come to Ogden, until next week.

The session held at the city jail was of brief duration, there being only five offenders brought before the court. Three of these, Jim Carnivole, R. Jackson and Geo. Smart, were given suspended sentences. They were arrested last night by Patrolman Shaughnessy near the Denver and Rio Grande machine shops, on charges of trespass. Joe Kinnon, who sought free lodging at the city jail last night, while under the influence of liquor, was sentenced to serve the city for five days.

Joe Farrell pleaded guilty to "mooching" and was sentenced to serve 10 days in jail. He was taken into custody yesterday evening by Patrolman Walter Marlin and Detective Grant Syphers.

EXCURSIONISTS ARE TO DEPART FOR THE COAST

Commercial agent M. D. Shortz and City ticket agent D. R. Owen of the Southern Pacific were busy today completing transportation arrangements for the local people who are to depart tomorrow on the Southern Pacific mid-winter excursion trains (for San Francisco and Los Angeles).

On March 1, the Utah Cereal company's factory in Ogden will begin the manufacture of cereal products, under the direct management of L. A. Ray.

CEREAL FACTORY TO START WORK ON MARCH 1

This was the statement made by Mr. Ray this morning, who also said a campaign of publicity, through the Malcolm McAllister Advertising agency, had been decided on which would begin immediately, calling for the largest outlay of money for advertising purposes ever authorized by any company in Utah.

HEIRS TO ESTATE OF JAMES MACK OF OGDEN

In the estate of James Mack, deceased, James M. Mack has petitioned the district court asking for the probating of a will, stating that the petitioner and Mary E. Mack Fishburn, S. L. Mack Fishburn, Moses Thatcher, Henry M. Mack and Charles W. Mack were named as executors, and that those living are willing to serve in that capacity. It is related, however, that Moses Thatcher is dead.

PROBATE MATTERS IN DISTRICT COURT

In Judge N. J. Harris' division of the district court today the petition for final settlement, distribution, discharge of the administrator and close of the estate, was granted in the matter of the estate of Bent Peterson, deceased.

An order was made for the purchase of a tombstone to cost $50, in the estate of George Mattson, deceased.

Hearing of petition for final settlement, distribution and close of the estate, in the estate of John Wheeler,

Here's a Dandy Bill!

Where can you find a better one?

Lillian Gish, Rozsika Dolly, Wilfred Lucas, Elmer Clifton,

—in—

"The Lily And The Rose"

A Triangle-Griffith Fine Arts Production. A splendid play—perfectly produced

—AND—

The comical Chas. Murray (of Murray & Mack) in the side-splitting Keystone—

"THE GREAT VACUUM ROBBERY"

30 Minutes of Hilarious Comedy.

The Ogden Theatre

$2.00 in New York; 10c in Ogden. From 2 until 11.

deceased, was transferred to Judge J. A. Howell's division.

In the estate of Andrew P. Jarrell, deceased, Walter Jarrell has petitioned the district court for letters of administration. The petition relates that Mr. Jarrell died intestate January 21, 1916, leaving an estate of the probable value of $9000.

ada in return for the lifting of the export embargo from the British possessions in the West Indies. No further difficulty in getting the raw material for American industries now is expected.

FOWNES' FIRM FACING CHARGES

London, Jan. 28, 4:45 p. m.—Three partners of Fownes Brothers and company, glove manufacturers, were today committed for trial in criminal court on the charge of obtaining goods from Germany through their New York branches and trading in such goods in contravention of the "trading with the enemy act."

WARDEN DIES OF APOPLEXY

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 28.—Warden Sale of the North Carolina penitentiary here died of apoplexy today after the last superintendent of the institution of two negroes. The warden appeared agitated as he unstrapped the bodies of the negroes from the electric chair and shortly afterward became unconscious.

PITIFULLY SMALL SUM FOR INJURED

Washington, Jan. 28.—Families of the men killed and injured by the recent explosion aboard the submarine E-2 at New York, the house judiciary committee was informed today by Miss Eva Ward of the American Association for Labor Legislation, will receive a maximum compensation under the federal employes' compensation act of only $600 in each case. The sums were designated as "pitifully and disgracefully small" by Charles P. Neil, former labor commissioner.

TARIFF MEASURE NEEDS CHANGE

New Orleans, Jan. 28.—If we are to maintain after the present war the foreign trade we may establish it seems imperative that we have means at our disposal to prevent foreign countries from indiscriminating at will against our products," said J. J. Culbertson, president of the Interstate Cotton Seed Crushers' association, in an address before the national foreign trade convention here today.

SUPREME COURT DECIDES CASE

Boston, Mass., Jan. 28.—The supreme court today virtually empowered minority stockholders of the New York, New Haven and Hartford to proceed in the name of the corporation in their suit to recover from former directors of the road $102,000, 000 alleged to have been lost by improper purchases.

DYESTUFF MAKERS REACH AGREEMENT

Washington, Jan. 28.—Principal American manufacturers of dyestuffs from logwood have agreed to Great Britain's condition of exporting a reasonable amount of products to Canada.

Have You Phoned?

Do It Now

Tell Your Dealer to send you delicious, sweet, juicy, healthful

Sunkist

California's Selected Oranges

Fine Seedless Navels. Get a dozen today.

Save the tissue wrappers for beautiful silverware

CALIFORNIA FRUIT GROWERS EXCHANGE

Co-operative—Non-Profit

Eastern Headquarters: 139 N. Clark Street, Chicago (43)

SAVE THE PIECES

If you break your glasses. We can repair them on very short notice.

J. T. RUSHMER, Manufacturing Optician, 2464 Wash. Ave.

Society

AFTERNOON TEA. The Maids' and Matrons' will serve tea tomorrow in the club rooms.

TO VISIT CALIFORNIA. Mrs. George Lochhead of 721 Twenty-sixth street will depart over the San Pedro tomorrow for an extended visit in southern California with friends and relatives.

POSTPONED DANCE. The Seventh ward concert and dancing party scheduled for tonight has been postponed owing to the storm.

ASK FOR AND GET HORLICK'S THE ORIGINAL MALTED MILK

Cheap substitutes cost YOU same price.