F. A. WADLEIGH OF THE RIO GRANDE SEES OGDEN SIGHTS

Passenger Traffic Manager F. A. Wadleigh, of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, passed several hours in Ogden today as a guest of General Agent Frank Fouts. The trip of the distinguished Denver official was for acquainted purposes and Mr. Wadleigh passed considerable of his time visiting local business and railroad men.

In speaking of the prospects for passenger traffic westward this summer, Mr. Wadleigh referred to the record breaking traffic of last year and said that, while this record would probably not be approached, many eastern people who visited the exposition last year, would without doubt, come west again when the time and opportunity offered. "In fact," he said, "the only justification for the low rates in effect last year on the different western railroads was the hope and virtual assurance that the tourists would find sufficient of interest in scenery, climatic conditions and other attractive features of the western country to encourage them to return."

Of the exposition's traffic from the eastern states, Mr. Wadleigh said that approximately 50 per cent passed on to California through the Utah gateway and that Ogden and Utah would undoubtedly reap future and lasting benefit.

CITY BOARD CONSIDERS COST OF LIGHTING THE STREETS

It was planned by the city board of commissioners to consider this morning the proposed contract with the Utah Power & Light company for lighting the streets of the city this year but action was deferred until this afternoon.

Mayor A. R. Heywood and the commissioners are of the opinion that the cost of lighting the city can be reduced to a very great extent, and that the terms of the new and extended franchise to the company should take a material change in the cost. It is said that there will be a reduction of at least 25 cents on each city light and that additional free lights will be furnished. There will be used about 474 lights at a cost of $4.50 each.

The Hudson avenue lighting contract is separate from that of the lights in other parts of the city. Mayor Heywood, states, and neither the city nor the company has a memorandum of the agreement. However, Mr. Heywood says the burden of maintaining the cluster lights on Hudson avenue, between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets, is on the city and the frequent breaking of globes incurs extra expense. It is the Mayor's opinion that a contract with the company for the lighting of Hudson avenue on the same basis as that for lighting other parts of the city, will reduce the cost in that district from 30 to 40 percent.

CITY ATTORNEY HAS A TILT WITH THE MAYOR

At the conclusion of the meeting of the city board of commissioners last evening a little tilt between Mayor A. R. Heywood and City Attorney E. T. Hulaniski, caused the latter to become quite vexed and he walked away from the meeting stating that he had been insulted.

After practically all other business of the meeting had been attended to, the city attorney stated that J. I. Brummitt wanted his warrant for certain stock in the Ogden Bench Canal company which the city purchased a short time ago.

"The city has an offset on that account," Mayor Heywood said to the attorney, "and we will try to settle with Mr. Brummitt on that basis."

"I don't consider the account against Brummitt for special taxes is an offset to his account against the city respecting the sale of his water stock," replied the attorney.

"When did you get on both sides of this question, Captain?" asked the Mayor. "You are the city's legal adviser and I don't think you should be on the other side."

WORLD'S MARKETS

The latter was again the most impressive feature, adding almost 2 points to yesterday's smart advance. Petroleum and other Mexican shares participated variably in the rise.
