FISHING THAT IS NOT SPORT

One way of catching herring is by driving nails into a board so that they stick out several inches. The boards are then dragged through the shoals and the fish catch between the nails and are pulled by the boardful into the boats. In one year more than a million pounds of herring were caught at Prince Rupert and frozen by the cold-storage plants to be sold for bait. Something like 125,000 pounds of codfish are annually taken for the same purpose.—The Christian Herald.

OVER-NIGHT FAME, WON BY CALIFORNIA DANCER, CALLS FORTH OFFERS OF LOVE

Miss Alice Maison, as Spanish senorita.

Over-night fame, won as the model for the San Diego exposition's 1916 poster, is bringing many proposals of marriage to Miss Alice Maison, pretty California dancer. One impetuous suitor, whom she has not yet seen, has written her many letters, in which he says he will come to her and marry her on March 18.

NO MORE ABANDONED FARMS The automobile has raised farm values and has made possible a great widening of the suburban communities about the cities. A few years ago Connecticut had a serious problem to solve in her abandoned farms. Today there isn't an abandoned farm in the state; they have been sold largely to commuters who motor from the railway station to their country homes, the remodeled and no longer abandoned farm-houses.—The Christian Herald.
