KATHERINE CARNAHAN IS CALLED BY DEATH

Miss Katherine C. Carnahan, daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. John D. Carnahan, died last night at the family residence, 2561 Fowler avenue. Death came to the well-known young woman at 6:45 o'clock, following a three weeks' illness.

Miss Carnahan was a prominent member of Queen Esther chapter of the order of Eastern Star, the Children's Aid society and other local women's clubs. She was taken ill with tonsillitis while engaged in working out plans for the recent observance of "Baby Week." Her interest in the "Better Babies" campaign in Ogden for several years past, made her well loved by the mothers of the city and her fellow workers.

The deceased was born in Ogden about 36 years ago and passed her life here, the constant and devoted companion of her mother. The mother and a brother, Thomas C. Carnahan, a mining engineer of Big Horn canyon, survive and both were at the bedside of Miss Carnahan when death came. The funeral announcements will be made later.

ELECTRIFICATION OF A RAILROAD

One of the most interesting pieces of railroad literature that has appeared in Ogden in a number of months is an illustrated booklet issued by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway in connection with the announcement that the electrification of the mountain district of that railroad has been completed. The booklet is hand-

WAR DECLARED ON THE "PEACE HAT"

War on the "peace hat," a late creation in spring millinery, is an imminent possibility. Women friends of the birds declare the dove with which the hat is trimmed must go before they will set the hat on their fair heads. They are for peace, they declare, but they say they will not advertise their principles at the price of an innocent bird's life. Privately, those who are advocating the wearing of the "peace hat" have confessed that the alleged "dove" is not a "real-for-sure" dove at all. They say it is made of chicken feathers. Nevertheless the bird champions declare it looks like a real dove and they will not wear it. So there!

WORLD'S MARKETS

Chicago Grain

Chicago, March 24.—Wheat declined in value today influenced by lower prices at Liverpool and by favorable weather conditions southwest where rains were expected to improve thin fields wonderfully. The market was bearishly affected also by the distress selling of corn. The opening ranged from 1-4 to 1-1/8c lower with May at $1.06 7-8 to 1-07 1-2, and July at $1.95 1-2 to 1-06, was followed by some additional losses.

Heavy selling to stop losses sent corn sharply down. The chief buying was on the part of speculative shorts. After opening 1-2 to 1-1/8c down, the market rallied a trifle, but then sank lower than before. Oats fell with corn and wheat. The selling was general. Higher prices on hogs strengthened provisions. Buying, however, was only of moderate volume. The wheat close was strong, 1-2 to 3-4c net higher with May at $1.08 2-4 and July at $1.06 3-4. The corn close was firm at 1-8 to 1-4 3-8c net advance.

Chicago Hog Market. Chicago, March 24.—Hog prices advanced today owing to the scantiness of receipts here and throughout the west. Cattle offerings lacked quality. Killers were avoiding as much as possible the purchase of sheep and lambs. Hogs—Receipts 20,000; slow, 5 to 10c above yesterday's average. Bulk $9.70@9.85; light, $9.25@9.95; mixed, $9.25@9.65; heavy, $9.60@9.67 1-2; rough, $9.45@9.55; pigs, $7.49@8.60.

Omaha Livestock. Omaha, Nebr., March 24.—Hogs—Receipts $490; higher. Heavy, $9.25 @9.50; light, $9.15@9.45; pigs, $8.00 @9.00; bulk of sales, $9.25@9.45. Cattle—Receipts 1400; steady. Native steers, $7.50@9.50; cows and heifers, $5.00@9.00; western steers, $7.00@8.50; Texas steers, $6.75@7.25; stockers and feeders, $6.50@8.50. Sheep—Receipts 5500; strong Yearlings, $8.50@9.85; wethers, $7.50@8.50; lambs, $10.50@11.60.

Sugar. New York, March 24.—Raw sugar, firm; centrifugal, 5 1/2c; molasses, 4 1/4c; refined, firm. Sugar futures were firm on continued buying by trade interests and support from commission houses. At noon prices were 4 to 7 points net higher.

UTAH STOCKS

Summary of the Local Market. The market in mining shares continues quiet. With whatever activity there is in the Alta Cottonwood stocks and a few of the dividend payers, the Tintic stocks commanded very little attention, Beck Tunnel, Iron Blossom and Ophongo being about the only ones traded in on the regular board. Reeds Peak sold at a new high mark of 20c this morning and at the close of the market this was the bid price. Tintic Standard sold off as low as 15 cents and there are chances of there being another assessment on this issue in the near future.

Among the industrial stocks Lion Coal attracts the most attention locally, there have been several inquiries for the stock around $6.00 a share but no stock comes out at this price. Practically all other industrial issues are quiet and few inquiries.

SHERMAN'S MARCH TO THE SEA

SCENE FROM "THE BIRTH OF A NATION," ORPHEUM THEATRE, STARTING SUNDAY, MARCH 26TH.

Quite the most wonderful of the many wonderful scenes pictured in "The Birth of a Nation" is that showing Sherman's march to the sea and the burning of the city of Atlanta. Imagine a view of a long, fertile valley extending for miles. Moving through this valley, in struggling formation, or lack of formation, in the army of General Sherman. The view is so extensive that the soldiers appear but little larger than ants, yet the photograph is so clear that the form of each man is perfectly delineated. Now and then a puff of smoke indicates return fire upon snipers in farm buildings. Now and then a barn is fired, in evident retaliation for a deadly bullet from its shelter, and the army of human ants is ever moving forward, wriggling its way like a huge serpent towards its goal—the sea. Atlanta is reached. Whether the burning of the city was a military necessity, or whether the conflagration was of accidental origin, chroniclers of the time fail to agree, but Atlanta was sacrificed to the flames and the great fire is so realistically pictured in "The Birth of a Nation" that one can almost smell the smoke and hear the cries of the terrified people as they flee to the hills for their lives. Few make any attempt to save household effects, so great is their haste to escape the flames and the hated Yankees. Up the hills they rush, men, women and little children, an endless parade of misery, drear and hopelessness. Sherman's army has cut its fearful swathe through the heart of the South. Another link has been forged in the chain that shall bind the Confederacy to the stake. Another move has been made in the big war game that is to end at Appomattox Court House with the surrender of Lee. It is a wonderful picture in very truth. Nothing like it has ever appeared on the screen, and it took a vast amount of labor and infinite patience to stage such a spectacle. "The Birth of a Nation" will be shown at the Orpheum theater week starting Sunday March 26th.—Advertisement.
