HERBERT RILEY PLEADS GUILTY

In Judge Nathan J. Harris' division of the district court today, the information charging Herbert Riley with forgery was changed to a misdemeanor, to which the young man pleaded guilty and was sentenced to serve four months in the county jail.

Judge Harris stated that he had made an investigation respecting the case and had arrived at the conclusion that the ends of justice would be met in sentencing the defendant to the county jail. The court stated that he had learned that the young man was a good, dependable boy and had done much toward the support of his two sisters.
