The Making of Maddalena as a photoplay of appeal is really made by what has been done for the scenario by the director and the cast which Edna Goodrich heads. The scenario is based on the play of the same name. The story whose central character is an Italian beauty is unfolded in an atmosphere of striking reality. Maddalena is the daughter of an Italian peasant. Mistreated and abused by her drink-mad father, Maddalena applies to an artist's studio for employment as a model. She is engaged by George Hale who visits Rome more for the fun of it than a serious desire to study art. Don't miss the good ones. "Burton Homes Travels," Pathe current events and the Pictograph.

DOOLY BLOCK IS BOUGHT BY JOHN S. LEWIS AND COMPANY

One of the Largest Real Estate Transfers in the History of Washington Avenue—Consideration $68,200 or at the Rate of $1100 a Front Foot.

One of the biggest real estate deals recorded in Ogden in a number of years was the transfer this morning of the Dooly block on Washington avenue, from the John E. Dooly Company of Salt Lake to John S. Lewis and Company of Ogden, the cash consideration being $68,200.

The Dooly block adjoins the Ogden Furniture and Carpet company building on the east side of Washington avenue, between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets and is one of the oldest substantial business blocks of the city. It has a frontage of nearly 62 feet, and a depth of 149 feet 6 inches, and is three stories high. The upper floors have been the home of both the Masonic and Elks lodges of Ogden and its second floor is now the home of the Ogden Owl lodge. At the present time the third floor is occupied by the Ogden Conservatory of Music.

In speaking of the purchase of the large structure this morning, J. S. Lewis stated that it was consummated as an investment, his company having faith in the future of Ogden and a firm belief that the transaction would prove profitable. No plans for a possible remodeling of the building have as yet been considered.

At an early hour this morning, a Buick automobile from Kaysville, carrying four men on a fishing trip, went over a fifty-foot embankment, near the Eddington ranch, on Lost Creek. The car turned over three times before it reached the bottom, breaking the right leg of both John H. Blood and Geo. B. Sheffield and badly jarring Myron Phillips and Chas. Burton.

The party, driven by Mr. Blood, left Kaysville at 9 o'clock this morning, and was rounding a sharp curve three miles north of the Eddington ranch, when the steering gear failed to work and the car slid over the embankment. Chas. Burton made his way to the ranch and telephoned to Devil's Slide for aid. An automobile was sent out and the injured were conveyed to the hospital at Devil's Slide where it was found that each one had his right leg broken near the thigh and between the thigh and knee.

The men were placed on the afternoon Union Pacific train en route to a hospital in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Geo. D. Bennett, 766 Twenty-sixth street, is a sister of Mr. Blood.

OIL WELLS ARE TO BE OPENED IN THIS COUNTY

Boring for oil is to commence near Ogden within the next thirty days, following the filing of articles of incorporation today of the Weber County Oil & Natural Gas company, of which Dr. J. W. Paddock is president; Emil Bachman, secretary; J. W. Lowder, treasurer; Thomas Quinn, vice president; and director and manager; J. J. Pringle, director. Judge W. H. Reed is attorney for the company.

The company is capitalized at $150,000 and has secured leases on over 2000 acres of land from north of the Ogden Hot Springs to south of West Weber and as far west as the lake.

Thomas Quinn, the expert, has been on the ground 18 months, examining seepages, gas flows and the general geology of the country north, west and south of Ogden. He has found gas at many points, which he says is not marsh gas, but comes from an oil body. The most important seepage was noted at the Dineen place in the northwestern part of the city.

DIVORCE GRANTED BY JUDGE HARRIS

Decisions rendered in Judge N. J. Harris' division of the district court this morning were as follows:

In the case of L. B. Hammon & Son vs. the Phoenix Construction company, the plaintiff's motion for an order striking out the cost bill of the defendants, E. K. Walsh and P. L. Pierce, was granted.

In the case of Herman B. Denkers vs. Southern Pacific Railroad company and others, plaintiff's motion for an order taxing costs therein was granted.

In the matter of the estate of Theodore Engstrom, deceased, the demurrer to amended cross petition of Mary Muschert for letters of administration, was sustained. It was ordered that letters of administration be issued to Valentine Gideon with bond fixed in the sum of $1200.

The case of Joseph L. Skeen vs. George G. McFarland was continued indefinitely.

Naomi Marsh was granted a divorce from Robert H. Marsh on the grounds of desertion.

WOMEN FORFEIT BAIL MONEY IN THE POLICE COURT

William C. Wilke was arrested yesterday evening by Patrolman W. W. Richardson, following a complaint made to the police by W. E. Keating, that the man was carrying a revolver and had been following Keating's daughter, Mrs. Gus Kingster, with the intention of doing her harm. When taken into custody, it is said, Wilke was in a condition almost of dementia, the result of a protracted spree. A .38 caliber revolver was found in his possession and a charge of carrying concealed weapons was placed against him. He was convicted of the charge this morning in the municipal court and was sentenced to pay a fine of $30 or to serve 30 days in jail.

May Lyons was taken into custody last night by Sergeant J. F. Kellher and Patrolman Soule, on a charge of selling liquor without a license. She

FREEMAN MALIN LOSES HIS LIFE AND SON IS INJURED

Freeman Malin of Hoystville was instantly killed and his son, Chester F. Malin, of 251 Thirty-second street, and two other men whose names could not be learned, were injured in the Weber canyon road, fifteen miles from Hoystville, at 8:10 this morning, when an automobile skidded over an embankment into the Weber river.

The four men left Peoa early in the morning for an extended fishing trip up Weber canyon. A force of men had been repairing the road with shale, making it loose and unsteady. When the automobile containing the four men was rounding the dugway going at a moderate rate of speed, the machine swerved, throwing the rear end toward the river, the force causing the car to plunge violently over the embankment, killing Mr. Freeman Malin instantly.

All the reports available state that Chester F. Malin was only slightly injured. He is reported to have aided in taking his father's body back to Hoystville.

Alex Jamison, Gus Olsen, Ed. A. Newcombe, John Strom and Jim Hayes, plain drunks, were sentenced to five days in jail, or to pay the equivalent fine. Mike Murphy, W. H. Bexten, Safus Jensen, Ed. Crouch, and A. J. Fitzhugh, alleged drunks, each forfeited $5 bail. Joe Kene was sentenced to serve 15 days in jail and Mike Lynch and Joe Cronin, 10 days each, for drunkenness and disturbing the peace.

Jess Rose, Glenn Stallings, Herman Warner and Howard Green engaged in a fight last night in an alley, off Grant avenue, and were taken to police headquarters by Officers Blackburn, Chambers, Paine and Erbe. They were booked on charges of disturbing the peace. Warner and Green each forfeited $10 this morning in court and Rose and Stallings were each fined $10.
