ALLEN RUSSELL NOW A REGULAR ON YANK'S TWIRLING STAFF

Here is Allen Russell, the recruit pitcher of the Yankees, who earned his regular turn in the box by some exceptional twirling recently.

ers' battle between Bill Prough and Decanniere on the points, but the fates were kind to the homeless ones, and errors at opportune times counted in the 2-to-1 victory.

Vernon earned their tally, but it was a scratchy affair at best—just a question of the umpire's judgment and the problem one of whether Bill Kenworthy had his foot on second base in taking a throw.

Prough allowed but four scattered hits, walked but two during the afternoon and fanned five. Three double plays were pulled off by a club that has certainly picked up on its speed, and the controversy was settled in less than an hour and a half.

At that Decanniere wasn't far behind Prough in the matter of the stuff he was hurling across the rubber, and, had his support been as glib-edged as that for his adversary, the story would be different.

New York-Chicago. Chicago, July 25.—Caldwell's wildness was the chief factor in Chicago's 13 to 8 victory over the crippled Yankees today. In the first inning, he passed three White Sox and hit another, forcing in a run, while Jackson's double and Schalk's triple with the bases full made the total five for the round. Cleotis was nearly as wild, but was taken out in time to prevent disaster, though four hits in the sixth routed Russell, his successor, Magee was out of the game as a result of a twisted ankle. Chicago-Boston. Boston, July 25.—Chicago defeated the Braves 3 to 2 in an eleven-inning contest today.

Umpire Eason's decision, however, allowing the run scored by the Cubs in the eleventh, will be protested by Boston. Zimmerman, who had reached first on a felder's choice, came all the way home when Fitzpatrick threw badly to first on Saier's grounder.

Boston will contend that Zimmerman should have been allowed to take third on the play. Umpire Eason ruled Norris Williams II from the singles in the annual lawn tennis tournament at the Longwood Cricket club, disposed of another strong contender today. In his match with T. R. Pell of New York, the Californian won 6-1, 6-1, 9-7, his game being altogether too resourceful and speedy for the New Yorker.

The national champion, W. M. Johnston, had another easy day, disposing of E. E. Dennison of Portland, Me., in straight sets. The surprise of the day was the defeat of Ward Dawson of San Francisco by R. N. Dana of Providence, R. I., after five hard sets, 4-6, 4-6, 6-1, 8-6, 6-2.

The Japanese champion, I. Kumagai, came through the third round without much troublesome opposition, while his teammate, H. Mikami, could not cope with the chop strokes of I. C. Wright of Boston.

In the eastern doubles championship the feature was furnished by G. M. Church of New York and W. E. Davis of San Francisco, who won a thrilling match from the crack Boston pair, N. W. Niles and G. P. Gardner, Jr., after five sets. Seldom has such high-class service been seen at Longwood, particularly that furnished by Davis. He won all of his service game and scored sixteen service aces.

The summary: Third round—I. Kumagai, Tokio, defeated M. A. Conant, Boston, 6-2, 6-2, 6-6.

Eastern doubles: First round—T. R. Pell, New York, and R. Norris Williams II, Boston, defeated K. C. Pfaffmann, Boston.

Arnold Swaine, New York, 6-4, 6-2, 6-2.

Singles: Third round—E. P. Larned, Bernardsville, N. J., defeated K. S. Pfaffmann, Boston, 4-6, 7-5, 6-3, 7-5.

Roland Roberts, San Francisco, defeated A. N. Reggio, Boston, 6-3, 6-3, 6-3.

J. J. Armstrong, Philadelphia, defeated W. F. McElroy, Pittsburg, 6-9, 1-6, 6-3, 6-2.

I. C. Wright, Boston, defeated H. Mikami, Tokio, 6-1, 6-3, 6-4.

W. M. Washburn, New York, defeated M. G. S. Rao, Cambridge, 6-3, 6-3, 6-2.

G. C. Caner, Philadelphia, defeated J. B. Fenno, Jr., Boston, 6-1, 6-0, 5-1.

W. M. Johnston, San Francisco, defeated E. E. Dennison, Portland, Me., 6-3, 6-3, 6-2.

C. J. Griffin, San Francisco, defeated T. R. Pell, New York, 6-1, 6-1, 5-7.

R. N. Dana, Providence, defeated Ward Dawson, San Francisco, 4-6, 4-6, 6-1, 8-6, 6-2.
