RUMANIA AND GREECE ABLAZE

They Are Ready to Enter the War on Side of the Allies.

London, Aug. 22.—Events in the Balkans, following each other with dizzying rapidity, threaten to drag two more nations, Rumania and Greece, into the maelstrom of the European war.

The crisis has admittedly been reached in Bucharest, while Greek troops, by engaging the Bulgarians in a bloody battle in Greek Macedonia, may lead the Athens government to enter the arena, even against its own desire.

A startling new phase of the situation reached the public eye for the first time today with the news that Rumania has completely mobilized its army of 500,000 and that Russia has landed more troops at Saloniki to cooperate with the British, French, Italians and Serbians.

Both these important developments, now weeks old, have been religiously withheld from public knowledge by the entente censors. The news was allowed to leak out today without comment by officials. It only serves to indicate the terrific battle of diplomacy which has been raging in the little Balkan capitals for the last month.

The first Russian detachment landed at Saloniki on July 31. Since that time additional Russian corps have arrived, a dispatch from Saloniki reporting the arrival of new forces no later than yesterday morning. The majority of the Russians already have been sent to the front, where they are fighting side by side with the Serbians in the Florina district in the allied left. They are under command of General Friederitz and the first groups came from France and Mesopotamia, where they had joined the French and British, respectively, during the winter. Later arrivals are said to have traveled all the way from Archangel.

Berlin is Alarmed.

Berlin admittedly views the situation in Rumania in the gravest light, but the unexpected development of Greek troops, acting on their own initiative, engaging the Bulgarians in battle makes the position of Greece even more important.

The fight between Bulgarians and Greeks occurred in the region of Seres, an important city of Greek Macedonia, and, according to reports, the military authorities, propose to take matters into their own hands unless the government acts to halt the Bulgarian invasion. It had previously been reported that no opposition was being offered the Bulgarians in the Seres district.

"The Greeks in Macedonia have determined to defend the land themselves if the government's policy is not changed," says a Central News dispatch from Athens.

The Exchange Telegram company has received a message from its correspondent at the Greek capital which states that the entire Sixth Greek division was engaged with the Bulgarians and that serious losses were inflicted on the invaders. The authorities, it is said, then ordered the Greeks to retire.

Calls Out Reservists.

Meantime the Greek commander at Seres called to arms all the reservists in the neighborhood.

Much excitement has been caused in Athens by the developments in Macedonia, according to an Evening News dispatch from that city. Government orders have been issued, it is said, that all further hostilities must be avoided, but the feeling is general in well-informed circles here that Greece may be forced to back up her troops by the demands of her people.

KATMAI WORLD'S GREATEST CRATER

Miles Across and Extends Down Thousands of Feet Is Scientists Report.

RIM IS REACHED
Most Wonderful of All Sights Is Spot Where Glacier Blew Up.

Kodiak, Alaska, Aug. 22.—The main crater of Katmai volcano is one of the greatest in the world, according to a statement made today by Robert F. Griggs, who has reached Kodiak, after a careful study of the great volcano, in the interests of the American Geographic society. "This crater," he said, "is miles across and extends down thousands of feet to a blue-green lake, shimmering and sputtering at the bottom."

Mr. Griggs was accompanied on the expedition by Lucius G. Folsom, principal of the Kodiak schools, and Donnan Church, a student at the Ohio state university. This is the first close examination by scientists made of this volcano since the great eruption in June, 1912, when the top of the mountain was blown off and Kodiak island, across Shelikoff Strait, was covered with a foot of volcanic ash.

"Other craters in the group have been reported as the main crater of Katmai," said Mr. Griggs, "but these do not compare with the real thing. The natives claim that the top of the high mountain was blown off. Our first visit was made July 19 and a second July 30. The day was clear and the ascent over the mud and ice drainage ditches was difficult, but the walls of the crater were such that we could stand on the rim and see sulphur patches and steam jets hissing through crevices."

Wonderful Sights.

The explorers said the most wonderful of all sights at the crater was a place where a glacier blown in two by the great eruption, still formed part of the crater wall, the intense heat being insufficient to melt this mighty palisade of ice. Part of the crater walls is composed of igneous rock of brilliant color. At other places, snow patches near the steaming lake, made the color scheme better description.

Revelation is beginning on the lower slopes of the mountain and the surrounding mainland after the almost total destruction of all vegetable life in the great eruption of 1912.

Other remarkable eruptive demonstrations were a series of encircling craters and immense masses of material ejected from the main opening. These small craters were explored in detail.

Mr. Griggs was very enthusiastic over the possibilities of scientific study of volcanoes afforded by Katmai.

ALLIED WINGS ARE BENT BACK

Heavy Fighting in Progress Between Bulgarians and the Serbians.

Paris, Aug. 22.—Both allied wings on the Saloniki front, where the soldiers of at least seven nations are in battle, have been bent back by the Bulgarians. In the center, however, where the allies' main force is being made at the entrance to the great Vardar valley, Paris reports important gains.

Nothing is said about the Russian or Italian share in the fighting and no information has been given as to their strength. The Serbians apparently have been the heaviest losers and have been forced back on their extreme left about five miles from the Serbian-Greek frontiers. They claim, however, continued progress on the other sections of their front.

On the allied right the British and French who had crossed the Struma towards the Bulgarian frontier have been forced back on the right.

On the western front there has been little change. The British continue their efforts to surround Thiepval and report the capture of one hundred yards of German trenches in the direction of Martinpuich.

There has been no action of importance on the French sector.

For several days meager Russian reports have insisted that nothing of importance has occurred in the east. Berlin, however, described very heavy fighting, both on the Stokhod and in the Carpathians. An interesting feature of the Russian official statement is the intimation that the Grand Duke Nicholas again is pressing his offensive in the Caucasus. For the last two days Petrograd has emphasized the fighting around Diarbek but no important change has occurred.

There is no news from the Italian front where a lull has existed for several days.

HEIGHTS TAKEN BY THE ALLIES

But Serbians Are Compelled to Give Way to Heavy Bulgarian Forces.

Paris, Aug. 22, 10:30 p. m.—The allies have captured a series of heights west of the Vardar river on the Saloniki front, says a war office statement tonight.

The text of a statement follows: "The battle continued on August 21 on the whole front of the allied armies on the Saloniki line. In the center the British-French forces have violently bombed Bulgarian positions on both sides of Lake Dolran, while our infantry established itself in the southern spurs of the Beles mountains.

"West of the Vardar our troops have occupied a line of heights near Ljumnica and have maintained their positions at all points in spite of violent counter-attacks by the enemy.

"The army has continued its progress in the mountainous zones between the Cerna and Moglenica rivers. On the two wings the enemy, at the cost of very heavy losses, has succeeded in pushing back our advance detachment. On one end of the line the covering detachment which attacked on August 20 west of Seres. Bulgarian forces more than a division in strength, in order to delay their march, has fallen back on the Struma. All the passages of the river are solidly held by the allies. On the extreme left wing the Serbian army, after a very hot battle lasting two days, which was undertaken to retard the advance of the right wing of the Bulgarians, has re-taken its principal defensive position in the neighborhood of Lake Ostrovo."

PRESIDENT WILL CARRY MONTANA

Chicago, Aug. 22.—Stephen A. Cowley, of Great Falls, Montana, visited Senator Walsh at western Democratic national campaign headquarters today and expressed the opinion that President Wilson is certain to carry Montana this fall.

"Recently I made a trip through every section of the state and I found conditions extremely favorable for the Democrats," said Mr. Cowley. "The Democratic party in Montana is united. Mr. Hughes' recent visit to Montana, in my opinion, did not help his cause."

HOUSE REPASSES THE ARMY BILL

Revised Articles of War Omitted—Senate to Change Portions to Suit President.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Without the revised articles of war, of portions of which President Wilson and the war department objected, the house today re-passed the army appropriation bill. The senate is expected to insert an acceptable revision and the house is expected later to accept it. President Wilson vetoed the bill because of portions of the revision.

DIVIDED OPINION AT ST. THOMAS

Chief Foreign Interests Oppose Change—Others See Greater Prosperity Ahead.

St. Thomas, Danish West Indies, August 11.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Opinion on the island of St. Thomas is divided as to the desirability of the transfer of the Danish West Indies to the United States as proposed in the pending treaty between the United States and Denmark. That the chief foreign interests on the island are opposed to the change in sovereignty there seems no doubt, while there is by no means a unanimity of opinion among the inhabitants themselves largely. It appears because of the uncertainty as to what use the harbor of St. Thomas, the island's chief asset, would be put to under the proposed new ownership. Not a little astonishment or resentment is freely expressed because the inhabitants were not consulted by the authorities in Copenhagen before the negotiations had progressed so far.

The fear is widely expressed that if the splendid harbor of St. Thomas were turned into a fortified base in connection with the Panama canal defenses, the development of St. Thomas as a commercial port might be interfered with. Recently a pier 2,000 feet long with large warehouse, coal conveyor, a water supply and other facilities for shipping was constructed by Danish capital at a cost of more than $1,500,000. These and other improvements had been effected in the hope of attracting the large amount of shipping which it was expected would be using the Panama canal.

With the transfer of the island to the Americans it is feared that shipping facilities might be curtailed or perhaps abolished.

Notwithstanding this great feeling of uncertainty and the division of opinion, there are many who think there are great possibilities for improved conditions for St. Thomas, basing their opinion on the reliance that should be placed on the American foresight, pride and business methods would redeem the declining island, benefiting it just as Porto Rico has been benefited.

PERSHING'S MEN ARE FIT FOR ANY ACTION

Field Headquarters American Punitive Expedition, Aug. 21, by radio to Columbus, N. M., Aug. 22.—Warlike efficiency radiated from the ranks of the troops of his command who passed in review today before General J. J. Pershing, leader of the expedition.

"The finest body of men I ever had the pleasure of commanding," declared the general after the last wagon rumbled past, "and fit for any action."

Perfectly drilled and equipped the 5000 men made an impressive spectacle. A picturesque touch was the appearance of the teams of three acolytes, which were led through the morning mist and skimmed just above the moving columns.

NATIONAL CITY BANK ACQUIRES BOND FIRM

New York, Aug. 22.—Formal announcement of the acquisition by the National City company of the assets of the bond firm of N. Y. Halsey & Co. is expected within a day or two. The business of the firm will then be united with that of the bond department of the National City bank and the consolidated organization will be the largest distributor of investment securities in this country.

This transaction is an aftermath of the arrest of Edwin H. Hatch, treasurer of Halsey & Co. on a charge of defrauding the Mutual Trust company of Orange, N. J. The credit of the firm was affected and, although most of the obligations were declared to have been amply secured, it would have been impossible to liquidate this collateral in a short space of time without disturbing financial conditions generally. The firm is said at one time to have owed about $9,000,000, divided among sixteen banks.

The working force of Halsey & Co. will be taken over practically intact by the new owners and all but two of the firm's officers will become connected with the National City company. The Chicago firm of Halsey, Stuart & Co., which is now controlled by H. L. Stuart, and the Halsey firm in San Francisco do not figure in the present deal. In the consolidation will be included the New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Baltimore and Washington offices.

FINANCIERS ARE ULTIMATE AUTHORITY AND MAY BE CALLED ON BY WILSON AS LAST RESORT TO SETTLE WAGE DISPUTE

The president may be forced to act on his suggestion that he would probably appeal to the ultimate authority if the dispute between the railroad brotherhoods and the presidents was not settled. It would seem that the ultimate authority is a group composed of such men as Morgan, Vanderlip, Schiff, Rockefeller and Hill, whose interests would greatly suffer if a strike is called.
