SAN FRANCISCO FACES WALKOUT

Trans-ferry Bay System May Be Tied Up—50,000 Commuters Involved.

San Francisco, Calif., Aug. 31.—This city confident that no real inconvenience through food shortage would be felt even in the event of a prolonged railway strike, contemplates with real concern today the effect of a walkout on the trans-ferry bay system.

Fifty thousand commuters use the ferries daily reaching their work on the other side of electric trains over three routes, two of which are manned by brotherhood tramen, being converted steam roads. Officials of the two latter, the Southern Pacific and the Northwestern Pacific, express confidence that they will be able to operate with non-brotherhood men.

President C. M. Levy of the Western Pacific expressed doubt last night that the strike would be called, but joined with President William Sproule in stating that thorough preparation had been made.

Officials of the Pacific Coast League are considering the feasibility of transferring the Salt Lake City club to Sacramento if the strike interferes with inter-city travel in maintaining the regular schedule. Travel between San Francisco, Portland and Los Angeles can be maintained by steamer.

VATICAN MAY TAKE ACTION

Holy See Considering the Forcing Non-combatants to Work for Germany.

Paris, Aug. 31 6:10 a. m.—The vatican is considering the action of Germany in compelling the inhabitants of the north of France to work in the fields, according to a statement by Cardinal Gasparri, the papal secretary of state, says the Rome correspondent of the Journal. The cardinal declined however, to discuss the status of the question.

Questioned as to the possible resumption of diplomatic relations between France and the Holy See the cardinal said the vatican would be delighted by such an event, but all would depend upon French government and whether that government desired it.

With the re-establishing of status quo all the belligerent would have imperative need for rest for a number of years at least would put an end to international war. Religious peace, he declared, will never be complete in France without a resumption of diplomatic relations with the Holy See. He asserted after the war the points of contact between the civil power and the ecclesiastical power in France not only will disappear but will go on multiplying and he pointed out that a government careful of the French republic will not sacrifice them to "an old fashioned anti-clericalism."

"There are some reasons which I believe give Catholic hope," added the cardinal.

The cardinal referred to the desire of the pope for a peace which shall be just and durable without the oppression of any people and with regard to their aspirations.

"Otherwise there would be no peace or it would not be lasting," concluded the cardinal. "In awaiting this peace the Holy See will maintain absolute impartiality toward the belligerents whatever one may say to the contrary."

FREIGHT RATES ARE SUSPENDED

For the benefit of shippers who had accepted orders for future delivery based on present freight rates, the Interstate Commerce Commission has set the date for the making of the new rates effective ahead to December 30. The postponement was due to protests from the shippers and was decided on at a recent meeting of the commission held in Washington, D. C.

News of the decision reached Ogdenville yesterday in a telegram to General Agent W. H. Chevers of the Union Pacific from C. J. Lane, general freight agent of the Union Pacific, with headquarters at Omaha. The telegram follows:

"W. H. Chevers: East and west-bound transcontinental rates advance published to become effective September 1 have been suspended by commission to December 30."

Salt Lake, Aug. 31.—Mrs. James Manning of Leavenworth, Kan., testified yesterday in the habeas corpus proceedings before Judge G. G. Armstrong.

For possession of Phyllis Mabel Greenland, that she is the mother of the child claimed by Francis Greenland as his and denied to him by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Burkhardt. Her story corroborated that of the Burkhardts, grand-parents of Phyllis Mabel, going to show that the child living with the Burkhardts is not the Greenland child, but one adopted by the couple from the orphans' home and day nursery at Leavenworth.

Greenland contends that the Burkhardts, grand-parents of his daughter, kept his child and turned over to him a child from the orphans' home with the intention of deceiving him and thereby keeping possession of their grand-daughter. Mrs. Manning, however, positively identified the child adopted by the Burkhardts as hers. She claimed that she had placed her daughter in the orphans' home that she might be free to work and earn her own living.

The court will resume hearing in the case today in an effort to determine which of the two children is Phyllis Mabel Greenland, daughter of Francis Greenland and grand-daughter of the Burkhardts. As the case stands now, all concerned are claiming the child under the guardianship of the Burkhardts, while no one appears to want the other little girl, who the Burkhardts say, is the real Phyllis Mabel, but who the father denounces as being foisted upon him.

DEMONSTRATION FOR THE GERMANS

London, Aug. 31.—Premier Zaimis, neutralist head of King Constantine's ministry, has announced his decision to resign, according to a despatch from Athens to the Daily Telegraph. The intervention of Rumania in the war and the grave consequences of that intervention by Greece on the side of the entente. Rumors of a ministerial shakeup also are reported by the Reuter agency, which hints that former Premier Venizelos, the pro-entente leader, probably will be included in the reorganized cabinet.

Following the shakeup by which General Moschopoulos, commander at Saloniki and a friend of the entente, became chief of staff of the Greek army, a Central News despatch from Athens announces that the entire general staff has resigned.

The anti-Venizelists are making their last stand. Great demonstrations are being made in favor of continued neutrality, following closely on the heels of the tremendous demonstration accorded the ex-premier last Sunday.

Yesterday 20,000 persons took part in a great demonstration at which three former premiers, Stephen Dragomiris, D. G. Rhalis and M. Gounaris, made speeches. All urged the people to support King Constantine and the government. The three ex-premiers have long been regarded as neutral, with a slight pro-German leaning. Yesterday's meeting was violently anti-Venizelists.

Meanwhile, the Greeks at Saloniki were holding a meeting urging that the demands enumerated by Venizelos be pressed upon the government. These demands included a benevolent neutrality toward the entente and renunciation, with the ultimate view of aiding the allies.

The former Serbian premier, M. Pasicich, has arrived at Saloniki.

YOUNG MACHINIST IN SHAFT OF WAGON IS DRIVEN THROUGH MAN'S HEART

AN AUTO SHOP IS BURNED

Salt Lake, Aug. 31.—Tribune: Emmett Staten, 33 years of age, living at 19 Denver court, was killed at 4:50 o'clock yesterday afternoon in a motorcycle accident on the corner of Fourth West and Fourth South streets.

Staten was driving south on Fourth West street. S. Pallidoro, a driver for the Western Macaroni factory was driving north. A man with a wheel-barrow started to cross Fourth street and the horse driven by Pallidoro, shied.

Unable to avoid a collision, Staten struck the shaft of the delivery wagon. The shaft entered his body directly through the heart. He died almost instantly.

Walter Jackson, 26 years of age, who was riding tandem with Staten, was thrown to the ground. He escaped with only a few scratches.

Staten was on the way to the Hercules powder factory at Bacchus, where he had been employed.

Staten came to Utah eight years ago from Oak Hill, W. Va. He was married and had a daughter, Fay, who is 6 years of age. Other than his widow and daughter, he has no relatives known to his widow or friends.

The autopsy was conducted by Dr. W. Scott Keyting. The widow is without relatives.

S. Pallidoro, driver of the delivery wagon, was taken before J. Parley White, chief of police. On word of witnesses on hand the instant the accident occurred, Pallidoro was allowed to go to his home at 461 South Second street. It was decided that the death of Staten came through an unavoidable accident.

FIRE DESTROYS A GROCERY STORE

The grocery and fruit store of Paul Strevay, at 2001 Washington avenue, was virtually destroyed by fire at 12:30 o'clock last night. The flames were first seen by neighbors who sent an alarm to the fire department.

When the fire fighters arrived on the scene, the interior of the store was ablaze and, though the flames were extinguished within ten minutes, only the frame of the building was left standing. The store was a one-story frame structure and, with the stock, which was also a complete loss, was valued at from $1200 to $2000.

Strevay and his family were in Salt Lake last night, having gone there yesterday morning to attend an Italian reunion at Saltair.

RAILROAD MEN ARE TO GATHER IN SALT LAKE

Salt Lake, August 31.—Members of the four railroad transportation brotherhoods packed Eagles' hall to their capacity last night to hear an address by A. Phillips of Cleveland, Ohio, second vice president of the national organization of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

Mr. Phillips participated in many of the conferences in the east between the representatives of the brotherhoods and the representatives of the railroad managers. His talk last night was confined to the action taken during the conferences by the brotherhood representatives and why such action was taken.

Other talks were made by members of the local lodges of the brotherhoods. The organizations represented were the Order of Railway Conductors, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Enginemen and Firemen and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. The meeting was open only to members of the brotherhoods.

Practically all the members in attendance deplored the fact that a nationwide strike seemed imminent, but asserted that they deemed the offer made by national representatives as fair and its refusal on the part of the railroad managers left no course open except to strike.

Another meeting of members of the brotherhoods and their wives is scheduled for tonight in the Knights of Pythias hall, over the Broadway theater. Mr. Phillips is expected to remain in the city today and address the meeting tonight. Ogdenville members of the brotherhoods have been invited to participate in tonight's meeting, and between 300 and 400 Ogdenville are expected to come to Salt Lake by special train over the Salt Lake-Ogden Interurban. The special train is scheduled to leave Ogden at 6 o'clock and leave Salt Lake on the return trip at the close of the meeting.
