BRIGHAM CITY MEN ON A TRIP TO LOGAN

Brigham City, Sept. 5.—A large number of Commercial club members and business men of this city will go to Logan this afternoon in response to an invitation extended them by the Boosters club of Logan. The outing will be strictly one of pleasure and get-acquainted.

This is the second of a series of get-together meetings held by the two clubs, which have for their chief object that of keeping in closer touch with each other and a closer relationship between the business men of Brigham and Logan.

The program at Logan this afternoon included an auto drive up Logan canyon and to other places of interest in the city and then to the Boosters club where speeches and musical numbers will be heard.

The trip to Logan was made in automobiles.

Photograph to be taken before and after cultivation. First prize, $7.00; second prize, $5.00; third prize, $3.00; (Any school, family, organization or individual may enter).—Given by Ogden Publicity bureau.

First, Ernest Kammeyer, 3541 Woodlawn avenue; second, Ernest Carr, Power House, Twelfth street; third, David Rawson, 1727 Gibson avenue.

The Civic League is indebted to the Press, Mr. Skinner of the Alhambra theatre for the admission of the League of Goodcitizenship prize winners to the special censored children's matinee Saturday, September 9 at 2 o'clock, by presentations of certificate signed by the Civic league, Mr. Fred Massa, the Board of Education, Ogden Publicity bureau and the Women's clubs for the aid in financing the campaign.

The committee in charge of the exhibit are Mrs. Fred G. Clark, Mrs. Douglas Watson, Mrs. John W. Wintle, Mrs. Dennis J. Sheehan, Mrs. George W. Watson, Mrs. Sherman S. Smith.

We will resume our regular meetings Wednesday evening, September 6. All members are earnestly requested to be present as important business will come up.

FRED E. WILLIAMS.
