Oaks Have the Bees On the Toboggan--Take Wild One By 12 to 2 Score

Salt Lake Bees Are Swamped by Oakland Hughes and Schinkle on Mound for Bees

SAN FRANCISCO, May 31.—The Bees were slaughtered at Oakland today, losing 12 to 2. Young Schinkle started, but he was wild and ineffective and he tossed in a wild throw that helped to beat him. He was relieved in the fifth by "Long Tom" Hughes, so that Bill Bernhard robbed the cradle and the grave trying to get a pitcher to stop the fast-flying Oaks.

Hack Biller hurt himself sliding to second in the sixth inning, so Middleton moved back to right field and Adams went to first. Adams was up only once, so he struck out only once. The betting now is that Warren will not even get a foul when he comes to bat.

Billy Lane stole four bases and perished trying to steal home. He was laughing so hard that he got out of his stride and Rath tossed him out. Eddie Mensor played a wonderful game, twice going back of first base and scooping grounders in time to retire the batsmen.

Sheehan made a backhanded stab while on the full run that took a line hit away from Tobin and in general the Oaks acted like a championship team.

After the second inning, the Bees were so far behind that they wanted to get things over as quickly as possible. The score:

WOODMEN OF WORLD SUBSCRIBE FOR LIBERTY BOND

Weber camp No. 74, Woodmen of the World, gave concrete evidence of its loyalty last night by subscribing $1000 for the purchase of liberty bonds and voting to free from dues and assessments all members of the lodge who are to engage in the military or naval service of the country during the present war.

Nearly 100 members of the camp attended the meeting, at which Deputy Consul J. J. Hoover of Denver, Robert W. Runyell, district manager, of Salt Lake, and Brigadier Ridel of Salt Lake were present. These visitors and several of the local lodge officers addressed the meeting.

Deputy Consul Hoover explained the new ritual of the order and made an inspiring patriotic address. He stated among other things, that the head camp of the order has already subscribed for $100,000 worth of liberty loan bonds and urged the local lodge to demonstrate its patriotism in a similar way, to as great a degree as its finances would allow.

ANGELS LOSE ONE TO SAN FRANCISCO

After Taking Eight in a Row Chancemen Bow Down to Seals 6 to 1.

LOS ANGELES, May 31.—Just an life was getting to be just one winning game under the amling Angels today up and lost one to San Francisco, 6 to 1. Plainly they had weakened under the strain of taking eight in a row. Between war, pestilence and Eric Erickson, they were strictly up against it.

The viking went the full nine innings under his own steam and breezed home so far in front that the score looked lopsided. With a few exceptions, he pitched the eyeballs off our athletes. Among the exceptions were Gus Gleichmann, who was emitting a subdued glow in the grandstand; Zeb Terry, who was pursuing a watchful waiting policy in the dugout; and Jacques Fournier, who has not yet arrived. These athletes were safe from Eric's speed, curves and other diabolical devices.

Bradley W. Hogg, who is a late starter, made the mistake of starting in the first inning, which is too early. Once started, he made the mistake of staying until the second inning, which was too late. About the only time they didn't hit Bradley was when he threw to second base. To make matters worse, his support gunned the landscape.

His royal niblets, Bill Kenworthy, who is running the club during Chance's illness, hesitated to adopt a radical policy of changing pitchers without talking it over with the P. L. However, public opinion expressed in loud yelps of disapproval compelled him to take the step. The score:

STYMIE QUESTION TO BE DECIDED. CHICAGO, May 31.—The Women's Western Golf association's board of governors will decide whether the stymie shall be abolished in conformance with the new ruling of the Western Golf association, it was announced tonight by the secretary, Miss Edith E. Packard.

The woman's association has received several inquiries on the subject as to whether coming tournaments should be played with the stymie rule in force.

The Women's Western Golf association is independent of the Western Golf association and also of the United States Golf association, but has held its tournaments under the rules of both bodies which had been uniform until the western golf association recently announced a new definition of an amateur and abolished the stymie. The board of governors is expected to meet soon.

WEIRD GAME IS WON BY BEAVERS

Every Pitcher Has an Off Day in Game Between Vernon and Portland—Score 11-10.

PORTLAND, May 31.—All of the five pitchers used in today's game between Vernon and Portland must have been thinking of June 5, from the exhibition of pitching they gave here. The game, which was the weirdest, wildest exhibition seen here in many a day, resulted in a Portland victory, 11 to 10.

A mere mention of the score doesn't half tell the story. There was everything contributed to make a ball game what it should not be, with the majority of the unfavorable comments being aimed toward the pitchers. All of them had an off day.

Chief Johnson started against Penner, and it looked like an easy victory for the no-hit hero, as the visitors pounded Penner for three runs in the first three frames. Farmer, who had a batting bee with two homers and a double, all of them coming when needed, secured the first of his circuit drives in the fourth and Portland tied it up in the fifth. Not content with this, after the Beavers had taken a one-run lead in the sixth, Farmer came up with the bases loaded in the seventh and again drilled the leather into the left field bleachers. This five-run lead wasn't enough to win, however, as Penner went bad in the eighth and Honck, who succeeded him, fared no better. Before the side was retired Vernon had secured six runs, making the score stand 9 to 8.

The Tigers gathered another in the ninth with Helrich in the box, but Quinn, who had worked through the eighth, found himself up against the real thing in the ninth, when Hollocher singled, Farmer doubled, while Fisher and Pinelli, batting for Helrich, also singled, breaking up the game.

Manager George Stovall today wired President Darnody of the Vernon club, asking him to get President Baum's permission to allow Vernon to play two games with Oakland at Oakland and San Francisco on Tuesday, which is a national holiday, or to go on through to Los Angeles and play morning and afternoon games with San Francisco on that date. It would be necessary for the Sunday game to be started here at 1 o'clock if Vernon went through to Los Angeles. If this permission isn't granted, Vernon will not be able to play Tuesday with the Seals at Los Angeles as scheduled.

HERE ARE COLLEGE BASEBALL STARS FOR BIG LEAGUE SCOUTS TO LOOK OVER

Dasha at bat and de Graf catching.

Baseball is coming to be the chief sport at Wellesley and almost every girl who has the time is trying for the team. If baseball becomes as great a hit at other girls' colleges as it is at Wellesley, baseball games between the schools will not be unusual affairs. Miss Jane de Graf is the school's best catcher and she doesn't "throw like a girl" when she pegs to second. And Esther Dasha is a hard hitter who can slam the ball on the nose.

Kearns Plans Battle Between Willard and Carl Morris—May Be at Reno

NEW YORK, June 2.—There will be at least one more big championship fight before summer is over if Jack Kearns has his way.

The hustling San Francisco promoter—youngest of the fight impresarios—is working on a proposition to get Jess Willard in the ring for a twenty-round battle with Carl Morris or some other heavyweight, and he hopes to stage the affair at Reno or Tia Juana.

At this writing Willard is on his tour with a circus, and Morris is getting ready for his muss with Frank Moran in New York. But after the Morris-Moran fight is over there will be reason for the fight public to look forward to another battle for the championship on American soil, particularly if Morris wins. And to say the least, the time seems ripe for it.

A battle for the heavyweight crown over the championship distance would be welcomed by the boxing fans. The last battle of championship caliber was the Johnson-Flynn fiasco at Las Vegas, and it did not amount to much. The Johnson-flynn fall at Reno, then, was in reality the last big battle between heavyweights that had the earmarks of a real argument, and that was almost seven years ago.

FABRIQUE, A FLASH IN EARLY GAMES, NOW WARMS ROBINS' BENCH A WHILE

Lavern Fabrique. Although he played a very fast game through the early part of the season, Lavern Fabrique, the Brooklyn Robins' shortstop recruit, has had both a batting and fielding slump lately and has been replaced by the vet Ivan Olson. Olson has seized the chance to make a great showing and has been fielding and batting so prettily that he may be at short for the Robins for some while.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS. At New York—Detroit 2, New York 0. At Boston—Cleveland 1, Boston 5. Only two games scheduled.

BOSTON WINS EASILY. BOSTON, May 31.—The Mays defeated Cleveland, 5 to 1, before 10,000 fans and President Ban Johnson of the American league here today. Johnson made a trip here especially to see Mays work his underhand delivery in hops of detecting the "bean ball."

The hitting of Walker and Lewis featured. Gardner made an unusually brilliant play at third base in the fifth when he caught a ball hit by Speaker off the bag and made a force out on the man coming to third, retiring the inning. The score: Cleveland 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0-1. Boston 0 0 0 1 0 3 0 1-5.

SPENCER BIG FACTOR IN GAME. NEW YORK, May 31.—The New York Americans opened a long home stay here today by losing to Detroit by a score of 3 to 0. Willie Mitchell was an enigma to the Yankee batters, and kept the local hits well scattered. Veach and Spencer collaborated on both Detroit runs. Spencer scoring both in the first and second inning and with a single in the sixth. Both sides played a brilliant fielding game. The score: Detroit 0 1 0 0 0 1 0 0-2. New York 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0.

PITTSBURG WINS ONE. PITTSBURG, May 31.—Pittsburg defeated Philadelphia today in the opening game of the series by a score of 3 to 2, it being the first victory of the year for Mameaux. He was wild at times, and in the eighth inning with two men on and one out, he was relieved by Jacobs. A fast double play stopped the imminent rally of the visitors. The latter bunched their errors in the second inning, when Pittsburg scored two runs on hits by Hinchman, Brief and Ward and errors by Bancroft, Cooper and Stock. Their third run was scored in the third inning on Hinchman's pass, Brief's hit by pitched ball and McCarthy's single on a passed ball. Luderus and singles by Niehoff and Killifer, and another in the fifth on Whitted's single and a triple by Luderus. The score: Philadelphia 0 0 0 1 1 0 0 0-2. Pittsburg 0 0 2 1 0 0 0 0-3.

WHO ARE THE VETERANS OF BASEBALL?

The veterans of baseball, who are they? Nine out of ten fans will name Plank, Frank Schulte, Leon Ames, Sam Crawford and Johnny Evers and will stop.

Somehow or other Terry Turner is not often thought of as a veteran. Even in the winter fanning bees when baseball obituaries are being written the little cotton-topped third baseman from Cleveland is usually neglected.

Yet Turner is one of the veterans of the league. Also he is one of the real stars of the game and has been for a dozen years. But there is something about Terry which prevents him from being considered as a real veteran.

For fourteen years Turner has been inflicting at Cleveland. He played his shortsap alongside of the incomparable Lajoie for several years. Most of perhaps the most remarkable thing about Turner is his even-tempered disposition, which did not allow even the nerve-racking internal dissension on the Cleveland club to throw him off his stride.

For a dozen odd years Turner has been the anchor of the Cleveland club. For that period he has been one of the really great infielders of the league. He has never been rated as a great hitter, but in thirteen years in the league he has batted for a grand average of more than .260—very good for an infielder.

Last year Turner turned in his thirty-fourth milestone, a ripe old age in baseball. Yet in forty-two games at second base he fielded a trifle better than Eddie Collins, and in seventy-seven games at third was only one point lower than Oscar Vitt, leading third sacker of the league.
