MOTION PICTURES OF UTAH SCENES

Motion pictures taken at the Utah state capitol grounds in Salt Lake during the presentation of "Creation," which were taken by the Ogden Pictures corporation, are being shown this week in the Universal Weekly, a part of the Orpheum program. The pictures give a most beautiful scenic effect with the capitol, its lawn and the mountain background, besides showing the thousands of people taking part in the musical event and listening to the program.

When presented at the theatre last evening this part of the picture program brought a burst of applause.

INFILDER RELEASED.
CLEVELAND, June 1.—R. P. Miller, utility infilder, was released outright today by the Cleveland American league club to the Oakland club of the Pacific Coast league.

Daily dancing at Glenwood Park postponed until further notice on account of weather conditions and improvement.

WELLESLEY GIRLS HEAR THEIR COUNTRY'S CALL AND DRILL

Company of Wellesley girls in military drill on college campus. More than 1,000 members of Wellesley college, including faculty and students, have enlisted for military drill, which is part of the mobilization plan adopted by the college. The "rookies" have been divided into six companies—faculty, seniors, juniors, sophomores, freshmen and hygiene department. They drill every Monday afternoon.

TORNADO SWEEPS SOUTHERN TOWNS

Three Persons Killed in Path of Storm in South Central Oklahoma.

LINDSEY DEVASTATED

Death Toll Growing in South-eastern Missouri and Southern Illinois.

ARDMORE, Okla., June 1.—Three persons were killed near Marietta, Okla., town ten miles south of here, last night in a tornado that swept south central Oklahoma.

Stricken by Tornado.
GAINESVILLE, Tex., June 1.—Lindsey, a small town six miles west of this city, is reported to have been devastated by a tornado which struck here last night. The path of the storm took in Gainesville, which suffered considerable damage. Fallen wires have delayed communication with the stricken districts.

Death Toll Growing.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 1.—The death toll of the tornado that swept through several counties in southeastern Missouri and southern Illinois Wednesday grew to seventy-nine last night, according to scattered reports reaching here over crippled wires. Hundreds were injured and are homeless but relief work has been prompt and it is not believed much suffering aside from injuries, has resulted.

Relief for Storm Area.
Two carloads of clothing and food were sent into the storm area from St. Louis and relief funds started by St. Louis newspapers already total almost $4000. Towns nearby those that suffered from the storm rushed aid as quickly as the conditions of the roads would permit. Automobiles were stalled frequently, not only by mud and water, but by trees which had been uprooted or twisted off and thrown across the road. The property damage is conservatively estimated at several million dollars. Crops suffered severely from the wind and were beaten down and torn by a heavy hail fall.

Bollinger County Heaviest Loser.
Bollinger county evidently was the heaviest loser. At Zalma in this county at least twenty-five persons lost their lives and as many as 200 were hurt, according to a telegram received by the Globe-Democrat from a correspondent at Marble Hill.

Wayne county reported fourteen dead, with the storm centering near Chaonia. Other towns hard hit were Mineral Point, Ardeola, Aquilla, Salem, Lenoir, Dargola, Advance, Bismarck and Houston.

Southern Illinois reported four dead, all negroes. Telegraph and telephone poles and wires were demolished and confirmation of rumors of casualties in other sections was impossible. Details drifted into towns out of the storm path but slowly. Some of the sections are still isolated and several days may elapse before complete details of the havoc can be accurately known.

HOW ITALY LENT AID TO FRENCH

Neutrality Declaration at Outbreak of War Released Half-million French Soldiers.

ALSO RELIEVED RUSSIA

Without Italy's Action the Germans Would Undoubtedly Have Entered Paris.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—How Italy's action helped France throw back the Germans at the Marne and also weakened the German-Austro offensive on Russia was detailed today by Augusto Cuffelli, former minister of public works and now a member of the Italian war mission. In both cases, he said, Italy's attitude was most decisive.

"Upon Italy's declaration of neutrality at the outbreak of the war," said Mr. Cuffelli, "France was able to withdraw 500,000 men from our frontier to throw them across the German path before Paris. At that time France was pressed for trained men and for supplies and the British army was not yet mobilized. Without Italy's action the Germans would probably have entered Paris."

"Similarly, Italy's actual entrance into the war in May, 1915, tremendously aided the retreating and disorganized Russian armies and created such a diversion as to save Russia from being reduced to impotence. Again Italy's action was decisive.

Italy Not for Conquest.
"If Italy had been inspired by the lust of conquest she could easily have joined with Germany, whose victory would have been tremendously facilitated by her intervention. But Italy could not make herself a party to the aggression of Austria upon Serbia or aid in a war featured by the invasion of Belgium. Italy could not join the two imperial dynasties which dreamed of world domination on the principle that might makes right."

"Italy's sacrifice in this war has been almost staggering. We now have 4,000,000 men under arms. Our front is 540 kilometers long, greater than the whole French and Belgian front. Every yard we have conquered has cost us terribly.

Heavy Guns on Peaks.
"Some of our heavy guns are fighting from an elevation of over two miles, on peaks 9000 feet high. Our roads and supply lines in many cases have been cut through solid ice. A whole new human center has been built up in the most inaccessible part of the Alps.

"This must be the last war. Nations cannot in the future squander all their money on military preparedness. The new spirit we make us live together in the ideals of peace and justice. Italy is eager to take her place in a new world organized for peace just as on a smaller scale at the Algeiras conference she made possible the international agreement on Morocco."

NORTH OGDEN WILL HAVE 50 RECRUITS

NORTH OGDEN, June 1.—Memorial day was appropriately observed in North Ogden with impressive services held on the cemetery grounds under the direction of Bishop Frederick Barker of the North Ogden ward, assisted by Bishop R. T. Rhees of the Pleasant View ward. The music was furnished by the North Ogden brass band and the rendition of a number of quartets by Charles W. Ellis, Arthur G. Berrett, Clarence M. Barker and Gilbert Randall. Invocation was offered by Reuben T. Rhees.

Services for the Grand Army of the Republic were conducted by Comrade Temple Short, assisted by his visiting comrades. Flowers were strewn on the graves of veterans in the following order: Calvin H. Chandler and Robert G. Scott of the Civil war and Jonathan Campbell and Edward Wade, Mexican war veterans. An address of exceptional merit was delivered by Harvey Taylor of Pleasant View.

Over half a hundred will respond from this town on next Tuesday to their nation's call to register for service in its defense, but many no doubt will be lawfully exempted by reason of physical defects, families solely dependent upon them and some few perhaps by being engaged directly in highly productive occupations.

John Q. Blaylock was pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening by the sudden swooping down upon him of his graduates from the county school, complimenting him by their presence for getting through the largest class in the county and that they were among the fortunate ones to step onto a higher plane in education. The graduates were Eva Mary Ferrin, Marguerite Rogers, Clair Edward Brown, Jennie Randall, Raymond Hubert Ward, Ellen Caroline Toone, Myrtle Grace Montgomery, Lottie Chadwick, Solomon Grant Shupe, Margaret Thelma Hill, Robert Arthur Montgomery, Mary Maurine Storey, Della Margaret Roylance, Horace Lyman Barker, Verna Nancy Randall, Elizabeth Brown, Daniel Earl Staley, Leland Wallace Gibson and Percy Edward Randall.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hughes are happy over the arrival to bless their home of a handsome eight-pound baby boy on May 28. The mother was formerly Miss Mary M. Berrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Berrett.

Hyrum E. Judkins of North Ogden and Miss Edith Covens of Ogden were married Thursday in the temple.

NOW--RIGHT NOW

THIRD OF REGIMENT TO BE DRAWN FROM THIS CITY

With three enlistments and the establishment of a new recruiting station for the Utah national guard, organization of the third troop of Ogden cavalry was actively started this morning. The first three recruits were John Ira Davis, Thomas F. Williams and Walter H. Hadlock, who signed the roster of the new troop last evening.

Lieutenant J. E. Farley, who has been stationed at the armory, opened the new recruiting office in the Ogden Electric Supply store this morning. He was busy during the morning in making preparations for active recruiting work. The recruiting office in the armory will be continued under direction of Major W. E. Kneass and other guard officers.

Thomas F. Williams is superintendent of the Third ward Sunday school, a member of the Tabernacle service committee and a returned Swiss-German missionary.

John Ira Davis, who is also a returned missionary from the eastern states, is prominent in Sunday school work.

Walter H. Hadlock is employed in the city engineer's office and was a member of Troop B when on the Mexican border. His enlistment recently expired and he re-enlisted in the new troop.

Major Kneass is optimistic that the state draft law will not be necessary in Ogden. About 120 more recruits from the city will fill the three troops and practically give Ogden's completed quota to the national guard. This will bring 315 men into the state service from this city, each troop being recruited to full war strength of 105 men.

To stimulate interest in the new troop, a committee of the national guard was named last evening and is today arranging for the smoker to be given Monday evening, at the armory. All young men are invited to attend this event, when there will be a special program of athletic events and several patriotic addresses. Opportunity will be given during the evening to enlist either in Troop K, which needs fourteen more troopers, or in the new troop, the initial of which has not yet been given by the adjutant general.

MRS. S. M. WOOLF IS CALLED BY DEATH

Mrs. S. M. Woolf, wife of Bishop Woolf of the Metropolis, Nev., ward of the North Weber stake of the Mormon church, died yesterday afternoon at the family home. This news was contained in a telegram received this morning by Larkin & Sons, undertakers of Ogden, and it was also announced.

OFFICERS ENGAGE IN SPANISH RIOT

Participate With Soldiers at Barcelona and Are Locked Up in Fortress.

MADRID, June 1, via Paris, 4:50 a. m.—Disorders participated in by soldiers have occurred in Barcelona. Several officers have been imprisoned in the fortress.

When reports of the disorders became current here, the minister of war was questioned and confirmed the fact and furnished the additional information that a number of officers had been locked up in the Montjuich fortress adjoining Barcelona.

According to later news, these officers include a colonel, a lieutenant colonel, a major, a captain and two lieutenants.

ed that the funeral would be held Sunday afternoon in the Metropolis ward meeting house. Interment will be in Metropolis.

The decedent was particularly well known by the North Weber stake presidency and stake board members, who visited at the bishop's home while attending to church matters in Nevada, and it is said by them that in her death the community in which she lived has lost a valued and well-loved member. Her death was due to tuberculosis.

MANY STRIKES BEING PLANNED

More Than 120 Largest Factories in Petrograd Plan to Paralyze War Output.

LONDON, June 1, 1:14 p. m.—Strikes or other measures to paralyze production have been decided upon in more than 120 of the largest factories in Petrograd, most of which are engaged in war work, Reuter's Petrograd correspondent telegraphs.

After the failure of efforts of the conciliation board to reach an agreement on any points, the staffs of the factories resolved to strike or alternatively to paralyze work by carrying out all regulations to the letter. The time and form of strikes are to be decided in each factory separately.

In some cases the strike already has begun, while in others the staffs are busily enlisting the support of the workers.

According to the Novaya Zhizn, Maxim Gorky's paper, the demands of the workers include a six-hour day and a minimum wage for women of 150 rubles monthly.

Strike Movement Waning.
PARIS, June 1.—The strike movement in Paris is now on the wane. Of forty classes of working people that were out on strike yesterday, twenty-one have obtained satisfaction for their demands and will return to work today. Only twelve new trades, on the other hand, joined in the strike movement.
