

FADS and FASHIONS WOMAN'S PAGE HOUSEHOLD HELPS

THE TABLE

Near Possum—The cheaper cuts of good, fresh pork may be used for this savory dish. Run two pounds of pork with a little fat through the meat grinder and add two-thirds of a teaspoon each of minced parsley, onion, sage, black pepper and grated nutmeg. Soften two cupsful of bread crumbs by covering them with equal parts of hot milk and water; then squeeze them dry, add to the meat and mix well, adding one lightly beaten egg and one teaspoon of salt. Shape the mixture in loaf form, lay in a greased baking pan and bake in a hot oven for half an hour. Baste occasionally with a little hot water or soup stock. At the end of the half hour lay around the meat parboiled peeled sweet potatoes and bake for three-quarters of an hour longer, or until both meat and potatoes are well browned.

Potato Biscuit—This gives a delicious hot breakfast bread and at the same time saves the wheat flour. Put freshly cooked peeled potatoes through the ricer and add half a cupful of milk, one scant teaspoon of salt and two tablespoons of melted oleomargarine. Beat until very light, and when slightly cooled add equal parts of wheat flour and cornstarch, mixed with two teaspoons of baking powder, to form a soft dough. Handle as little as possible, roll out quickly and bake on a warmed griddle, lightly brushed over with oleomargarine.

Mock Scramble—Prepare an ordinary cornmeal mush, one quart quantity, having it rather thick. Cook in the upper part of a double boiler, and just before removing from the fire stir in half a teaspoon of beef extract of two bouillon cubes. Have in readiness four slices of boiled bacon that have been finely chopped and half a cup of nut meats that have been passed through the meat grinder (use the nut knife); add these also to the mush and pour into a square mold, set in a cold place to chill, and when firm unmold, slice and fry. This is one of the best meat substitutes and forms a particularly tempting and nutritious relish for breakfast.

Mock Meat Cakes—Soak half cup dried peas in water overnight. Cook until thick. Boil and mash live medium-sized potatoes. Mix with peas and one-half cup grated cheese, one-tablespoon melted bacon fat. Season and when cold make into cakes, dip in corn meal and fry. Will serve six.

Pumpkin Pie Without Milk and Eggs—To each cup stewed pumpkin add one teaspoon cornstarch, pinch of salt, two and one-half tablespoons sugar, one cup water, one dash cinnamon and one-fourth teaspoon ginger. Place pumpkin and water on stove, let come to a boil. Dissolve the cornstarch in a little cold water, stir in, let boil a few minutes, add seasoning. Line pie pan with rich crust and fill with pumpkin. Sprinkle a pinch of allspice over top and bake to a nice brown.

CHICKEN IN JELLY

A little cold chicken (about one pint), one cup of water, or stock, one-fifth of a box of gelatin, half teaspoon curry powder, salt and pepper.

Cut meat from bones of a chicken left from dinner. Put bones on with water to cover and boil down in one cupful. Put gelatin to soak in one-quarter cup cold water. When stock is reduced as much as necessary, strain and season, add curry and chicken, season and simmer 10 minutes, then add gelatin and stir until dissolved; turn all into a mold and let harden. This makes a nice relish for tea or lunch. To serve: Dip mold in warm water and turn out on dish; garnish with parsley.

FASHIONS AND FADS

There are long narrow muffs that resemble a stovepipe. Many of the new small hats turn abruptly off the face. Long scarfs of wool muffle the throat of fashionable women. Many of the new dresses have skirts that simulate trousers. Red is said to be the favored color for the coming spring. Black, brown and taupe are the preferred colors for veils. A coat of green velvet trimmed with kolinsky is attractive. Fringes for evening wraps are made of silk or slashed cloth. In many cases the fashionable dresses have one-sided collars. Very plain frocks may have collars and cuffs of brilliant stuff. Veils are a very important feature of the smart street outfit. Crystal buttons are a pretty trimming for the velvet dress. A very simple narrow girdle is tied in a butterfly bow in front. Fur-trimmed garments have rarely been richer or more beautiful. Cheap fur—especially if dyed—is neither economical nor beautiful. Hat, muff and scarf of jersey cloth in bright colors are very smart. Women of the best taste prefer dark colors for their separate waists.

ELKS' SHOW PLEASURES LARGE AUDIENCE AT ORPHEUM

Ogden lodge, No. 719, Benevolent Order of Elks, added a new and lustrous chapter to its annual last night by presenting "The Whirl of Mirth" to a capacity audience at the Orpheum theater.

The show was produced under the personal direction of Charles H. Lewis, one of the most competent dramatic directors in the entire west. The cast was an all-star combination and the music, songs, dancing and other features were given with an excellence and attention to art that has excelled any former local talent effort.

Because every number was exceedingly good, it is impossible to particularize. Each member of the company met full expectations of friends and merited the applause and encores. It is boasted that Ogden has supplied greater dramatic talent to the professionals than any city of similar size in the United States—last night's production of "The Whirl of Mirth" proves the reason.

Miss Ruth Winter was given an ovation when she appeared to sing "Blue Bird." Her singing so pleased the big crowd that she responded to an enthusiastic encore by dancing the "Hula-Hula," a Hawaiian classic. Miss Winter was followed by Miss Ethel Bowns and Elwood Pearson, who sang "I Wasn't Born to be Lonesome" and captured the house.

"The Dawn of the Witch" was delightfully sung by Miss Mildred Ware. Miss Ware's performance of last evening indicates a natural voice, which has been carefully and properly trained.

Miss Fay King and Maurice Conroy sang "I've Got the Nicest Little Girl in Dixie," and immediately became favorites with the audience.

"Do What You Mother Did," given by Miss Dolly Reeder and Miss Alice Peterson, struck the popular chord and received one of the heartiest encores of the evening's program.

Theron Jones sang "Long Boy," danced so as to adequately environ and emphasize the song; supported a uniform and otherwise presented a genuine treat.

Louis Boyle, supported by a troupe of Hawaiian specialists, led a dancing and song hit. His bevy of helpers, attractively and appropriately costumed, included Miss Leona Revor, Miss Athleen Revor, Miss Esther Seppich, Miss Helen Rich, Miss Elizabeth Seppich and Maurice Conroy and Elwood Pearson.

Mrs. Agnes Warner and Miss Leslie Saville gave a charming duet, "I May be Gone for a Long Time." They were attired as a Red Cross nurse and an American soldier boy and received the glad hand from their hearers.

Robert Greenwell and Walter Stephens were accorded a genuine welcome upon their appearance. Mr. Greenwell sang "My Sunshine Jane" and did it in his usual pleasing manner. He was assisted by Jed Ballantyne, "An Old Fashioned Girl" was the particular vehicle in which Mr. Stephens again rode into the hearts of the Ogden folk.

THE FUNNY MEN.

Harold Packer, W. D. W. Zeller, George Glen and Carl Allison put over the funny stuff in a way that the initiated would have guessed they were professionals and drawing down 1000 simoleons per week. "I Sent My Wife to the Thousand Isles" and "It Takes a Long Tall Brown Skinned Gal to Make a Preacher Lay His Bible Down;" "I Don't Think I Need a Job That Bad;" "Somebody's Done Me Wrong;" and "What's the Use of Anything" were their song hits.

Another number of especial interest was that in which Mrs. Gertrude Spencer and Miss Sadie Peterson starred as blackface experts. They used "Listen to the Knitting Club" and "Then Doggone Triffin Blues" were utilized as musical cards and they registered perfect for the trip. Miss Helen Cole, Miss Helen Rich, Miss Leona Revor, Miss Esther Seppich, Miss Elizabeth Seppich and Miss Athleen Revor contributed greatly to the success of the number.

Others who did decidedly well and helped make the show a pronounced success were Miss May Porterfield and C. O. Dewolf, Misses Julia Moyes, Della Tracy, Sue Smith, Edna Mowson, Vera Jones, Joseph Cornelius, Peter Fernelius, Arvid Nylander and Albin Johnson. More detailed comment of their talent will be included the criticism of tonight's production.

And tonight's production is the one that the whole population want to witness. If possible, it will be even livelier and more exciting and hilariously pleasing than last evening. Regardless of the fact that it was a "home-talent" production—an institution that all local home-folks are expected to applaud—last night's show was given squarely upon merit and entitled to the compliments given each of those participating. It doesn't require local pride to discover merit in that description of entertainment—it was of the caliber and excellence that would make the "legit" envious.

How Fat Folks May Become Slim

To be overcast is humiliating. Style and fat folks are strangers. Therefore, people who are carrying around a burden of unhealthy and unsightly fat will be glad to know how they may reduce their weight without starvation diet or tiresome exercises.

If you want to get rid of superfluous fat in a simple, safe and reliable way here is a test worth trying. Spend some time in the open air, practice deep breathing and get from any good druggist a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night; also follow the other simple directions that come with the box.

Weigh yourself once a week so as to know just how fast you are losing weight, and don't leave off the treatment, or even skip a single dose, until you are down to normal weight, so that you feel and look wonderfully younger and healthier.

Every person who is too fat should give this treatment a trial. You will probably find it is just what you need. Amaze your friends!—Advertisement.

QUICK ACTION BY DISTRICT COURT

A record in the trial of a case was made yesterday afternoon in Judge A. W. Agre's division of the district court when the called, tried and dismissed from the court in 55 minutes. The case was that of Robert M. Burch, Jr., against Edith Burch, for the recovery of money alleged to be due on a promissory note signed by Edith Burch's husband and herself. The payment was withheld since 1912 and after the death of Mrs. Burch's husband a few months ago Robert M. Burch asked payment of the note. Mrs. Burch refused and the case went to court with a judgment in favor of the plaintiff for $730.11 and costs of $14.62.

A jury was empaneled, the witnesses for each side sworn, they gave their testimony for plaintiff and defendant, the rebuttal testimony was given, the arguments were made by plaintiff and defendant, instructions were given to the jury, the jurors retired, they returned a verdict, they were excused by the judge and the court room was emptied in 55 minutes.

"Who says American justice is dilatory?" asked Clerk Adam Peterson.

WAR REVIEW BY SECRETARY BAKER

Austrian Howitzers Are Now Being Moved to the French Front.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Only minor developments at the battle front are recorded in the weekly review of military operations made public by the war department. Wintry weather is interfering with operations in Italy, France and Flanders, and in Russia the military situation is overshadowed by peace negotiations from which, the review says, no conclusions can safely be drawn.

Of the American forces in France, the department announces that their preparations for battle is being steadily pursued and that General Pershing reports their health and fighting spirit extremely good.

General improvement in health and equipment conditions in training camps at home is reported, and the department says that in spite of abnormal cold the camps have been adequately heated and soldiers have had a sufficient supply of blankets for their comfort.

Minor Engagements.

"On the active fronts in the west and in Italy the equilibrium of battle has been maintained," says the review. "The usual engagements so repeatedly recorded during the past week, which are merely every-day occurrences in the normal course of modern warfare * * * can have but little influence on the general situation.

"Any discussion of the military position in the west must be confined to the analysis of minor engagements.

"The enemy has concentrated his attacks against the British north of the Cambrai area and in the Ypres salient, and endeavored to mask tactical readjustments and new dispositions of units.

"Owing to the intensely cold weather * * * operations have been impeded.

"The identification of Austrian units along the western front is of interest. For some time past we have been receiving information to the effect that Austrian howitzers * * * were being detached from the Italian theater and transported to the west.

Aviators Busy.

"In spite of unfavorable atmospheric conditions, French and British aviators were very busy along the whole front, and brought down a number of hostile planes. Air raids into the interior of Germany were crowned with success.

"In Italy the enemy has been immobilized by the deep snow in the mountain zone. * * * Fresh snow has fallen * * * blocking the passes and rendering active operations impossible. Nevertheless, the Austro-Germans are endeavoring to continue their bombardment of the Italian positions along the Asiago plateau and the Monte Tomba.

"While information reaches us that the Austro-Germans propose to undertake simultaneous offensives in Italy and in the west, it is to be noted that within the central empires great efforts are now being made to spread their bombardment of the Italian positions along the Asiago plateau and the Monte Tomba.

"In Russia, the military situation for the time being overshadowed by the peace negotiations which have been instituted.

"No conclusions can safely be drawn from the latest incidents."

SALTS IF BACKACHE AND KIDNEYS HURT

Stop eating meat for a while if your Bladder is troubling you.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with bicarbonate and stimulates sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.—Advertisement.

CANNERS MUST HAVE A LICENSE

might be extended to include canners, manufacturers of wheat and rye products, dealers in feed and malt, and professional salt water fishermen. Persons, firms and corporations affected are required, under a penalty, to obtain licenses by February 15.

The proclamation formally carries into execution plans outlined recently by the food administration for government control of many foodstuffs heretofore free of licensing restrictions, and more equitable distribution.

The proclamation applies to:

All engaged in canning peas, dried beans, corn, tomatoes, salmon or sardines, whose gross production exceeds 500 cases annually.

In manufacturing, storing, or distributing commercial mixed feeds, such as dairy, horse and mule stock, hogs and poultry feeds.

In the business of malting barley, or other grains, or in the business of storing or distributing malt, except brewers of malt liquor who do not market their own grain.

Salt water fishermen, not already licensed, whether engaged in catching or selling.

All makers of tomato soup, tomato catsup, or other tomato products.

All importing, manufacturing or distributing peanuts, palm kernel oil, palm kernels or copra.

All manufacturing alimentary paste, and all persons, firms or corporations not already licensed, manufacturing any products derived from wheat or rye excepting common carriers, retailers whose gross sales of food commodities do not exceed $100,000 annually, and farmers, gardeners and co-operative associations.

Too many men use up all their religion on Sunday—and consequently have none left for the balance of the week.
