Scottish Cronies Give Party For Member Who Joins Army

Thursday evening, April 25th, will long be remembered by the members of the Ancient Order of Scottish Cronies, who with their wives and a few friends gathered at the home of Cronie James B. Simpson on 238 Twenty-ninth street, to do honor to one of their past chiefs, Cronie Harry White, just prior to his departure for Canada, where he will report shortly as a result of his recent enlistment in the British army.

A patriotic concert, the feature of the evening, was participated in by Mrs. Agnes Warner, Mrs. Robert H. Moyes, Mrs. Gregor Stewart, Mrs. George Lochhead, Jr., Mrs. Harry Heywood, Mr. James Macbeth, Mr. James Simpson, Mr. Harry Heywood, Mr. Gregor Stewart, Mr. George Lochhead and Mr. Harry White.

After the program of concert and dance a victory banquet was served by the ladies. Past Chief Frank Carr, who was chairman of the evening, called upon Chief George Lochhead during the banquet to respond to the toast, "Our Own Harry." Chief Lochhead complimented Cronie White on his 100 per cent exhibition of patriotism in joining the colors and voluntarily offering his services to fight for liberty and in behalf of his Cronie friends presented him with a wrist-watch and admonishing him to go over the top with it on time when he reached France.

Cronies T. S. Hutchison, James Macbeth and Frank Carr also responded to toasts and spoke of the high regard in which Mr. White was held in Ogden. After wishing Cronie White success and a safe return the gathering dispersed at midnight after singing "Auld Lang Syne," "Will Ye No Come Back Again" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George Lochhead, Mr. and Mrs. Gregor Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. William Moyes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Moyes, Mr. and Mrs. James Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heywood, Mr. and Mrs. George Lochhead, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Devoe, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Daniels, Mrs. Robert Hoggan, Mrs. Agnes Warner, Miss Wallace, Miss Jean Warner, Miss Heywood, Matthias Hinchcliffe, T. Woods for the juniors and Daniel Rowlands for the sophomores, are the candidates for president.

A great deal of antagonism has been aroused in the sophomore class on account of the fact that a petition was presented to them by the president of the class which nominates Daniel Rowlands, a junior, for president, to be supported by the sophs. This seems to have rubbed the sophomores against the grain because they naturally would support some one from their own class, but only juniors and seniors are permitted to run for this office. This act on the part of the officers of the sophomore class seems a little crude and the majority of the class are in favor of voting independently for the candidate who seems to be the best fitted for the office.

Home Culture Club.
Mrs. W. E. Thompson, 819 Twenty-seventh street, will be hostess to the Home Culture club, Thursday, May 2.

The views of the various scenes of the drama were depicted with marvelous accuracy and beauty and the lecturers revealed a deep understanding and careful study of the tragedy.
