No definite information on the matter could be obtained today.

THREE DROWNED WHEN AUTO MISSES BRIDGE AND FALLS INTO STREAM NEAR MORGAN

William Spendlove, 65, and two daughters of Ed Criddle, both under 20, of Littleton, Morgan county, were drowned last night in Canyon creek, about one-half mile from the center of Morgan City, when the automobile they were riding in missed the bridge and dropped into the stream. The machine was occupied by the two Criddle girls, William Spendlove and Joe Spendlove, brothers, and the two daughters of Joe Spendlove, Pearl and Belva. The last three escaped drowning, but were injured when the car fell. Canyon creek at this place is quite deep as a dam just below the bridge backs the water for irrigation purposes. The lights of the Spendlove car, which the party occupied, went out just before the Canyon creek bridge was reached, according to the report received from Sheriff Brig Robinson of Morgan county, and the machine ran off the high bank and plunged into the water. Despite all the efforts of those in the machine with them, the two Criddle girls and William Spendlove were drowned. It is thought probable that they were caught in the top of the machine and submerged, powerless to get out. The bodies were recovered by people hastily summoned by Joe Spendlove after he escaped with his two daughters. The party was returning from an entertainment given in the Morgan county high school about 11 o'clock at night. Joe Spendlove reported after the tragedy that the lights on the automobile suddenly went out just before they were due to cross the bridge, and that they proceeded in the dark for only a few yards when they ran off the highway. Littleton is located about five miles from Morgan on the road toward Ogden. The Spendloves and the Criddles both live there. Ed Criddle, father of the two drowned girls, was a former Morgan county commissioner and is very prominent in that county. William Spendlove was a wealthy farmer of Littleton and also well known in the county. Mrs. Sarah Spendlove, a relative of the man who was drowned, was visiting in Ogden at the home of Mrs. C. W. Frost, 331 Parry avenue, when the report of the accident was received early this morning. Mrs. Spendlove, Mrs. Frost Miss Pearl Frost and Lester Hill, a city fireman and friend of the Frosts, immediately left for Morgan in an automobile when they received the news. Mrs. Spendlove is a friend of the Frosts of many years' standing and the shock of the news was very severe on the local family. From other boards: J. D. Harris, Jr., Anaconda, Mont. John E. Neville, Brigham, Utah. John B. Erreca, Valley county, Montana. Edwin W. Simpson, Blaine county, Idaho.

WRESTLING MATCHES ARE BEING ARRANGED

A series of the biggest wrestling matches ever held in Ogden may be staged in Ogden before the end of this month, the preliminary steps toward such a result having been taken last night when W. C. Binford of the Binford-Kimball Motor company, sent telegrams to John Berg, who recently took the world's light heavyweight championship from Jack Harbertson in a match at Spokane, Mike Yokel and to Pete Visser. The series will be a sort of elimination event to pick the best of the grapplers, including Jack Harbertson, who believes he will have no difficulty in retrieving his championship crown. Perg has written to Ben Petrie here and signified a willingness to meet Harbertson in a return match, providing he can be matched with Visser.

Following are the telegrams sent by Mr. Binford: John Berg, School of Chiropractic, Portland, Oregon. Will you accept guarantee of $500 with privilege of 33 1/3 per cent gross gate receipts and round trip ticket to meet Harbertson in Ogden, providing you win will give you $500 more to stay over for a week and wrestle Pete Visser. NOXIOUS WEEDS IN BOX ELDER COUNTY

BRIGHAM CITY, May 8.—The Box Elder county commissioners held a busy session yesterday. County Agent R. H. Stewart presented a petition from farmers of Rawlins in which they seek the aid of the county in combating with a noxious weed which they claim is getting the best of them. At the same meeting County Crop Pest Inspector Eph. White appeared and asked that methods be adopted to compel the farmers of the infested district in Rawlins and west of Tremonton to clean up their property in an effort to destroy the noxious weed that is threatening to do much damage there. Road Supervisor James Wood was instructed to repair the road between Howell and Lampo, a station on the old line of the Southern Pacific. Official bonds of Supervisor Wood of the Howell district and D. W. Morris, supervisor of the Porpage district, were approved by the board. Other matters of importance were disposed of by the commissioners yesterday.

BAND CONCERTS ARE BEING CONSIDERED

The matter of holding band concerts at Glenwood and Central parks this summer, as last season, is still under consideration by the city officials. The measure is opposed by Mayor T. Samuel Browning who believes the city cannot afford the necessary expense of paying for the music during the war times. Commissioners Miles L. Jones and HEINER—In a letter written by David Farrell to Ogden friends, he tells of the recent death of Leland Heiner of Morgan, Utah, at Camp Lewis. The young man enlisted in the army some time ago and was stationed at Camp Lewis. The cause of his death was not given but it is presumed that he died of some contagious disease. Young Mr. Heiner is well known in Ogden where he attended the Weber college. His parents reside in Morgan. WILSON—John Douglas Wilson, aged 23 years, passed away at the local hospital this morning after an operation performed a week ago for abdominal trouble. He was the son of David L. and Althea E. Madsen Wilson and was born in Fielding, Box Elder county, Utah, March 20, 1895. His parents and five brothers and five sisters survive. The remains were taken to the Larkin chapel to be prepared for funeral services to be held in Fielding, Friday, at 2 p. m. The body will lie in state at the local chapel tomorrow morning when the train leaves for Fielding.

BIGELOW—Edward Samuel Bigelow passed away this morning at 1:30 o'clock at the family residence, 542 Twentieth street of pneumonia after an illness of only four days. Death came unexpectedly. He was born in Pocatello, May 18, 1892 the son of Orem E. and Sally West Bigelow and was married to Miss Margaret Jay in Ogden February 7, 1916. Besides his wife and mother who resides in Oregon, one baby son, Robert Edward, 4-months-old, survives. The following brothers and sisters also survive: Glen Bigelow of Bridgeport, Ohio; J. O. Bigelow of Ogden; Mrs. H. Leffert of Vallejo, Cal.; Mrs. Fred Cliff of Oregon. Funeral services will probably be held Sunday at 11 p. m. under the auspices of the Woodmen of the world. The young man was well known in this city. Remains were taken to the Lindquist chapel and definite funeral announcements will be made later. Young Mr. Bigelow had resided in Ogden since 1900 and was employed by George Huss.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Unofficial advice received here tell of an order for the expulsion from Mexico by the Carranza government of Robert H. Murray, the representative of the committee on public information in Mexico City, who, in that capacity has been in charge of the work conducted by the American government to offset German propaganda. At the same time, the unofficial advice say, one of the correspondents of the Associated Press in Mexico City, W. E. Weigand, was also ordered to leave. The expulsion of both men, it is said, was ordered under the thirty-third section of the Mexican constitution which provides for the summary deportation of "pernicious foreigners" without trial or hearing. Some of the experiences of Americans expelled from Mexico under that section have been described as little short of harrowing. Murray was the correspondent of the New York World and one of the best known American newspapers in Mexico. When it was determined to take steps to inform Mexicans of the attitude of the United States in the war and thus attack the German propaganda in Mexico which for months has been described as rampant, Murray was selected by the committee on public information to carry on its work. An order for his expulsion is taken to substantiate recent reports that the German propaganda had gained the upper hand in Mexican official circles. The state department was without official advice from Ambassador Fletcher on the subject but had received the report unofficially. Other sources of information here in touch with Mexican affairs heard the same report. The last definite information of Murray and Weigand was received here more than two weeks ago when news came that both had, at the order of President Carranza, been called before a military court and that their deportation was expected.

BILLIONS FOR THE NEW SHIPS
