

ALBERT SCOWCROFT, ONE OF OGDEN'S MOST PROMINENT BUSINESS MEN, IS DEAD

Albert Scowcroft prominent citizen of Ogden, and vice president of the John Scowcroft & Sons company, died at his home, 2250 Adams avenue at 11:15 last night of pneumonia, after an illness of ten days.

Mr. Scowcroft was born in the county of Lancashire, England, March 14, 1870, and was the son of Mrs. Mary Fletcher Scowcroft and the late John Scowcroft, who came to Utah about thirty-eight years ago. He was educated in the schools of this city and state and the entered his father's business.

In later years Mr. Scowcroft became a member of the firm of John Scowcroft & Sons company, which is at present one of the largest wholesale dry goods and grocery houses in the mountain country. While Mr. Scowcroft has always been an active member of the firm, he has also been active in the promotion of other things of interest to the community. He never missed an opportunity to render aid wherever possible in bringing to the state conventions and meetings, no matter where they were to be held in Ogden or Salt Lake. He was an enthusiastic booster for the state as well as the city.

Mr. Scowcroft was one of the pioneer motion picture men of the city, if not the state. He was the owner of the first motion picture theater in Ogden, and at the time of his death he was the president and principal owner of the Alhambra theater in this city. He also was president of the Ogden Pictures corporation. It was through Mr. Scowcroft's efforts the American theater in Salt Lake was erected. This theater, together with the Rex and Liberty theaters of Salt Lake, were owned by Mr. Scowcroft's company before they were sold to H. W. Swanson and associates. Motion pictures were a hobby with Mr. Scowcroft, and it was largely through his efforts that the industry was raised to the present high plane it occupies in the city and state.

Not only was Mr. Scowcroft active in the affairs of the Scowcroft mercantile house and motion picture houses, but he also had rendered aid in the development of several mining districts in Utah and Nevada. He also was interested in many of the big companies of the city, among which were the Amalgamated Sugar company and the Leishmann company.

Mr. Scowcroft was many times tendered nomination for offices in the city and for the state legislature, but he always declined. He was the president of the Ogden Harvest Festival and Fashion show, and was one of the originators of the annual celebration. He was one of the ardent supporters for the 1919 celebration which was planned for next year, but which was abandoned because of the war. Mr. Scowcroft was a member of the Weber club, Ogden Publicity bureau and the B. P. O. Elks.

He is survived by his widow, two children, his mother, Mrs. Mary Fletcher Scowcroft, and the following brothers and sisters: Joseph, Willard and Heber Scowcroft, Mrs. George W. McNamee and Mrs. Alva L. Scoville. The body was removed to the Lindquist chapel to be prepared for burial and the funeral arrangements will be announced later.

CHAS. H. PEART HAS A NEW SONG FOR THE SOLDIERS

Chas. H. Peart has written a war song which should prove popular. entitled "Our Boys are Coming Home Again, Hu-Ra-Ra-Ra!" Words and music are by Mr. Peart. The words are as follows:

It seems a long time since our boys have left us,
It seems a long time since we said, "Good-bye."
We remember well the day our hearts were broken,
When we stole away and had that "great big cry."
It seems a long time since the kaiser scorned us,
And told the world "America won't fight."
But it don't take long to tell, how they made the Germans yell,
And made 'em glad to sign the armistice.

CHORUS:
Oh, our boys are coming home again,
Hu-Ra-Ra-Ra!
From the lands across the sea,
And our happy hearts do welcome you,
Hu-Ra-Ra-Ra!
Back to the land of Liberty,
You have fought the Hun and made him run,
Hu-Ra-Ra-Ra!
And have made this world a place safe for Democracy, God bless our U. S. A.

The three great generals Foch, and Haig and Pershing,
The Red Cross and the Y. M. C. A. too,
The valiant Poilu, and brave Tommy Atkins
Have honors coming to them, "Not a few!"
Lloyd George and Clemenceau and Woodrow Wilson
The greatest men on history's glorious page,
Everyone who did his "bit", helped to make the kaiser quit,
And we're mighty glad the war is through,
Chorus: For our boys are coming, etc.

Chas. H. Peart has written a war song which because of the sentiment conveyed and the snappy martial music, should prove popular. The title is, "Our Boys are Coming Home Again, Hu-Ra-Ra-Ra!" The music was by Mr. Peart. The song follows:

COUNTRY BOYS HAD BOUGHT LIQUOR

Chief T. E. Brownling gives out the following statement with regard to a liquor "deal" and three boys who caused trouble out in Davis County on Thanksgiving night:
"The police department on Thanksgiving day was telephoned from Roy that a drunken lot of boys were disturbing the peace. Desk Sergeant George Carey and Officer Richardson answered the call. Three juveniles who gave the names of Hammond Roberts, Lawrence Nelson and Leonard Layton who had liquor in their possession were brought to the police station and questioned by Chief T. E. Brownling and frankly admitted they purchased the liquor from Blair Marsh at a price of $4 and that Marsh was employed at the sugar factory. # WORLD'S MARKETS

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Stocks were hesitant at the opening of today's market, reacting quite generally in the first hour with variable rallies later on in the day. Trading was restrained pending unexpected developments on coming week at Washington. Initial losses of 1 to 3 points among steels, coppers, motors and oils were balanced by strengthened shippings, minor equipments and obscure specialties. The closing was irregular. Sales approximated 300,000 shares. Liberty bonds were heavy, the fourth 4 1/2s establishing a new low record at 96.76.

Shipments furnished the only element of strength at the dull opening of today's stock market. Marine preferred and Atlantic Gulf gaining between 1 and 2 points. This was offset by further heaviness in motors and oils, Studebaker and Mexican Petroleum breaking almost 2 points each with fractional recessions in coppers. Rails were dull and moderately lower and United States Steel yielded a large fraction while Baldwin Locomotive reacted a point. Liberty 4th 4 1/2s continued to sag, making a new minimum of 96.84.

Chicago Quotations

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—Profit taking brought about declines today in the corn market. Prices rallied quietly during a temporary removal of this pressure. Opening operations, which varied from unchanged figures to 1/4c lower with December $1.27 1/2 and January $1.23 1/2 to 1.28 1/2, were followed by sharp setbacks all around.
