

IN OGDEN'S SOCIETY CIRCLES

CLUB Calendar

Convention of Federated Clubs of Utah to Be Held in October.

In club circles of the state interest, for the present, is centered on the coming convention which is to be held in Salt Lake City October 13, 14 and 15 and for which an exceptionally fine program has been outlined. This will be the twenty-sixth annual convention of the Utah Federation of Women's clubs and will be presided over by the president, Mrs. E. O. Leatherwood of the capital city.

On the first day of the meeting there will be board meetings and reports of officers in which some of the prominent club women of the state will appear, among them being Mrs. E. O. Watis of Ogden who is second vice president of the federation, and Mrs. John Culley, recording secretary, also of Ogden.

Miss Gladys Rich, federation overseas girl from Ogden, with Miss Eva Bechtel of Salt Lake City, will be the feature of the second day's program. They are to give somewhat detailed reports of their work, which will be intensely interesting. On the third day of the convention the drama club of Ogden will give two one-act plays.

Following is the program as arranged to date, not all details having been perfected.

Monday, October 13.

9 a. m.—Executive board meeting.
9 a. m.—Meeting of presidents of state clubs.
10 a. m.—General session.
Invocation—Mrs. G. W. Martin, Mant.

Community singing directed by Mrs. Ella C. Wetsell.

Address of welcome, Mrs. John A. Watis, president, City Federation, Salt Lake City.

Address of welcome, Mrs. Glen Miller, president of the Ladies' Literary club, Salt Lake City.

Response, Mrs. H. W. Cooper, president Sorority club, Price, Utah.

Musical selection.
Reports of stewardship:
Mrs. E. O. Watis, second vice president.

Mrs. E. G. Gowans, corresponding secretary.
Mrs. John Culley, recording secretary.

Mrs. O. J. Enking, treasurer.
Mrs. E. E. Nelson, auditor.

Mrs. Don R. Coray, journalist.
Miss Edith Bowen, bureau of information.

Mrs. E. E. Corfman, general federation secretary.

Presentation of new clubs, Mrs. W. F. Knox, state organizer.
Responses from new club presidents.

Appointment of committees and announcements.
2 P. M.

Community singing.
Report of committee on rules and regulations.

Report of program committee.
President's address, Mrs. E. O. Leatherwood.

Musical selection.
Introduction of distinguished guests.
Mrs. T. G. Winters, vice president, General Federation of Women's clubs, Minneapolis, Minn.

Mrs. Wm. D. Steele, chairman of music, General Federation of Women's clubs, Sedalia, Mo.

Report of Americanization committee, Mrs. Classen S. Kinney, Salt Lake City.

Report of Little Mothers' league, Mrs. W. J. Paige, Tooele.

Democracy and education, Miss Alice

Alton Parker and Miss Ida Parker Entertain Friends at Dancing Party at Hermitage Hotel

Last Wednesday evening at the Hermitage Hotel dining room a number of the young friends of Miss Ida and Master Alton Parker, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Parker of this city, were entertained at a dancing party, for which Miss Lillian Thatcher's splendid orchestra furnished the music. The dining room of the hotel was prettily with oak leaves arranged about the double windows. In one corner of the room a booth had been arranged and here the Misses Ella and Stella Parker, and Mrs. W. J. Parker served delicious fruit punch, wafers and candies. Following are the names of the guests who enjoyed the evening.

Misses Louise Purdy, Marion Woodbury, Virginia Stevens, Burford Johnson, Helen Purdy, Katherine Munro, Jenn Treasler, Connie Paine, Sherma Henderson, Marva McBride, Florence Purdy, Margaret Munro, Helen Rich, Lavern Munro, Thelma Stone, Avon Rich, Marjorie Brewer, Agnes Stevens, Gladys Rich, Grace Hirt, Nora Kellner, Elizabeth Hurst, Devorah Hoxer, Pauline Wright, Margaret Buchmiller, Margaret Johnson, Helen Stevens, Ruth Wright, Nora Todd, Dorothy Scowcroft, Virginia Scowcroft, Bonita Scowcroft, Hope Fox, Blanche Barton, Mildred Runyon, Meszuz Clark Rich, Jack Wright, Thair Rich, Derrah Purdie, Frank Pingree, Kenneth Wright, Edden Dye, Vin Gilchrist, William Blackman, Carlos Chee, Lewist Blake, Byron Halverson, Bert Wright, Oscar Dingham, Garold Carman, and entertained the club with her narrations concerning the soldiers in France, Belgium and Germany. Two guests of the club were present, Mrs. J. T. Lynch and Mrs. Douglas Swan of Salt Lake.

L. A. to O. R. C.
The Ladies' Auxiliary to the O. R. C. will entertain at 500 at the Fraternity hall next Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All members and friends are asked to be present.

Women of American Patriots.
The Women of American Patriots were guests at an informal afternoon tea given yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. David Eccles on Jefferson avenue with Mrs. John Flygare assisting. The tea was the first of a series to be given to stimulate interest in the work of the organization and for the purpose of enlarging the membership, and to select a delegate to attend the convention at Baltimore. The ladies were entertained from 3 until 5 o'clock. The regular meeting of the organization will be held Monday evening at 8 in the Elks home.

Historical Society.
The Ogden Historical society held its first meeting of the season September 6 at the home of Mrs. Brookshier with Mrs. Brookshier and Mrs. Adams as hostesses. Due to the absence of Mrs. Bichel, the regular program was postponed and, with Mrs. Corey as chairman, the ladies took a very active and interested part in a general discussion upon modernized home economics. Following the discussion, the club was entertained by three of Ogden's foremost young musicians. The musical program was as follows:
Liebeshid ..... Kreisler
Viennese Dream ..... Kreisler
Miss Mary Fisher, violinist
Fantasia Impromptu ..... Chopin
Papillous ..... Olsen
Miss Melba Brookshier, pianist
Happy Days ..... Streliski
Mighty Lak' a Rose ..... Nevin
Miss Mildred Ware, contralto

Drama Club.
This afternoon the ladies of the Drama club are meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Orson Douglas, corner of Tyler avenue and Twenty-sixth street. The club has perfected a most interesting program for the year and today's meeting will undoubtedly be a splendid one.

Methodist Missionary Society.
Last Thursday at 2 o'clock the members of the Methodist Missionary society held a meeting at the Esther home on Adams avenue and Twenty-fifth street, and made plans for the winter's work. Business of the society was followed by a short social meeting.

Lincoln Circle.
The ladies of the Lincoln circle No. 2 Ladies of the G. A. R., met in the I. O. O. F. hall last Thursday and carried out a fine program after which they enjoyed refreshments.

Missionary Society.
The Mite Missionary society of Emory A. M. E. church met at the residence of Mrs. J. E. Robinson, 169 26th street, on Wednesday evening in the final meeting before the annual conference which convenes in Denver next Wednesday.

Queen Esther Chapter.
The Queen Esther Chapter of the Eastern Star gave their first tea of the season on Wednesday afternoon at the Masonic Temple, Mrs. J. H. Pechart acting as chairman, assisted by Mesdames Falck, King, Taylor, Letta, Halstead and Sears. A musical program was rendered by Little Ruth Falck and the Misses Margaret Falck, Beatrice Chilton and Maude Michael.

Baptist Kensington.
The Ladies' Kensington of the Baptist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Solomon, 886 12th street, on Friday afternoon. All the ladies are urged to be present.

REV. AND MRS. HYSLOP HOME.
The Rev. John W. Hyslop, Mrs. Hyslop and children Dorothy and John W., Jr., returned yesterday morning from a month's visit with relatives and friends at Tiffin and Columbus, Ohio.

VISITING IN IDAHO.
Mrs. Charles Brough of Los Angeles, who has been visiting in Ogden left Ogden early this week for Boise, Idaho, where she will visit with Mrs. John Keogh and Mrs. Lewis formerly of this city.

Miscellaneous Shower.
Mrs. Oliver Hansen of 1824 Grant avenue was hostess to a number of friends at her home recently when she entertained at a miscellaneous shower in compliment to Miss Leila Pechart of Salt Lake City. The evening was spent on the lawn about the home where bright electric lights were arranged and where a canvas was stretched for dancing. Refreshments were served during the entire evening. In the home the rooms were decorated with bright fall flowers and potted plants. Following are the names of the guests present: Mr. and Mrs. Ranson Smith, Mrs. Louis Pechart, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Iverson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Erard, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Reeder, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Terry, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kessel Jr., Miss Etta Terry, Miss Coyette Swanson, Miss Flora Pechart, Miss Elaine Terry, Miss Eva Wardlight, Miss Beulah Waller, Miss Juanita Wallace, Mr. Bronson, Roy Wardlight and Harry Bassard.

Mrs. George Davenport Hostess.
Mrs. George Davenport of 1922 Grant avenue was hostess at a nicely planned party last Friday honoring her daughter, Miss Amelia Hawkins. The entertainment for the evening consisted of games and music and light refreshments were served at a late hour. Frank Davenport and Walter Hawkins, two returned soldier boys related some very interesting experiences and had some war relics which they displayed during the evening. The following enjoyed the evening: Mr. and Mrs. Levi Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dornsey, Mr. and Mrs. George Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Garner, Mr. and Mrs. George Ewald, Mrs. R. Faulkner, Mrs. H. Christofferson, Mrs. Ola Cole, Mrs. U. S. Black, Mrs. J. Walters, Mrs. Juanita Wallace Jr., Anna Kessel Jr., Mrs. Marie Hansen, Mrs. Ethel Smith, Miss Rose Ewing, Miss Blanche Ewald, Miss Leta Faulkner, Miss Geneva Garner, Miss Alberta Walters, Miss Nellie Mason, Miss Rose Mortensen, Miss Florence Wade, Dewey Hawkins, Frank Davenport, Walter Hawkins, Frank Baer and Frank Moss.

GOES TO DENVER.
Mr. G. P. Skags will leave this evening accompanied by his daughter, Miss Ethel Skags, for Denver where the young lady is to enter the Colorado College for Women.

VISITED IN OGDEN.
Judge and Mrs. Back of Vancouver, Wash., were Ogden visitors during the week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Kanzler. Judge Back is district judge at Vancouver.

QUEST OF MRS. TITLEY.
Mr. and Mrs. A. R. MacVicker arrived in Ogden on Tuesday last having journeyed from Cirencester, England. They are staying at present in the home of Mrs. E. A. Titley, on Monroe avenue.

PIANO RECITAL.
The students of Miss Melba Brookshier are giving a program this afternoon at her studio, 947 24th St. Those appearing are: Chase Taylor, Curtis Rockefeller, Jack Russell,

HOME FROM COAST.
Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Forrest of 2155 Adams avenue returned to Ogden late last week from California where for the past nine months they have been visiting with relatives and friends in San Bernardino and other coast cities.

RETURN TO OGDEN.
Mrs. Graham Cross and two children are again in Ogden after a pleasant time on the Pacific coast and in Nevada. They have spent about nine months at Santa Cruz, California and in Nevada points.

MRS. MORGAN HOME.
Mrs. Margaret Morgan returned to Ogden last night after spending the summer with friends in Moberly, Arkansas and Ipswich, South Dakota. Mrs. Morgan will resume her duties as teacher on the staff of the Madison school.

MISS POWELL HOSTESS.
Miss Edith Powell, who, on November 20th, will become the bride of Kenneth C. Tripp, was hostess to a number of her most intimate girl friends last Thursday evening at the Powell home, 759 Twenty-fifth street. The rooms were very pretty with eldorado and bright dahlias arranged in vases. Following a very pleasant evening, the hostess served refreshments.

FROM OREGON.
Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Stuart of Oregon City, Oregon, are visiting in Ogden as the guests of Mrs. Stuart's sister, Mrs. J. H. Bower, 1620 East Twelfth St. Dr. Stuart is one of the leading physicians and surgeons of Oregon City.

QUINN-HOGGAN.
Last Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Alex Hogan, 721 West Twelfth street, a pretty wedding occurred when Miss Stella Quinn became the bride of Ernest W. Hoggan, Bishop T. P. Ferry performing the ceremony. There were about 45 guests present and following the wedding ceremony a delicious supper was served in the dining room of the home where beautiful decorations of carnations and asters in pink and white combined with ferns were arranged.

DR. AND MRS. BRICK ENTERTAIN.
Dr. and Mrs. S. L. Brick were host and hostess to a number of their friends at an informal luncheon last Wednesday at 1 o'clock, the honored guests being Colonel Thompson of Columbus, South Carolina; Mr. and Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Charles Brough of Los Angeles, Cal. Colonel Thompson was enroute to Del Monte, Cal. for the New York Life Insurance company and left Ogden today.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.
Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Pierce of 2828 Washington avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Louise Pierce, to Bryan Sherman Martineau, the wedding to take place in the near future. Miss Pierce is one of the staff of the Ogden Conservatory of Music and a very accomplished pianist, while Mr. Martineau is a valued member of the local forestry service force.

Mrs. Lawrence Crawford

Last Saturday evening at the home of Monsignor P. M. Cushman occurred the wedding of two well known young people of this city, the bride, Miss Charlotte Harrison and the groom, Mr. Lawrence E. Crawford, Reverend Father Lagan performed the ceremony in the presence of Miss Rose Sharp and Mr. Frank Williams as bridesmaid and best man and a number of relatives of the couple.

Store and for the past year had been employed at the Commercial National bank while Mr. Crawford for the past seventeen months has been with the headquarters company of the 28th Engineers and serving in France. Formerly he was with Mr. Wisner in the Southern Pacific offices. Mr. Crawford has gone to Tulsa, Oklahoma where he has a very fine position and Mrs. Crawford will follow shortly. The bride and groom have many friends in this city who sincerely regret their departure.

Mariam Chapter to Give Regular September Tea Monday.

The regular September tea which marks the passing of a summer vacation, will be given in the Masonic club rooms Monday afternoon from 3 until 5:30 by the following members of Mariam chapter No. 14, O. E. S.: Mrs. Fred King, chairman, Mrs. J. H. Epperson, Mrs. George S. Glenn, Mrs. Guy Johnson, Mrs. George Kern, Mrs. P. F. Kirkendall, Mrs. Reinhold Kansler.

An interesting time is anticipated, and all members of the Order of the Eastern Star are cordially invited.

Sempre Musical Society.
The ladies of the Sempre Musical Society will begin their club meeting for the season of 1919-1920 when they gather at the home of Mrs. Henry Stevens at her summer home Fairmont, in Ogden canyon one day during the coming week, the exact date to be announced later.

Royal Purple Club.
The members of the Royal Purple Club will meet at the home of Mrs. John Ingebreton, 1978 Steele avenue, next Monday evening and all members are asked to be present.

Ladies' Literary Society.
At the first session held by the Ladies' Literary club which met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Douglas, Miss Gladys Rich, recently returned from overseas, was the speaker.

At the Munro Camp in the Hermitage Grove

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. David Munro entertained a party of twelve at their beautiful summer cottage in the canyon. Those present were in a most jovial mood and remained until after the canyon cars had stopped running, to participate in a lunch of chili, after supper had been served earlier in the evening. Not only has Mrs. Munro a reputation as a most delightful hostess, but Mr. Munro is gaining fame as a cook, as he is clever in the preparing of a chicken and trout dinner. The wonder is that the Munros are not overwhelmed with company, they are so good natured and whole-hearted in their entertaining.

Miss Jenness Smith

Early next week, Miss Jenness Smith, clever young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Smith of this city, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. I. K. Russell, will leave for New York City, the home of the latter, where Miss Smith is to enter the Pratt Institute of Applied Arts to study during the coming fall and winter. Miss Smith is a graduate of the Ogden High school and her ability as an artist is well known in the school where for two years she was art editor of the Classicum. Her design work has also attracted the attention of various critics in the state and a bright future is promised for the young lady.