

D'ANNUNZIO COMMANDS

ROME—Complete devotion is the attitude of the officers attached to Gabriel D'Annunzio. Here is the poet commander, who has taken possession of Plume and plans invasion of Dalmatia, issuing orders to two young officers.

WORLD'S MARKETS

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Trading at the outset of today's stock market lacked the spectacular features of the preceding session, even the more speculative issues making only moderate gains with standard shares. Before the end of the first half hour, however, pool operations in numerous specialties were again under way, at gains of 1 to 6 points. Leaders of the movement included National Biscuit, American Woolen, Worthington Pump, Texas company, Pan-American Petroleum, Studebaker, Kelly-Springfield Tire, Central Leather, Industrial Alcohol and American Sugar. Leading shippings and the more active rails, notably Reading and Texas and Pacific also improved.

Trading became more professional as the session progressed, activity continuing to center in speculative stocks. Motors and allied shares also oil, leather and food issues, extended their gains with equipments, notably Baldwin Locomotive, American Woolen, Continental Can and inactive specialties such as Linscoed and Barrett company were exceptionally strong at gains of 2 to 10 points. Rallies in steels and coppers and a stronger tone for shippings carried average prices to higher levels at noon although the 3 per cent money rate caused some slackening of activity.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—Predictions of widespread rains lifted the corn market today after some show of weakness at the outset. Initial declines were ascribed to the longshoremen's strike and to talk of a bearish estimate of yield in the government crop report this afternoon. Shorts were the chief buyers. Opening prices, which ranged from 1/2c lower to a like advance, with December $1.22 1/2 to 1.22 3/4 and May $1.21 1/4 to 1.21 1/2, were followed by a moderate general decline and then a rally that carried December and May to well above yesterday's finish.

Oats displayed independent firmness. There was a noticeable absence of selling pressure. After opening unchanged to 1/2c higher, including December at 70 1/2 to 70 3/4, the market scored a general upturn. Lower quotations on hogs weakened provisions. Trade lacked volume.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN

HOLLYWOOD, Cal.—Millions of people have seen the face of this young man, but most of them wouldn't recognize him in this attire. It is Charlie Chaplin in what he regards as the conventional dress of an American millionaire. It was snapped at his new $3,000,000 home at Hollywood.

BACK FROM FRANCE

LADY MURIEL BERTIE

Among society girls who are continuing their social service is Lady Muriel Bertie, beautiful daughter of Lord Lindsay. Lady Bertie has returned her father's London house, where she will be hostess during the season. She drove an ambulance in France during the war.

LIBERTY BONDS.
NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Liberty bond 4 3-8s 99.88.

"TIS A FAIR LAND," THINKS BELGIUM'S ROYALTY

NEW YORK—There was no ostentatious display when the king of the Belgians landed for his visit to America. Albert wore no decorations. He was in the uniform of a lieutenant colonel. The crown prince was dressed as a private. The queen was simply garbed. As they stood at the ship's rail while the George Washington was docking they gazed with interest over the city that lay before them. Next to the prince is J. M. Nye of the U. S. State Department.

WHAT D'YOU THINK THEY THINK OF THE PRINCE?

VANCOUVER, B. C.—Shushwap Indians who met the Prince of Wales here donned all their finery of their hereditary rank for the presentation. And they met a young man in dress and manner just like the other young wate men they knew. Perhaps they think someone is spoofing them, as they give him the once over.

CAT MINUS A TAIL IS CAUSE OF A COMPLAINT

The tale of a cat, or rather, the loss of a tail of a cat. The above caused City Attorney W. H. Reeder to appear in the early morning hours, long before the proper authorities had put in their appearance, at the juvenile court. He was there because his rest and peace of mind had been disturbed by the anguished yowls of a feline "domesticated" which was hurt, and being hurt, gave vent to its feeling by means of prolonged caterwauls, which City Attorney Reeder alleges disturbed the peace and quiet of the residents in the vicinity of Eccles avenue all last night.

Ford Not to Build Line of Steamers To Run to Ireland

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 8.—Official confirmation of a report that Henry Ford is contemplating the establishment of a line of steamers to Ireland could not be obtained here today. Mr. Ford could not be reached this forenoon, but one of his closest business associates declared there "was nothing in the report."

Strawberries From Clinton, Utah, Are Given to Ogdente

Strawberries were evident in the office of Mrs. Florence Dunn at the juvenile court room, the fruit having been presented to her by a friend from Clinton. Notwithstanding the lateness of the season, the fruit appeared to be equal to the strawberries of spring.

A DRESSY BLOUSE

The blouse sketched today has two distinctive features; the vest and the fluted frills. Groups of three tucks are used between each frill save on the round collar. Here tucked material forms the collar proper which is finished with a double row of frills. At the bottom of the vest enough space is left plain for a line of buttons in contrasting color.

Deaths and Funerals

WEST—Mrs. Tizzie Rennie West, wife of Henry West, was called by death in San Francisco Monday. She is survived by her husband, two sons, Alva and Ronald and her mother, Mrs. E. H. Rennie; also three grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. West for years conducted a grocery store at Thirtieth and Washington avenue and will be remembered by many residents of this city. The body will arrive in Ogden Friday and will be taken in charge by the Larkin Undertaking company.
