Charles Cramer Wins Prize in Scout Test

Cooking a double handful of rice with no other manufactured equipment than a pocket knife is the accomplishment that won Boy Scout Charles Cramer of Ogden national honors in a rice cooking contest. Those who participated in the contest were allowed to use no implements whatever and by placing a flat rock in a hole, where he had prepared a bed of embers, without a match, Cramer formed a stove for his rice. He then dampened the grain, covered it with leaves and sod, and waited until the steam from the heated rock had softened it to an extent that it was palatable.

Pine Tree Scout Charles A. Wilder forwarded an improved scout knife to Cramer as a prize for his efforts.

Box Elder County to Build New High School

Approval of a school bond issue amounting to $180,000 was voted on favorably yesterday at Brigham City. The passing of the bond election insures the building of a new high school, midway between Garland and Tremonton and will also provide additions and equipment for schools in Boxelder county. The proposed high school will cost approximately $80,000, it is stated. The vote stood 895 for, and 350 against the school bond. Though four precincts in Brigham City voted adversely, the election was carried in favor of the bonds.

En route home Mr. Lowder passed through the recent cyclone devastated regions of the central states. He said the conditions were terrible in some communities where homes, trees, poles, fences and all traces of habitation were razed and the land was as barren as in its original state. In the states farther east he noted the conditions looked promising.

IDAHO FARM BUREAU TO REGISTER WISHES

BOISE, Ida., March 31.—Idaho farm bureau members, to the number of about 14,000, will be called upon before April 15 to indicate their approval or disapproval of the plan proposed by a bill in congress to levy a tax of 1 per cent on land holdings of $10,000. Their vote will be in the form of a referendum submitted by the American Farm Bureau federation, which was formed at Chicago, March 3.

Submission of this referendum is the first result in Idaho of the action of the Idaho State Farm Bureau at its recent meeting in Boise, in deciding to join the national federation. At the Boise meeting special approval was given by the delegates to the provision in the proposed federation constitution

There are pleasanter things than carrying a basket

And more profitable things, too. Carrying a basket uses up your energy, takes time and spoils your temper. And it's entirely unnecessary.

We do not ask you to carry home your groceries. We believe that we can perform this service for you cheaper and better than you can do it for yourself.

And our growing business is proof that hundreds of housewives in this community feel the same way about it.

Why not let us shoulder your marketing burdens? We'll tell you what things are good and you can trust us too, because you can understand how dangerous it would be for us to advise you to buy something you would not like.

When we recommend RYZON Baking Powder therefore, you can rest assured we know it will please you. It will do anything any baking powder will do and it's fairly priced, 40 cents for a full pound tin.

We also recommend Wedding Breakfast Syrup.

that the federation should not be committed to opinions on national policies without submission of such questions to a referendum of the membership. A copy of the referendum, which is the first ever put out by the national body, has been received in the office of L. W. Fluharty, secretary of the State Farm Bureau. It will be transmitted by him to the county farm bureaus, with a request that it be passed on to community chairmen for submission to farmers in their communities. The referendum says: "February 7, 1920, Representative Nolan introduced in the house of representatives a bill to provide for the raising of public revenues by a tax upon the privileges of the use and enjoyment of lands of large value. Section 1 of said bill defines land to be 'the surface of the ground with all assessments in, on and over same,' includes forest, water rights and minerals, and not including improvements the result in whole or in part of the application of labor to land." "Section 2 provides: 'That all persons, firms, associations and corporations owning land in value in excess of $10,000, whether in possession or leased to others, shall be subject to an excise tax upon the privilege of the use and enjoyment of such excess at the rate of 1 per centum.' The referendum says: 'The object of this act is to raise public revenues. It is not supposed that it will do away entirely with, but be supplementary to the present income tax laws. The proponents of this and similar measures believe that land does not at present bear its just proportion of taxes as compared to the industries. "Effect: In considering this act you should not allow the fact that the revenues therefrom will come in principal part from the farmers, to prejudice your judgment, but should consider it in relation to fairness to other interests; and whether or not it would be of sufficient burden to affect land values, rentals or income and thus affect production. "There is no provision made for deductions for liens or mortgages. The provisions merely call for 1 per cent per annum annually on actual valuations of all holdings above $10,000. Since the farmers of the nation are most vitally concerned in this proposal we ask that you give this careful consideration and return the enclosed ballot to the American Farm Bureau fed- eration, Ames, Iowa, not later than April 15, 1920."

General Pershing Witnesses Launching

PHILADELPHIA, March 31.—General Pershing was a member of the party that witnessed the launching of the army transport Chaumont here today. Miss Julia C. Stinson of Washington, selected by General Pershing, was the sponsor. She served in France as an army nurse. The general's uniform was plentifully splattered when Miss Stinson broke the christening bottle on the prow. Before the launching he had laughingly suggested that the bottle ought to be opened and a portion of its contents consumed. "Half a bottle is plenty for the christening," he added.

The Chaumont was named by the army heads in honor of General Pershing, who made his headquarters at the French town of that name during the greater part of the time he was in France. Before returning to Washington General Pershing made a thorough inspection of the great shipbuilding plant.
