

You Can Make

a pint of syrup with a pound of sugar, or you can make a gallon with a pound.

You will also find that it takes a tablespoonful of most Vanilla Extracts to flavor a cake, while it takes only a teaspoonful of Van Duzer's.

Why is this? Plainly it is due to the strength of the Extracts. There is more oil of the Vanilla bean in a bottle of Van Duzer's than in any other make—our chemical tests prove this.

If you will use the same quantity as of other makes, you will get a richer flavor, or you can get the same result by using less.

PLAN RAID ON NOODLE PARLOR

An organized raid on a Japanese noodle parlor by a band of three young men, all of whom were under the influence of liquor and in a fighting mood, was nipped in the bud last night when Detective Bob Burke appeared on the scene of the conspiracy and arrested the would-be raiders. The men had been in the place and had had a difficulty with the Mongolian proprietors, and had been ejected. A council of war was held on the sidewalk on Twenty-fifth street near Lincoln avenue, and it was decided to punish the Japs by raiding and wiping out their establishment. Their purpose probably would have been accomplished, or at least serious trouble would have arisen, had not the policeman happened along in time to intercept the carrying out of the plans.

Weber Academy Notes

At the general assembly on Thursday, Superintendent J. M. Mills addressed the school. His talk was characterized by his usual enthusiasm for right living and right thinking. He pointed out forcibly the lesson that there are two classes in society; the helpers and the "kickers," and it often takes much of the energy of the helpers to overcome the evil done by the "kickers." His plea for every young man and young woman to be a helper, and to help the lives of great men who have become world wide helpers, although they were obscure and handicapped by poverty. He cited especially incidents from the life of Abraham Lincoln. After the address a piano solo was rendered by Miss Verna Van Dyke.

On Thursday afternoon L. E. Cowles and Lizzie O. McKay, instructors of the academy, went to Farr West to represent the academy at the funeral of Mr. Lorenzo Fisher. Mr. Fisher was the father of Miss Viola Fisher, who for more than two years has been a student at the academy. The faculty and student body united in extending their sympathy to the sorrowing ones. Mr. W. O. Ridge, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, is doing very nicely and in a short time now he will be back in charge of the manual training work at the academy. The board of trustees voted a liberal appropriation to install up to date machinery in the shop, and it only awaits Mr. Ridge's supervision until this department will be completed and made one of the best in the state.

Friday was declared a conference holiday. Most of the instructors and many of the pupils desired to go down to the capital and it was thought wise to dismiss school for one day.

Next Monday the missionary training course begins. The registration committee are expecting to receive a fine lot of young men who anticipate going on missions and who will take advantage of the training offered by the academy.

EXHIBITS SOME DISEASED DUCKS

Saturday A. M. Vander Viles of West Twenty-fourth street, a former fish and game warden, caught a number of sick ducks on the duck grounds near the lake northwest of the city and brought them to the city as a matter of curiosity. They were easily caught because they are partially paralyzed in their legs.

The birds are as fat as can be and appear to be in a healthy condition, except that paralysis in some form has stricken them. They are able to move about some and it is evident that there is plenty of feed for them on or near the grounds for they are fat. They also appear bright and look sharply out of the eyes. Mr. Vander Viles is of the opinion that the birds are suffering some form of cholera that affects their locomotion.

There are a good many of the ducks in the neighborhood visited by Mr. Vander Viles afflicted with this disease and the gentleman is of the opinion that they ought not to be shot at this time. He believes, however, that the ducks will quite recover from the disease before the end of the shooting season. The birds brought to the city by Mr. Vander Viles were turned over to the mayor and, under the advice of State Fish and Game Commission members, they were turned loose on Ogden river.

HUNDREDS MEET DEATH IN RAGING FOREST FIRES

RAINY RIVER, Ontario, Sept. 9.—The known dead: Six unidentified residents of Pitt, Minn. Unidentified woman and boy, homesteaders, near Pitt. Seven unidentified settlers, on track west of Pitt. Two entire families, one of eight members, and one of seven; lived ten miles east of Pitt, recently arrived from Grafton, North Dakota.

JOHN TUELLY and five members of his family, recently arrived from Fullerton, Neb.; burned to death west of Spooner.

One servant of Albert Berg of Spooner. Four land speculators from Davenport, Ia., recently arrived from Beaudette; caught by flames while out for home-stands on south side of Beaudette river.

JOHN SIMMONS of Red Oak, Ia., timber ranger; caught by flames on railroad track while trying to escape to Rainy River.

MATSON BERG and five members of his family, burned to death on outskirts of Spooner when house was destroyed. They attempted to weather the sea of flames in a big stone cellar and were suffocated.

JOHN ROLIN and family of eight, from Pitt. SEVERT HAGEN, GEORGE WEAVER, CHARLES BAKER and PATRICK O'MARA of Arlington, Minn.

The missing include some 2,000 residents of Beaudette, Spooner and Pitt, some of whom are dead, but the most of them are safe in Rainy River and the adjacent towns on the Canadian side of the line.

Many homesteaders and farmers are in the brush for a distance of 100 miles east and 20 miles south. Of these nothing can be learned for some time, as searching parties dare not penetrate the smoking forests.

WARROAD, Minn., Oct. 9.—Beaudette, Spooner, Pitt and Gracetown, Minn., were wiped off the map by a forest fire at 9 o'clock this morning. The bodies of 75 settlers have been located and it is thought the death toll will be upward of 300.

Wagon loads of human bodies are being brought into the railway station at Beaudette.

It is reported that many settlers, crazed with grief at the loss of families and property, are roaming the woods and searching parties are looking for the injured, the dead and the demented. One family of nine, one of seven and one of five, perished on Friday night.

Tornado of Fire. At 8:30 p. m. Saturday a tornado of fire struck Beaudette and Spooner and within three minutes after the first alarm, every building was ablaze. Within half an hour they were heaps of ashes. The people of these two towns had just enough time to get out of their homes with what they had on their backs. They were loaded on a passenger train that was standing at the depot and taken to Rainy River, Ontario. The whole country east of here is on fire. Roosevelt, Swift, Williams and Cedar Spur are in great danger. All the women and children are being rapidly removed to places of safety.

The Canadian Northern railway has stationed trains at every station and is doing everything in its power to relieve the situation. The people of Beaudette and Spooner and the settlers all through the north central part of the state have lost everything. Five thousand made homeless and the greater part of them absolutely destitute. Help must reach them in the next day or two, and that in a substantial way as a greater part of them are about half clad.

It will be impossible to get details and the names of the dead and injured before tomorrow and some of the dead will not be found until spring. It will be impossible to estimate the damage or casualties until later, but the pioneers of northern Minnesota must have help.

The wind shifted tonight and carried the flames away from Roosevelt and unless it changes again the town will be saved.

Canadian Northern trains have been stalled here since Friday night when a freight train went through a bridge near Pitt. The crew was saved and Conductor Monahan walked into Beaudette which he reported as destroyed only the water tank, the school house walls, and the depot standing. Monahan says he walked over dead bodies on the way, but could not say how many.

Many settlers took to the woods and have not been heard from since. A mother and five children are known to have been burned. The fires are still raging and the smoke is dense.

Saloons at Roosevelt were closed by the mayor. Dead as far as known are: KATHERINE JASPER, aged 55, domestic for Albert Berg, Beaudette. JOHN GOLVIN, aged 45, homesteader, four miles from Beaudette, wife and three small children, two girls and a boy.

KATHERINE JASPER, fought her would-be rescuers off with a butcher knife and perished in the home of her employer.

RAINY RIVER, Ont., Oct. 9.—While a wind is sweeping a sea of fire eastward on the south side of the Rainy river at a velocity of fifty miles an hour, the great body of flames passed this section, revealing a calamity that already reaches the proportion of an international disaster. Sixty corpses have been found in the path of the flames and a vast area is yet to be searched for dead while the towns of Spooner, Beaudette and Pitt have been totally destroyed with great property loss.

With the exception of the destruction of the mills and stock of the Rainy River Lumber company at Rainy River, the principal loss is confined to the south side of the river and chiefly sustained along the American border.

Railroad and Telegraph Cut Off. Railroad and wire connections from the west were cut off by a burned district extending 40 miles from Warroad, Minn., on the Canadian Northern railroad. Through this district the last trains passed last night. The road is open to the south and east, however, and relief is being afforded from Fort William.

The fires have been smouldering in this district for months and were started anew by a terrific wind that began two days ago. The wind increased in velocity until it bore a wave of flame 100 feet high and a half mile wide. Many settlers took to the woods and stock of the Rainy River Lumber company at Rainy River, the principal loss is confined to the south side of the river and chiefly sustained along the American border.

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 9.—Warroad, Minn., is in great danger from forest fires, which are gradually approaching that town. Two special trains left here at 6 o'clock over the Canadian Northern railroad with fire apparatus and hose. Four hundred men are on hand.

Roosevelt is safe after an all day fight, but the town is crowded with refugees. Tonight Warroad is crowded with a thousand refugees and fire is burning all around it. The fire is spreading this way and is now only seven miles from Sprague, Minn., which is twenty miles north of Warroad. A fire also is coming down from the north of Sprague.

The present forest conflagration is the greatest since the Hinkley, Minn., horror, 15 years ago. In the confusion it is hard to estimate the missing, but an exchange of messages between refuges centers show that over 100 settlers, principally from around Beaudette, have not been reported.

General Superintendent Cameron of the Canadian Northern railroad, writes from Rainy River that his estimate of the number of dead is forty, but admits this number may be exceeded.

Crowds of male bodied men, mostly workmen with no one to care for, are
