

BROKEN GLASS USED IN FIGHT

An assault with a beer glass at the Pacific saloon, 260 Twenty-fifth street, shortly before midnight last night resulted in the painful injury to Ausimando Vincenzo, who sustained a deep gash across the left temple. His assailant, Dominic Carrone, was arrested and was locked up at the city jail.

The cutting affray followed a quarrel over money. The two men were standing at the bar when Carrone suddenly raised the glass and struck Vincenzo in the face, a jagged edge inflicting a deep gash about an inch and a half in length across the man's temple. The injured man sank to the floor with blood flowing from the wound.

Carrone attempted to escape by running out the back door, but he was discovered by an officer who was stationed in Electric alley and was arrested. Both Italians were then taken to police headquarters by Detective Wardlaw and Officers Sullivan and Russell.

The injured man suffered considerably from the loss of blood, but upon investigation by a physician his injury was found to be not dangerous. When searched at police headquarters $177 in cash and a railroad ticket from Ogden to Richfield were found in Carrone's pockets while the injured man was found to possess $172 in cash.

An amusing incident, in which one Jap was frightened out of a year's growth, occurred in connection with the cutting affray. The Jap was in the saloon at the time and beat a hasty retreat out the front door when the blood began to flow. An officer was approaching the saloon at the time and, believing that the Jap was implicated in the affair, ordered him to halt. The Jap failed to obey the command and fled to further emphasize his second order the policeman discharged his revolver in the air. This had the desired effect, and the frightened Jap, showing pale even through the ochre, was taken over to the police station with the two Italians. He then succeeded in convincing the officers that he had nothing to do with the cutting scrape and was merely "heating it" to avoid possible complications.

BOTH PARTIES HOLD RALLIES

Democratic rallies were held in a half dozen towns throughout the county last night, and the principal speakers were B. H. Roberts and "Uncle" Jesse Knight, the latter of Provo. In every instance the meetings were well attended and much enthusiasm resulted from the outpouring of oratory.

At Huntsville a meeting was addressed by L. R. Martineau, S. S. Smith, W. H. Anderson and W. J. Parker. B. F. Grant, H. C. Gilliam and Miss Matilda Peterson, the latter a candidate for recorder, addressed a meeting at Marriott.

The four speakers who were detailed to make talks at West Weber were Valentine Gideon, Sam Browning, J. D. Skeen and W. N. Farr.

Mr. Roberts and Mr. Knight started out early and addressed crowds in three different towns. They went first to Harrisville. After dividing a half hour on the platform they proceeded to Farr West and spent half an hour there, finishing the evening at Plain City.

At every meeting there was good music in addition to the political talks.

Republican Rallies.
Two Republican rallies were held in neighboring towns of the county last night and large crowds heard excellent talks by Republican candidates and others at both places. At Riverside the speakers were Senator Carl Badger, J. H. De Vine, M. B. Richardson, O. B. Madison, and James B. Wallace. At this meeting there were several selections by the Peerless quartet.

The second meeting was held at Warren and the speakers at this place were N. J. Harris, A. G. Horn, George J. Kelly and Moroni Skeen.

RECEPTION TO REV. FISHER

An informal reception, attended by the members of practically every church in Ogden, was tendered Rev. Frederick Vining Fisher, the new pastor of the First Methodist church, in the church parlors last night. The reception was given by the ladies of the Methodist church and was not only to Rev. Fisher but also the members of his family. Other guests of honor were Mrs. H. J. Bigly, cousin of the pastor, and her daughter, Miss Maud Bigly, both of New York City. The parlors of the church were beautifully decorated for the event and while there was no special program prepared the evening was delightfully spent. There were more than three hundred guests in attendance and Rev. Fisher received a rousing welcome not only from the members of his own congregation but also from those of practically every other congregation in the city.

A string orchestra furnished music throughout the evening and refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

Mrs. S. H. Frey was chairman of the general arrangement committee and Mrs. S. J. Griffin had charge of the decorations. The refreshment committee was composed of Mrs. George Craig and Mrs. Frank Peterson.

Those who acted on the reception committee during the evening were Mrs. S. W. Wheery, Mrs. S. J. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Brummitt, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nye and others.

The reception was one of the most enthusiastic ever tendered to a minister in this city and last evening will doubtless be a lasting and pleasant remembrance to Rev. Fisher and the members of his family during their entire residence in Ogden.

UTAH BANKS WERE LOSERS

Through the failure of Bert L. Smith, a Nevada mine owner and land speculator, the First National bank of this city is said to have lost $10,000, while Salt Lake banks and companies hold worthless paper to the extent of more than $70,000. The Continental bank seems to be the largest Salt Lake creditor, the amount being $20,400.

According to advices from San Francisco, Smith has filed a petition in the California courts to be declared a bankrupt, giving his debts as $298,852. He says he has barely $27,100 worth of miscellaneous stocks of doubtful value with which to meet his obligations.

By Smith's failure Utah banks are said to have been "stung" for more than $31,000. Smith was a member of the Smith investment company, having been associated with his brother, Oscar J. Smith, an attorney and mining promoter.

The creditors of Smith, together with the amounts owing to them, are: Nixon National bank of Reno, $40,000; First National bank of Ogden, $10,000; County bank of Eureka, Nev., $75,000; Continental National bank of Salt Lake, $20,400; National bank of the Republic, Salt Lake, $18,200; Minnie D. Smith, Reno, $10,000; Washoe County bank, Reno, $5,625; Eureka Live Stock Co., $4,787; First National bank of Eureka, Nev., $3,500; McCormick & Co., Salt Lake, $2,459; John S. Cook & Co., Goldfield, $2,500; W. H. Whitmore, Goldfield, $2,500; Nat. Bank of San Francisco, $1,750; Bank of Manhattan, Nev., $6,246; Smith Brothers' Investment Co., Tonopah, $17,588; United States Fidelity & Guaranty Co., $1,483; Commercial National bank, Salt Lake, $15,000; M. B. Moore, Reno, $7,500; Frank Knox, Salt Lake, $15,000; Tonopah Banking Co., $3,304.

BAR GLASS AS DEADLY WEAPON

Carrying in his hands the broken fragments of a heavy glass beer mug which had been broken over his head, Ralph Lansui, an Italian laborer, was halted by an officer last night as he was on his way to the police station to deposit the broken glass as evidence against his assailant.

"Where are you going with all that broken glass?" was the question put by the officer, who thought Lansui was about to carry on the greswome details of an Italian vendetta or possibly a Black Hand plot.

"I tell you officer he hita me with this an' then I take this piece and chasa me for block. I showa you he trya to killa me."

This was fired at the officer at an average of 200 words per minute, and when he had succeeded in calming the frightened Italian the policeman learned that Lansui had been the victim of an assault committed in a saloon on Twenty-fifth street, between Grant and Lincoln avenues.

Reluctantly the Italian accompanied the policeman back to the saloon, where he pointed out James Floss as the man who had gotten busy with the booze receptacle. Floss was arrested and locked up on a charge of assault.

The piece of broken glass with which he threatened to annihilate Lansui was retained and will be produced as evidence against him when his case is called this morning.

When the mug came in contact with the Italian's head it broke in such a manner that one piece retained the long sharp point of glass, and it was with this weapon that Floss chased Lansui from the saloon and down the street.

STATE WILL GET REBATE

Through the action of Attorney General John R. Barnes of Salt Lake the trustees of the State Industrial School in this city have secured a rebate of $1,265 on a bill of $3,380 which was to have been paid to a San Francisco cattle dealer for a herd of cattle, fourteen head of which were found to be infected with tuberculosis.

The trustees bought the herd from Fred J. Schiefel but on delivery and veterinary inspection, 14 head were found infected with tuberculosis, although the trustees had been given to understand that all of the cattle were healthy. The board refused to accept or pay for the diseased cattle whereupon the dealer vigorously disturbed the atmosphere, threatened suits and all manner of dire things.

The matter was referred by the board to the attorney general, who entered on a vigorous correspondence that has ended in the dealer "graciously yielding" and allowing the claim of the trustees of $1,865 in rebate. However, as the cows had eight calves, the San Francisco man was allowed $600 in costs, making the amount to be paid all told $2,115.

LOCATE LOOT IN OGDEN PAWN SHOP

As the result of an investigation made by Salt Lake detectives and the local police officials, a large portion of the loot which was secured during the robbery of a pawn shop in Salt Lake a short time ago has been located in this city, and Frank Saunders, one of the three men implicated in the robbery, is under arrest here.

There were three men implicated in the robbery and another of the trio, a man known to the police as "Whitey," was arrested in Salt Lake several days ago.

Entrance to the Salt Lake pawn shop, which is located at 55 Commercial street, was gained by kicking in a front window, and a miscellaneous assortment of goods, consisting principally of watches, valued at $300, was taken.

Detectives Wilson and Golding came to Ogden yesterday and in making the rounds of the local pawn shops found a dozen of the stolen watches and five revolvers. Their find led to the arrest of Saunders in a rooming house on lower Twenty-fifth street, and in his room was found a shotgun, suit case and a number of other articles which were stolen in Salt Lake.

Through the arrest of Saunders, which was made by Officer Hearns of the local force, it was also learned that this is the same gang which committed the robbery at the Union stock yards in this city several weeks ago. Among the articles found in Saunders' room was some of the clothing taken during the stock yards raid and also a watch which was taken at the same time.

Saunders' arrest was brought about by Desk Sergeant William Shaw of this city.

The police of both cities are now on the trail of a man known as "Blackey," who is the third member of the local force, is being sought to be held here to answer to the stock yards robbery. He claims that he was not directly implicated in the Salt Lake affair, but confessed to having pawned the watches and revolvers located in this city.

FOOTBALL TEAM TO MEET BUTTE

On Nov. 19 the Ogden High school football team, champions of the state of Utah, will go to Butte, Mont., where the squad is scheduled to meet the Butte high school team, champions of Montana and Idaho.

It will be a soccer workout for the locals, but the victory over the Salt Lake team last Saturday has given them confidence, and it is an even break that they will add the championship of two more states to their record.

Coach Brown has announced that he will follow the same tactics employed at Salt Lake and will take a squad of 15 men to the Montana city on the 19th. The team is in excellent condition and will have at least one more game with some local eleven, possibly Pocatello, before the big game at Butte.

In BECKER'S BEST we have a BEER that surpasses any Eastern or other Western brew—the tone—the flavor—the richness—the mellowness—all come from using the very best of ingredients that can possibly be obtained.

OUR BREWERY is the cleanest, most modern and up-to-date between Chicago and San Francisco—the entire plant is conducted on the most approved methods—strictly sanitary—every man employed is a skilled expert in his particular branch of the brewing.

The water used can not be equalled for purity in the United States—who would think of comparing the icy, dashing, sparkling snow water right from our mountain streams with the murky river water used by Eastern brewers—then who can compare BECKER'S BEER with Eastern beers.
