OFFICER FINDS CROOKS AT WORK

An attempt was made last night to burglarize the Proudfit Sporting Goods company store at 351 Twenty-fourth street, but the timely discovery of the burglars in the act of removing a panel from the rear door prevented them from accomplishing their purpose.

Special Merchant Police Richard Pincock was making his rounds of the business houses shortly before 11 o'clock when he discovered the attempted burglary. He was at the rear of the Kiesel company's store, when he discovered a man standing at the rear of the Proudfit building, on Hudson avenue.

The man was evidently a sentinel, for he discovered the approach of the officer at about the same time and signaled to his partner, who was at work on the door. Both men ran through the vacant lot toward Washington avenue and disappeared in a narrow alleyway between two buildings. The officer gave chase, but was unable to overtake the men or even get a glimpse of them.

Returning to the Proudfit store he found that one of the panels in the rear door had been all but removed by sawing around the edge, near the thick part of the door frame. The burglars had not yet gained an entrance, however, when the officer surprised them. The city police were notified at once, and an order was given to keep a strict lookout for the men, a meager description of whom was given the officers by the merchant watchman.

The police are of the opinion that the two men are members of the same gang which has been operating in this city for the past week and may be the same parties who entered the A. J. Rollow home on Adams avenue a few nights ago.

CONDITIONS O. K. AT TREMONTON

Christian Weiss, a prosperous farmer of Tremontion, was an Ogden visitor yesterday, meeting with friends and doing a little Christmas shopping.

Mr. Weiss states that conditions at Tremontion are favorable and that the prospects for the region are better than for a number of years past. He says that many of the orchards planted a few years ago are bearing now, and that the farmers are realizing rich benefits from the harvest. The crops this year, he says, were exceptionally good and the prices paid for fruit were satisfactory to the people in that line of business.

HORSE BELIEVED TO HAVE GLANDERS

According to reports made to the local police yesterday there are cases of horses suffering from glanders in and near Ogden. Last evening an employe of the street department reported to the police that he had seen a horse suffering from this disease drinking out of a trough on Washington avenue.

JAILER BATTLES WITH INSANE JAP

NO SPRINKLING DONE IN MINE

TRINIDAD, Colo., Dec. 14.—Six Slav miners, all of whom were employed at the Delagua mine of the Victor American Fuel company at the time the explosion, which killed seventy-nine men occurred, today testified at the coroner's inquest that they had never seen any sprinkling done in the mine and that great quantities of dust had accumulated prior to the explosion. Several testified that no dust had been hauled out of the mine for months.

tacked the troops simultaneously at all stations north of Maoan. They were successful at every point, completely annihilating the troops, capturing sixteen field guns and killing many of the Turkish railway employes.

The victorious revolutionists then moved on El Kerak, a town of about 2,000 inhabitants, located twenty miles east of the dead sea. Here, too, they were successful. They massacred the governors and their families, looted and burned the government buildings and robbed eight American tourists. The latter suffered no personal injury, however.

It is asserted the Christians and their buildings were spared. The garrison at El Kerak, consisting of a full battalion of infantry, is blockaded in the castle, awaiting relief from Damascus.

For Business Use

There are a great many places and occasions when the possibility of getting extra heat immediately effects an economy by decreasing the discomfort of the worker. In the office, in the early morning or late at night, before or after the steamheat is on, it is of importance to have extra heat. In the builder's outside office, in the shipping room, in the checker's shack, on exposed lofts, in railroad stations, in studios, the

PERFECTION OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

It is often a necessity. It is safe, smokeless and odorless. Apply a match, and it gives heat quickly. With four quarts of oil it burns nine hours. Has automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be cleaned in an instant.

It has a cool handle and a damper top. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in japan or nickel. It is strong, durable, well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

SUNNY MONDAY

SUNNY MONDAY Laundry Soap contains a wonderful dirt-starter which saves half the rubbing. It will double the life of your clothes. Its real virtues may not be apparent the first time you use it. You have perhaps been washing your clothes with a heavily-rosined soap, and it will take some time for Sunny Monday to undo what the rosin soap has done. But after three or four washings you will notice a decided difference in the whiteness of your clothes.

Sunny Monday will not shrink your flannels.
Sunny Monday will not make your woollens harsh and "nettley."
Sunny Monday will not fade your colored goods.

FEAR BIG RUSH IN PASSENGER TRAFFIC

As a result of the comparatively light passenger traffic during the time now approaching the holidays, railroad officials who are in touch with the passenger traffic departments of the local lines, fear an unprecedented rush of business during the week or ten days just prior to Christmas.

In former years the homeward rush for the holidays has started early in December and continued steadily during the month. It has been the custom for those making long journeys for the holidays to start early in the month and thus lighten the task of caring for the short-distance traffic which comes during the three or four days immediately preceding Christmas.

This year and even at this late date there is said to have been no noticeable increase in the passenger traffic and it is feared that the rush of business will come in such a volume as to render it impossible to handle it in the most satisfactory manner. Every preparation will be made, however, for the anticipated rush during the week previous to Christmas.

JERUSALEM, Dec. 14.—An Englishman, who was an eye-witness to some scenes of the uprising, brings a detailed account to this city. Several companies of troops, he said, had been sent out with field guns to disarm the Bedouins.

The troops scattered in small companies among various tribes in the district east of the Jordan, where the revolt broke out.

The revolt was carefully planned and executed. The Bedouins were led by Chief Mejilla of El Kerak, whose father was a desert chief of international prominence. The Bedouins objected to the disarmament program, planned an armed resistance and at-
