HEN IS NOT A BIRD

But an Egg is an Egg in or Out of the Shell

Washington, Jan. 13.—Eggs are eggs. Also a hen is not a bird.
So says the United States court of appeals in a decision which has settled a question which has muddled the customs, perplexed the experts, and finally called in the zoologists.
Eggs coming from China usually are broken out of the shells, packed in tin cans and frozen. Customs officials contended they entered this country in competition with home-laid eggs and assessed a duty of five cents a dozen.
The importer said they should be free of duty, under that section of tariff which puts eggs of birds on the free list, and contended that at most they were only albumen and datable as such. The full bench of five justices agreed that the claim that a hen is a bird lacked merit and that an egg is an egg, in the shell, or out of it.

HUNGRY MEN IN PARADE

Led by Millionaire Hobo, They March on City
Hall, Kansas City

Kansas City, Jan. 13.—Led by James Eads How, the "millionaire hobo," and a man carrying a tattered red flag, the unemployed of Kansas City marched to the city hall today where they presented resolutions to Mayor Brown asking for work. Later they were served with a lunch of sandwiches and hot coffee on the market square.
The mayor delivered an address, promising to help the men and the name and record of each man was taken for future reference.

EXCAVATING ON PANAMA CANAL

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—The amount of excavation on the Panama canal begins to decrease monthly, probably for the very good reason that the steam shovels and dredges are getting down into the bottom of the cut where there is less material and where not so many machines can be operated.
A cablegram from Colonel Goethals at Panama states that during December last the total excavation amounted to 2,946,404 cubic yards, against 3,066, 637 yards in November, although there were two more working days in December and the rainfall was less by nearly half an inch.
The amount of concrete placed was also less than in November, being 150,176, against 163,271 cubic yards.
The only item of increase was in the filling of the canal, which amounted to 520,601 cubic yards in December, against 52,176 in November.

FIVE BODIES TAKEN FROM THE RUINS

Connellsville, Pa., Jan. 13.—When fremmen early today ceased searching the ruins of the destroyed town, they discovered five bodies. The bodies were identified by rings and shoes.
The bodies are supposed to be the of Pearl Thomas of West Overton.
She was in the store with her aunt when the explosion occurred.
The fifth victim is believed to be that of an Italian customer, as a pocketbook containing a number of foreign coins was found in the debris.
The bodies were found in the blackened flesh. Mrs. Edward Miller is in the hospital badly hurt.

EXHAUSTIVE STUDY OF EFFECT OF WAR

Stanford University, Cal., Jan. 13.— A university course on international arbitration and the prevention of wars was opened here yesterday by Dr.
David Starr Jordan, president of Stanford and member of the Carnegie Peace Commission.
Addressing one hundred upper classmen, who have registered for the course, Dr. Jordan outlined the preliminary work, which will consist of an exhaustive study of the history of warfare and its moral, economic and biological effects upon mankind.
The historical part of the course will be under the direction of Prof. E. B.
Krehbiel, of the history department.
Dr. Jordan himself will discuss the present situation of the world and the preservation of peace.

POLICEMAN WINS GIRL

New York Officer Marries
the Young Lady
He Saves

New York, Jan. 13.—Announcement is made here of the marriage of Miss Gloria P. Morosini, daughter of the late Giovanni P. Morosini, a multimillionaire banker, to Arthur Warner, the groom a few months ago was a New York traffic policeman whose beat included the Harlem speedway.
While on duty there one morning he spied a runaway team that was being driven by Miss Morosini. Warner stopped the horses at the risk of his life, but, in the excitement, he disappeared before his identity was learned. Her father, to show gratitude to the man who had saved his daughter from death, went to the speedway police station the next day with Miss Morosini, who picked out Warner from among the platoon of mounted men.
A short time after the runaway Warner received an invitation to call at the Morosini home. The acquaintance thus formed progressed rapidly and the engagement was announced a few days ago.
Miss Morosini was the chief legation under her father's will, receiving an estate estimated at $10,000,000.

WILL AID ARIZONA

Progressive Senators Are in Favor of New Constitution

Globe, Ariz., Jan. 13.—President Hunt, of the recent constitutional convention, gave out today a telegram he received last night from Washington, signed by U. S. Senators La Follette, Bristow, Clapp, Cummings, Dixon and Brown, saying they would join Senator Bourne in the struggle to obtain approval for the Arizona constitution. The telegram reads:
"The undersigned wish to assure you that the popular government features of the Arizona constitution, particularly the initiative, referendum and recall, will receive our hearty support. (Signed) LaFollette, Wisconsin; Bristow, Kansas; Clapp, Minnesota; Dixon, Montana; and Brown, Nebraska."

SIX KILLED IN AN EXPLOSION

Prince Rupert, B. C., Jan. 13.—Six railroad laborers were killed and another fatally injured by the premature explosion of a blast on the Grand Trunk Pacific right-of-way in this city yesterday.
Particulars of the accident cannot be learned as the sole survivor is unconscious, with his skull fractured.
Six men under Foreman John Bonar, were blasting rock half a mile this side of Seal Cove. The premature explosion hurled Bonar and three others into the harbor with the debris. The other two workmen died in a hospital shortly after being picked up.

ICE PLANT FOR MT. PLEASANT

Lt. Pleasant, Jan. 12.—Dr. August Lundberg of Mt. Pleasant is promoting a new industry at that place where the city will have an ice manufacturing plant.
The owners of the high water on Pleasant creek have organized a new water company that will be known as the Pleasant Creek-Highland Irrigation company, and the officers selected are: President, John H. Seely; vice president, Niels Matson; secretary and treasurer, W. D. Candland. The above and C. A. Madson and Joseph Johnson will compose the board of directors.

NEW HEAD OF THE INTERSTATE COMMERCE

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.— Judson C. Clements of Georgia was elected chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission to succeed Judge Martin A.
Knapp of New York, at a special conference of the commission held today. Mr. Clements is the senior member of the commission and is a Democrat.

SPEER MAY BE THE SUCCESSOR TO HUGHES

Denver, Colo., Jan. 13.—While no formal announcement of candidacy for the seat in the United States Senate left vacant by the death of Senator Charles J. Hughes, Jr., will be made until after the funeral today, campaigning was active yesterday, with four avowed candidates in the field.
They are: Mayor R. W. Speer of Denver, former Governor Alva Adams of Colorado, and former Governor Charles S. Thomas and Thomas J. O'Donnell of Denver. All are Democrats.
The advantage is conceded to Speer,

WAS SHORT OF MONEY

Lord Could Not Pay
Duty on Mrs. Gould's
New Gown

New York, Jan. 13.—Lord Decies, the first queeneless Chinese diplomat ever seen in New York, is here on his way from Vienna to Tokio. He will visit several western cities en route.
Hou Te Wan, in answer to questions, that he had his queue taken off by a German barber about two months ago and that he regarded himself as one of the pioneers in the reform.
He had wanted to part with the queue for years, but the sentiment in China was not strong enough to warrant the innovation.
He will become first secretary to the Chinese legation at Tokio on his arrival there.

PARDONING CRIMINALS

Duty Should Be Taken From Governors
of States

Syracuse, N. Y., Jan. 13.—Former Governor Horace White believes the right of executive clemency in the various states of the union should vest with tribunals especially equipped, not with the governors. In reviewing his record of pardons, he says in a statement over his signature:
"In my opinion, our governors should be relieved from the arduous duty of investigating, considering and deciding applications for pardons, commutations, reprieves and restoration to citizenship. The work and responsibility should be vested in tribunals especially equipped by training and fitness to undertake this important and laborious work."
"It is physically impossible for any governor to perform his other constitutional and statutory duties, have opportunity for study and reflection on great public duties and at the same time give application to this line of work. The interests of a state require thorough scrutiny of applicants for pardons, commutations, reprieves and restoration to citizenship. Each year the need becomes more apparent from a moral, economical and sociological point of view." During his brief term as governor only a month—Mr. White says that of 500 applications for pardons, he found not one which seemed to justify itself and that accordingly he issued no pardons and no reprieves.

JAMES HARAHAN'S DEEPEST REGRET

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 13.—Accusing friends of four days of treachery in connection with the looting of the treasury of the Illinois Central railroad by car repair frauds, James T.
Harahan, retiring president of the road, laid farewell to the transportation world last night with a scorching address at a banquet given in his honor.
"It is my deepest regret that anything should have occurred during my administration to warrant criticism of the management of the Illinois Central company," he said. "While I travay of any position of honor and responsibility is much to be deplored, the particular feature of this whole matter which has caused me pain, is the treachery to me of men whom I have trained and educated, some of them for more than thirty years, and whom I have caused to be placed in the positions they occupy."

HORSES CHASED FARMER'S COWS

Chicago, Jan. 13.—Arthur Mannix, a farmer near Hammond, Ind., was astonished yesterday afternoon at the sight of his herd of cows being madly pursued by four of his horses. As a cow dropped from exhaustion, the farmer ran to the rescue, expecting to find his trapped. Instead, the horses eagerly began licking her hide. Investigation disclosed that a chore boy from Chicago, recently employed, had been put upon it for a result of the stampedes to the ill-fated, Kuskowi and other new camps in the north. Following his consolidation with another bank, the Washington-Alaska bank had deposits in excess of $2,500, 000.

ALASKA MAN IS TWICE SHIPWRECKED

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 13.—John A.
McLaughlin left Nome, Alaska, Oct.
30, and arrived in Seattle yesterday, after being shipwrecked twice and spending two and a half months on the journey. He sailed from Nome on the whaler Conifera, which was ashore at Unalaska. He sailed from there on the schooner Allan A., only to be shipwrecked at Kodiak, where the schooner was lost and her people left stranded. After much delay, they managed to make their way to Seattle. McLaughlin got a boat for Seattle. Had he remained with the Conifera he would have reached his destination much sooner, for the whaler arrived at San Francisco a few days before Christmas.

END OF THE DAYS OF THE OPEN RANGE

Trinidad, Colo., Jan. 13.—"Plumb defunct" are the days of the open range. Cowboys from the French ranch in New Mexico drove the last cattle in the coffin yesterday when they plunged into a sixty-horsepower touring car in pursuit of a couple of horse thieves who had stolen a bunch of cayuses from their outfit, captured them here, where they were trying to dispose of the animals, and tamen;

WAS SHORT OF MONEY

New York, Jan. 13.—Lord Decies, who arrived here late last night to visit his fiancée, Mrs. Vivian Gould, had a taste of Uncle Sam's custom red tape before he left the steamship pier.
He had properly declared a gown that Mrs. Gould had bought for her on the other side, and was told that the duty on it was $500. He tendered a check for that amount and was surprised to find that the rule of Uncle Sam was cash only. All the cash he had with him was $200. He knew nobody on the pier and there was nobody of the Gould family to meet him. After waiting about an hour he decided that he would leave the gown in the hands of the customs men until this afternoon and then send down the cash.

SPARKS DESTROY BARN AND HORSES

Willard, Jan. 12.—A fire destroyed the barn of T. E. Younger, two miles north of this place. All his sheds, hay and three head of horses were burned. The fire is said to have been caused by sparks from an engine belonging to the Rapid Transit company.

BLOCKADE IN CANADA

Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 13.—While the snow blockade situation is somewhat relieved in British Columbia, the Canadian Pacific railroad is having great trouble in the mountains. The best snow fighters in the Canadian Pacific railway service are on the ground seeking to start traffic for little, but so far their efforts are unavailing.
The temperature at Field, B. C., last night was 42 degrees below zero, with a bitter wind blowing and snow falling. Under these conditions the efforts of workmen to start traffic for
availing.

STAMPEDE CAUSES BANK TO CLOSE

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 13.—That the Washington-Alaska bank, of Fairbanks, Alaska, was closed today had an overdraft of $141,000, with the Dexter-Horton National bank of Seattle was brought out in the United States district court as a result of the seizure at Cordova, Alaska, Wednesday, of $100,000 in gold and for little, shipped by the defunct Alaska bank to the local institution. The money seized had been shipped to Seattle to partially cover the overdraft.
The failure of the Washington-Alaska bank is attributed indirectly to the large demands put upon it for a result of the stampedes to the ill-fated, Kus-
north. Following his consolidation with
bank had deposits in excess of $2,500, 000.

WATER BEING STORED IN ROOSEVELT RESERVOIR

Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 13.—The water in the Roosevelt reservoir rose sixteen feet during the 24 hours ending yesterday.
The water is rising still, and more rapidly today and a better showing is expected tomorrow.

DEADLOCK IN THE MONTANA LEGISLATURE

Helena, Mont., Jan. 13.—The deadlock for United States senator for Montana continues. The vote today was:
Carter, 34; Walsh, 31; Conrad, 17; scattering, 10.
Necessary to choice, 50.

KILLED IN LANDSLIDE

Helena, Mont., Jan. 13.—A special to the Record from Bozeman says that Harold A. Leland lost his life in a landslide in the upper Madison basin. Several others had narrow escapes.

SECRETARY IS A FOREIGNER.

New York, Jan. 13.—The Aero Club of America finds itself in an unusual position, owing to the discovery that its newly elected secretary, George F.
Campbell-Wood, is a British subject.

There is no question of the ability or fitness of Mr. Campbell-Wood for the place, but those who are raising the question of citizenship maintain that it is unprecedented for the man who holds what is necessarily the most active official position in aviation in America to be a citizen of another country and particularly of a country with which America holds an aviation dispute.

BARTENDER NOT DEAD

But Six Undertakers Had Called to Bury Him

New York, Jan. 13.—Six undertakers and their assistants, armed with instruments and a coffin, had stood in front of the bar of Brady's hotel on upper Third avenue just before the closing hour this morning and demanding to know of Mike Ken-non, the bartender, why he was not dead.

SCIENTISTS ARE NOT ALARMED

New York, Jan. 13.—New York officials of the Christian Science church profess themselves unalarmed over the announcement that the Mother Church in Boston may lose the $2, 000,000 which Mrs. Eddy intended should revert to it upon her death.
The following statement was given out by Eugene R. Cox, chairman of the publication committee of the Christian Science church in this state:
"While no one seems to have looked upon the decline of this matter as determined whether or not the opponents of the will have overlooked something, we are quite sure that General Henry Baker, the administrator, will take whatever steps are necessary in opposing those who appear to be so anxious to thwart the wishes of Mrs.
Eddy. So far as the cause of Christian Science is concerned, the final disposition of that $2,000,000 matters very little."

ARLINGTON HOTEL IN WASHINGTON TO DISAPPEAR

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—The historic Arlington hotel in this city across Lafayette street from the White house, is to be demolished today. It is to be replaced by a syndicate of New York and Washington capitalists.
Their plan is to demolish the old structure and erect upon the site what is declared to be the finest hotel in the south. It is said six million dollars is involved in the project.

FIRE IN PENSION OFFICE, WASHINGTON

Thousands of records and documents in pension cases were destroyed early this morning in a fire which originated in the pension bureau building here. The origin of the fire is unknown and the damage cannot be estimated until after a thorough investigation.
The damage was mostly done by smoke and water.

MORNINGSTAR A WIZARD

Chicago, Jan. 13.—Ora Morningstar led young Jake Schafer, son of the late "cue wizard," by fifty points in the first half of their two nights' 18.2 ballline billiard match last night.

ECCENTRIC MAN DEAD

Caldwell, the Affidavit-Maker, Had a Twist
of the Brain

New York, Jan. 13.—Robert Caldwell, the "great American affidavit-maker," who figured as the principal witness in the famous Druece will case, is dead here after an illness of more than two years.
He died in the city asylum for the insane, to which he was admitted in 1909, suffering from an undefined mental and physical disease which many medical men left for a complete wreck without hope of recovery.
Caldwell will rank in history as the most remarkable figures in one of the greatest legal fights ever waged in the English courts. Born in Ireland, in 1841, of parentage which he declined to discuss, he went to London when 19 years old, and, according to his own story, was for a time in the service of the Duke of Portland, an eccentric nobleman.

He came to New York in 1871 and obtained employment with A. T. Stewart, the great drygoods merchant.
His connection with Mr. Stewart brought him more publicity in after life, when he made affidavits setting forth that the body of Mr. Stewart had been stolen by ghosts and also charging that Mr. Stewart's will had been forged for the benefit of certain devisees.

According to the alienists who have been studying Caldwell's mental eccentricity, at Ward's island, for the past two years, he was affected with a "twist" of the brain, which made him verily a second Baron Munchausen, differing only from that celebrated character in that he believed all he said, and was not a liar, and impossible though the story he declared, he was in many respects, but painfully punctilious as to the truth in the ordinary matters of life.

Caldwell's last appearance in public was in December, 1907. He had just been completely discredited at the last renewal of the Druece illu-gation in England. While the British authorities were arguing among themselves as to what steps to take against him, Caldwell slipped away from London and arrived unexpectedly in New York City, on December 22. He was arrested immediately on a warrant sworn out by the British consul charging him with willful perjury in the Druece case, but on account of his broken physical condition the authorities declined to allow his extradition and, after various vicissitudes, he was committed to the Ward's island asylum.

MRS. CARRIE NATION ENDS HER CAREER

Eureka Springs, Ark., Jan. 12.—Mrs.
Carrie Nation, the pioneer Kansas saloon smasher, suffered a nervous collapse at her home here today. Her condition is such that her career as a lecturer and the active enemy of intoxicants was ended.

DEADLOCK IN THE MONTANA LEGISLATURE

deadlock for United States senator for Montana continues. The
vote today was:
Carter, 34; Walsh, 31; Conrad,
17; scattering, 10.
Necessary to choice, 50.

Helena, Mont., Jan. 13.—A special to the Record from Bozeman
per Madison basin. Several others had narrow escapes.

GOVERNOR'S INAUGURAL BALL HAS BEEN A DISGRACE

Austin, Texas, Jan. 13.—Declaring that in the past, the occasion has been made a "baccchanalian" revelry and urging that the use of the hall of the house of representatives be withheld, Representative Stamps of Upshaw county introduced a resolution in the lower branch of the legislature yesterday disapproving of the governor's inaugural ball.

The resolution was finally defeated 48 to 12, but not until after an acrimonious debate.
In advocacy of his resolution, Representative Stamps declared he had been informed that whiskey and other intoxicants were consumed during the evening and that it was a "disgrace" and should be stopped.

KILLED IN A WRECK

Express on New York Central Crashes Into
Train at a Station

Batavia, N. Y., Jan. 13.—In a collision between train No. 49 of the Boston & Buffalo special and train No. 23 on the New York Central road, here today, at least six persons were killed and eighteen seriously injured.
The accident occurred at 5:30 o'clock, when train No. 49 was standing in the station. Train No. 23, the western express, due at 5:20 o'clock, a little late, crashed into the waiting train from the rear.

The engine telescoped the rear of the train, and the passenger car smashed into a day coach ahead.
With one exception the bodies of passengers in the wreckage of the sleeping car are so mutilated as to make identification difficult.
Beneath one of the bodies was found a silver locket and a Masonic charm inscribed Cassius C. Perlin, 3551 Mecca Temple, New York.
The injured are in a local hospital:
H. H. Cade, Chicago, both legs broken, face deeply burned, fatal.
H. C. Stiles, Dorchester, Mass., Pulman conductor, face cut.
R. A. Smith, Rochester, back injured.
James A. Moore, Buffalo, lawyer, back injured.
Catherine Higgins and son, Richland, N. M., cuts and shock.
John Shaw, Toronto, leg broken.
C. D. Vansier, Goldfield, Nev., slightly injured.
Monte Fisco, lawyer, Indianapolis, serious.

Superintendent Everett of the west-railroad made the following statement:

"From preliminary investigation, J.
B. Lindell of Buffalo, engineer on train No. 23, which ran into train No. 49, (Boston & Buffalo express) was responsible for the accident, in that he disobeyed signals. Lindell has been in our employ for forty years and has been an engineer since 1888, with a perfect record.
The engine of train No. 23, the New York Central Western express, struck the rear of train No. 49, the Boston and Buffalo express, with such force that the rear car of train No. 49, a sleeper, crumpled before the impact. The engine was reduced to wreckage, beneath which the four bodies were found. The bodies were so mutilated and live steam played such havoc that early identification was impossible.
The oncoming engine continued through the sleeping car into the rear of a day coach ahead. Nearly all the injured were in the sleeper.
Passengers Aleep.
Most of the passengers were asleep when the shock came. There were desperate struggles with debris. Jets of steam from the punctured boiler of the locomotive added to the torture of those disabled and also delayed the work of rescue.
Dead.
The bodies are, probably Cassius C. Perlin, Brooklyn, N. Y., a Masonic charm found beneath his body.
Man, 30, smooth face, plain gold band ring, the word "Engagement" engraved inside.
Man, 35, ring marked "F. J. S."
Man, 40.
