Wrights' FAMED SLEUTH AWARDED $200

LONDON, March 31.—The king's bench division today awarded $200 damages to former Inspector Dew of Scotland Yard, for satisfaction of the libel suit, which he brought against the Daily Chronicle in connection with the Crippen murder case.
 The alleged libel was contained in a cable dispatch to the Chronicle from Quebec, in which it was asserted that Dew had said Crippen had confessed and told him the whole story of the murder of his wife, Belle Elmore.
 Dew testified that while in Canada to bring Crippen he had absolutely no communication to the public in regard to the case.
 He admitted that he had nine similar suits pending.

D. & R. G. PLANS HOUSE CLEANING.

DENVER, March 31.—Rigid orders have been issued for a general house cleaning by the Denver & Rio Grande railroad. It is believed that arrangements are being made for a general inspection of the properties by parties representing the new controlling interests.

"MAINE" WILL BE EXPOSED JUNE 1

Pensacola, Fla., April 1.—The hull of the sunken battleship Maine in Havana harbor will be exposed not later than June 1, according to Frank M. Daniels, the contractor, who built the coffer dams around the ship. He returned here today from Havana.
 Then it can be determined whether the explosion which destroyed the ship was from without or from within.
