MANY THOUSAND ACRES ENTERED

Twelve thousand eight hundred acres of land were filed upon at the local United States land office yesterday. This was taken under the enlarged homestead act and is made up of forty 320-acre tracts. It is all located in Millard county and near the towns of Fillmore, Scipio, Oak City and Holden. The land taken is the best, about one-fourth of the entire tract John J. Veldense of Ogden was the first to get his claim. Six women were among those who filed yesterday. The first of these was Mary E. Wilson of 79 D street, Salt Lake City. The land is regarded as excellent for the growing of wheat by dry farming methods and other grains will do well there. There was one entryman registered from outside the state of Utah. This was John Charles McCarthy of Stillwater, Minn. Over half of the entries were made by citizens of Salt Lake and the others were divided among people from Farmington, Fillmore, Nephi, Mount Pleasant, Glenwood, Richfield and Hinckley. The most of the rush was over in half an hour after the doors were opened. Some came in later and it is certain that more will make their filings today. The women to make entries, besides Mary E. Wilson, were Laura Jones of Salt Lake City, Alice Jane Perry of Cedar City, Ruby S. Shelley of Salt Lake City, Charlotte E. Montrose of Salt Lake City and Margaret Howard of Salt Lake City. A number of conflicting entries were made and this may lead to a few contests. Many of the conflicting entries were decided by tossing a coin, so that there seems to be only a few contests in sight and these may all be avoided.

ELIZABETH ROWAN TO BEHOLD, LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Elizabeth Rowan to Behold, legal proceedings were started which has resulted in Mrs. Behold securing her portion of the estate in cash. Charles W. Symms, her uncle, is well known in Salt Lake, where he has established himself in business with Patrick Doran, manager of the Symms Utah Grocer company. His home is in Kansas City, where he is interested in a wholesale grocer firm. The greater portion of the Symms estate was made in the wholesale grocer business, stores having been established by the decedent at Kansas City, Atchison and Topeka. He says nothing of minor interests in the same line of business throughout many cities of the west. Upon Major Rowan's part in passing through the Spanish lines to General Garcia with President McKinley's message was based Elbert Hubbard's book, "He Carried a Message to Garcia," a work which has won renown for the author. Major Rowan is now at the Presidio in San Francisco.
