WOOL BILL CONSIDERED

La o'rite and Underwood Selected to Settle the Issue

Washington, Aug. 4.—When the conference on the wool tariff revision bill met today, Senator LaFollette and Representative Underwood were appointed a sub-committee to consider and report on the differences between the two houses.

With a full attendance and determined upon prompt action, the committee met at 10 o'clock. Senator Penrose, as chairman of the senate branch of the committee, had scarcely called the committee to order when Senator Bailey suggested a transfer of the details of the proposed compromise.

There was no opposition. There was, however, some discussion, bringing out general recognition that the two men represent all the differences that exist between the two houses.
