Save the Hair

Newbro's Herpicide Will Do It.

No woman should have poor, thin, scraggy hair, and no man need become bald. Poor hair and final baldness are due to the dandruff germ. Newbro's Herpicide will destroy this little germ and stop the hair from falling. Further evidence of this is found in a letter from Mrs. F. Neilson, of Tomah, Wis. She says: "I fought the worst kind of dandruff for nine years. I have been using Herpicide one week, and my scalp is healthy, the dandruff has gone and the itching has stopped. It is the best remedy for scalp diseases I ever saw, and I have seen many."

ADDRESS BY JOSEPH H. WRIGHT

Provo, Jan. 30.—All incoming trains yesterday were crowded with horticulturists and their reception by the several committees and Provo citizens was cordial. A good sized crowd was at the depot to greet the delegates, who were escorted to the Commercial club rooms and from there to the B. Y. U. college hall, filling the hall to its capacity. The convention was opened by President Joseph E. Wright. On the stand with Joseph Wright were Hugh J. Cannon of Salt Lake, Mayor C. F. Decker, President R. R. Irvine, Jr., of the Provo Commercial club and members of the committee.

"The most important of the industries is agriculture, and this includes horticulture, and with this foremost in our thoughts we welcome you to our city. We wish you to understand that we recognize the great importance of legislators. The stability of government is founded on agriculture and our safeguard is 'back to the farm, back to agriculture, to horticulture.'"

Hugh J. Cannon Responds. In responding to the welcome extended by Cannon of Salt Lake, Cannon said some very interesting things. It was then announced by President Wright that the committee appointments would be read at the beginning of the afternoon session. The committees are as follows: Resolutions—George Romney, Cache county; J. P. Christensen, Box Elder county; Ray Rasmussen, Weber county; Charles H. Smith, Davis county; J. O. Smith, Salt Lake county; D. G. Calder, Utah county.

Grower and Dealer. "While each season sees the fruit raising and also the fruit marketing business in Utah somewhat advanced in methods as over the previous season, yet we are still in a very primitive state in both respects of the industry. We all believe in the grower receiving a liberal remuneration for his investment and labor, and this cannot be had unless he puts his fruits on the market in shape to compete with the up-to-date fruit and packing of other states. Growers receive his just dues as long as there are unnecessary commissions between the producer and the consumer. Still, we must not lose sight of the fact that the dealer who really handles the fruit and finds the customer is entitled to his reasonable profit, nor can it be handled without that necessary expense.

"The grower still lacks much in organization, the buyers perhaps have too much, and I recommend that you keep up your associations, and above all, boost the Utah State exchange. It was only a state year, and possibly made some mistakes which will not be made again this year, but with some revisions of policy respecting the eastern selling, it is my opinion that the organization will be a power for good to assist the fruit-growers' associations in their work to find profitable markets for their produce."

BOISE PREFERS TOWN LOT BALL

Believing that President Lucas has treated them unfairly in the matter of the Union Association franchise, the Boise commercial club and the fans of that city seem determined to deny themselves organized baseball this season. Dan McCoy, the Salt Lake man who was awarded the franchise, is not enthusiastic over the prospects of his arranging a peace pact with the fans of the Idaho city, and the reinstatement of Butte serves to lessen Boise's chances of coming back. Viewed from all angles it would seem that the Union Association is a very slim one. If the Boise fans are destined to go through another season with six clubs, Ogden taking the place of Boise. There is still a chance of Boise, however, forgetting Cody and Kellacy long enough to back in while the backing is good, but the chance is a very slim one.

Boise fans and newspaper writers are saying a lot of unpleasant things about President Lucas and John J. McCloskey. If they will compare the few years' record of J. W. Cody with that of the Union president or of McCloskey's many years in the game they will probably find a set of binoculars to notice how fast the machinery is shifting beneath them. When Kellacy was down in California recruiting players for the 1912 Boise club he was not doing so with the idea that the commercial club of Boise was going to back him and succeed in stirring up enough strife to put Boise on the slide so far as the Union association is concerned. There is still hope for Boise, but not until the fans and business men forget about Cody and Kellacy.

Here is a sample of the things which are being published in the Boise papers regarding President Lucas and the Union association: "BOISE, Jan. 29.—The commercial club committee in charge of the local baseball club has definitely decided that it will not back the Lucas or Cooley or any of their agents. When Boise first rebelled against the unaccountable action of Lucas toward this city, there remained with a few of the local business men who are handling the situation some idea of going back to Boise. But the committee has decided to back the Lucas and Cooley agents. The Lucas and Cooley agents have been in the city for some time, and it has now been a week since notice was served on Lucas that Boise would not stand for his methods, and as he has done nothing toward giving the city relief except to defame Boise through the press, the Lucas and Cooley agents have on his string in Salt Lake City, the local business men are through with Lucas and his league.

"A meeting will probably be held today and at that meeting the work of organizing the new Commercial League will be discussed. The local committee has been in communication with several of the cities that will probably become members of the new circuit.

"Dispatches from Salt Lake state that Lucas says Boise cannot have baseball this season unless the Union association cannot prevent Boise from having baseball and from having protection under the national commission. The Union association tried to hold Ogden in the circuit without putting a club there in order to set a higher rating, but the committee has agreed it has and held the same way in similar cases. Unless Lucas or some of his agents put a club in the league and play baseball here the town will be entirely free from the old gang, and the chance of Coyleites coming to Boise is reduced to a minimum."

With William "Lien" Walsh apparently at the end of his string in Butte there is practically no obstacle in the way of Chester Sutton going into that city and making it a live baseball proposition for the coming season. Sutton has the approval of a large following of fans and business men there and will give the city some whirlwind baseball if only permitted to do so. The Salt Lake man is prepared to deal fairly with Walsh but have the support of a majority of the Butte fans in his refusal to let the contractor dictate terms to him.

This Quickly Cleanses Both Hair and Scalp

"A harmless and entirely satisfactory shampoo can be enjoyed at little expense," says Mrs. Mae Martyn in the Baltimore Express. "If you get an original package of canthrox from your druggist and dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This is enough mixture for a thorough cleansing of both hair and scalp. The canthrox mixture makes a wealth of rich, white lather that dissolves every atom of dust, dandruff and excess of oil. It leaves the hair and scalp immaculately clean, and after a canthrox shampoo the hair dries quickly and evenly, taking on such a rich gloss and softness, so that doing it up is a genuine pleasure. Occasional shampooing with canthrox keeps the scalp clean and plant and induces a heavy growth of beautiful, lustrous hair."

TRAINLOAD OF AUTOS COMING

The largest shipment of automobiles ever made in the United States will pass through Wyoming over the Union Pacific railroad the first week in February, enroute for the Pacific coast. There will be fifty carloads shipped from the eastern factory. They were started on their journey Jan. 25, and will travel only by daylight. They will reach Denver about February 5, Cheyenne the following day and will proceed by daylight runs to Ogden, where ten or twelve cars will be sent over the Oregon Short Line to Portland and the remainder over Southern Pacific to Southern California. Thousands of people all along the route over which this shipment will pass will watch for it with great curiosity because of the interest that always attaches to so large a shipment of a single commodity. The train will be more than one third of a mile in length and will carry more than $200,000 worth of machines.

This shipment demonstrates the great development of the automobile manufacturing industry, and particularly the demand for machines that has grown up in the west. Statistics prepared by the automobile associations of the country show that there are a greater number of machines in use in the west in proportion to the population than in the east, and the percentage in favor of the west is increasing every year.
