tion that he would never go to jail. The officer was stopped by a storm of bullets and crumpled dead in a heap on the floor.

Dexter Goad, clerk of the court, received a bullet wound in his neck and arm.

Judge Massee was one of the most prominent jurists of the state and recently was considered for promotion to the Virginia supreme court.

Commonwealth Attorney Foster held his office for eight years. He was 40 years of age and known as a fearless prosecutor.

Roañoke, Va., March 14.—Thornton Massee, circuit judge of Carroll county, Sheriff Lewis Webb and Commonwealth Attorney William Foster were assassinated today by a mob of mountain outlaws at Hillsville, the county seat.

The members of Ogden's negro population seem to be having considerable trouble among themselves of late as this morning the fourth case involving colored people in as many days was called when Catherine Patterson was arraigned before Judge Reeder charged with disturbing the peace.

A special train has left Roañoke with law officers for Hillsville, but part of the journey will have to be made on horseback.

Floyd Allen, one of a family of three brothers, charged with illicit distilling in the Blue Ridge mountains for years, was the defendant whose case was to have been heard today.

There had been reports that an attempt to rescue would be made, but little attention was paid to them.

Outlaws Fortified. Cincinnati, March 14.—A special from Bristol, Tenn., says that seven of the mountaineers who made their escape from Hillsville took refuge in an old barn in a mountainous spot and prepared to resist efforts of the posse.

San Francisco, March 14.—According to prominent Chinese, nothing but blood will satisfy the members from the four towns, which last night abrogated the treaty entered into a few days ago.

WILL BE WAR IN CHINATOWN

San Francisco, March 14.—According to prominent Chinese, nothing but blood will satisfy the members from the four towns, which last night abrogated the treaty entered into a few days ago.

Reconciliation is fruitless and the Six Companies therefore drops the entire matter and will not make any further attempt to secure peace.

SOCIETY WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crowther entertained in commemoration of their tenth wedding anniversary at their home on Lincoln avenue.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Crowther, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branting, Mr. and Mrs. William Low, Mr. and Mrs. William Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Low, Mrs. Jennie Harrop, Mrs. Alice Cowles, Miss Edith Cowles, Mrs. Ethel and Will Crowther, Miss Grace Taylor, Walter Jackson, Ray Branting, Joe Wankersward and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crowther.

Thomas Young was pleasantly surprised at his home, 284 Thirty-third street, when a number of his friends arrived for a pleasant evening.

Those present were Misses Pearl Browning, Mary Young, Agnes Jude, Emily Newton, Irma Elmer, Veda Elmer, Margaret Compton, May Newey, Miss Woods, Miss Nicholas, Miss James, Zella Johns, Irene Johns and Mrs. Johns.

SIXTH WARD TO HAVE A REUNION

Tomorrow night the Sixth ward holds its first big reunion in the Weber academy. It will be the first opportunity since the shooting in the court room last fall to meet with the members of the ward in a social way.

The early part of the evening will be devoted to a program of the usual kind, beginning at 8 o'clock.

After that hour dancing will begin and be conducted as a strict leap year party—the ladies doing all the choosing of partners.

Bishop Sanderson is desirous of seeing all the ward there, and as many of their friends as they wish to invite.

CATSUP OF A CANNERY IS IN COURT

Information was filed by Assistant United States Attorney William M. McCreia in federal court this morning charging the Banner Canning company with adulterating catsup and this case soon may be called to the attention of Judge Marshall.

The information alleges that the Banner company labeled cans of catsup as complying with the pure food law and placed the same on the market for sale October 26, 1910, but that chemical analysis proved the catsup to contain an adulterant and filthy, vegetable substances, contrary to the pure food laws of the United States.
