FIELDING GOES TO SEATTLE OFFICER JOHN C. LINER AND DEFENDANT LEAVE TODAY.

Salt Lake Courts Must Await Close of Trial in Washington for Forgery.

William F. Fielding was discharged from the clutches of the second district court Thursday morning on the motion of the district attorney, N. J. Harris, on the grounds that the evidence available was not sufficient in the mind of the attorney to warrant a conviction. In the meantime requisition papers had been signed by Governor D. C. Hooper for the return of Fielding to Seattle, where he had been indicted for forgery, and habeas corpus proceedings were pending in the third district court at Salt Lake, the intention of the application being to release the man from the custody of the Weber county officers and prevent him from being taken to Seattle for trial for the alleged forgery, that he might be tried in the Salt Lake court on contempt proceedings in the alleged violation of the court's order to pay all money to his first wife, who had been granted a decree of divorce a few months ago.

Fielding was taken to Salt Lake Thursday evening and early yesterday morning the habeas corpus proceedings were entered into at the conclusion of which the writ was denied and the defendant remanded to the custody of the Seattle officers. Fielding was returned to the Weber county jail yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, where he will be held until this afternoon, when Officer John C. Liner of Seattle, will take him before the Seattle court for trial for forgery.

IRON WORKERS START ON THE RAILROAD VIADUCT

Contractor E. H. Dundas and a Force of Men Are Placing Derricks and Making Other Preparations for an Active Campaign—Temporary Western Approach Is to Be Torn Down at a Later Date.

Contractor E. H. Dundas and a force of iron workers arrived from Salt Lake this morning with a carload of tools and machinery to inaugurate work on a new viaduct across the Southern Pacific yards on Twenty-fourth street.

The work of erecting derricks for handling the heavy structural iron was commenced this afternoon and these will be completed and in readiness for business bright and early Monday morning.

Eleven cars of iron and steel have arrived from the east during the present week and the balance of the material is now en route to Ogdien and will arrive before it is needed.

As soon as the railroad yard has been rearranged, or a prominent basis, the temporary western approach to the viaduct, recently constructed, will be taken down and a concrete, iron and steel structure, similar to the eastern approach near the intersection of Twenty-fourth and Wall avenue, will be put in.

TRAINS FROM THE WEST LATE

OVERLAND LIMITED OF FRIDAY ARRIVED THIS MORNING.

Salt Lake Division Has Saved the Day for Southern Pacific, Being Kept in Excellent Condition.

Reports received at local railroad headquarters state that another washout has occurred between Stockton, California and French Camp, east of Roseville, and that further delays in Southern Pacific traffic may be expected until this washout has been repaired.

All the bridges on the Sacramento division, including the big structure over the American river, have been sufficiently repaired to enable train service to be resumed from this time on over the main line of the Southern Pacific and no more through trains will be detoured over the Northern Electric line.

An army of men are employed on the railroad through the flooded districts, and as soon as the bridges have been strengthened and the roadbed repaired where the last washout occurred, train service will be in fairly good condition for traffic of every description.

The fact that no serious troubles has occurred on the Salt Lake division during the recent heavy storms, and that everything is in fairly good condition between Ogdien and Sparks, is a high compliment to the efficiency of Superintendent Manson and his right bower in the person of veteran Engineer Fitzgerald, who know every mile of the division thoroughly and keep it in first-class condition at all times.

Overland limited train No. 2, which was due in this city from the west Friday afternoon at 1:30, arrived from San Francisco this morning at 5:10 and went east over the Union Pacific a few minutes later.

No. 4 from the west, due at Ogdien Friday evening at 5:35, arrived from the west at 8:20 this morning.

Trains Nos. 6, 10, 2 and 4 from the west, due in this city at 6:20 a. m., 7:10 a. m., 1:30 p. m. and 5:35 today are all late and will arrive over the Southern Pacific at different hours from 8:30 to 10:30 this evening.

All Union Pacific trains from the east are arriving at Ogdien practically on time and no trouble is being experienced in the service between Omaha and Ogdien.

some transient yeggman, equipped for light house-breaking and familiar with the possibilities for a haul in dental offices.

The janitor of the Lewis block states that he was kept busy during the night by unknown prowlers who persisted in rambling about the halls of his building and apparently seeking entrance to some of the offices. It is thought that the latter were concerned in the robbery of Dr. Dalrymple's office later in the night.

ORPHEUM OPENING. Monday, January 25th, 7 p. m.

TO THE PUBLIC: A little more than one year ago I announced to the public through the press the opening of the Electric Theater Picture Show and in that announcement I stated we would run nothing but first-class, up-to-date pictures. Your liberal patronage to the Twenty-fifth street house has shown your appreciation of the fact that we have given you the very best and latest pictures made in the world today.

We have just completed a larger, and what must be conceded the prettiest picture house in the West, and I wish again to say to the people of Ogdien that we will run only the newest and best pictures made. We will have the latest songs, sung by one of the very best singers in the State of Utah, Miss Myrtle Ballinger. We will have an orchestra of four gentlemen whose ability is equal to any in the state.

Our operating room is absolutely fireproof and you are cordially invited to inspect the room at any time outside of show hours, and we especially invite mothers to inspect our operating room that they may see that their children are safe in our hands. We have a large EXIT in the rear that will empty the house in less than two minutes. We call your attention to our ventilating scheme, which insures a continued current of fresh air through the house afternoon and evening.

We will introduce an educational feature that is proving of great interest in the East, in the LECTURETTES. Scott and Van Alena, the finest song slide makers in the world, are sending a party of men around the world taking views of greatest interest in every country. These views will include pictures of Cities, People, Famous Men and Women, Paintings, Flowers, Statues and other things of interest. There will not be a long, tedious lecture on the subjects, but a short, terse announcement explanatory or descriptive of the picture presented. These pictures come in sets of twelve, each picture to remain one minute and we will run one set each week, or as often as they are issued. No picture will be shown that would offend the most refined taste and every effort will be put forth to make the house what our motto implies.

"A HOUSE OF QUALITY." H. A. SIMS.

SIXTY MEN TO BE PUT TO WORK

HURRIED REPAIRS PROVE UN-AVAILING, PIPES SNAP.

Utah Light & Railway Co. Hoping to Have Big Plant Working Safely by Tonight.

Fifty men were kept at work during the major portion of yesterday in repairing the pipe line of the Utah Light & Railway company in Ogdien canyon, and in the late hours of the afternoon the work was declared accomplished. Accordingly the water was turned into the great pipe. An expression of disappointment shadowed the faces of the managers and the working force when, as the rushing volume of water reached a point just this side of the big tunnel at the foot of the west end of the pipe snapped asunder as though they were made of baling wire, and the water had to be turned off.

Those who had the work in hand state that in their eagerness to make the repairs hurriedly and furnish light and power to the city, they had placed only a limited number of bands around the staves, which proved inadequate to hold the staves together when the full pressure of the flow of water was turned into the pipe.

Foreman Stoddard, of the Utah Light & Railway company, states that the force of men at work repairing the break in the pipe line in Ogdien canyon has been increased and that in all probability the water will be turned into the power house by six o'clock. If this is done the latter will be in operation by eight o'clock and supplying the city with its customary amount of electric light.

OGDEN OFFICIALS SHOULD BE RELIEVED OF ALL DUTIES

The sermons at the Congregational church during the past week or two have urged the repeal of all laws prohibiting gambling and the social evil on the ground that the citizens of Ogdien, by their failure to protest, approve of them. Sunday evening the only available alternative will be presented. The sermon will demand that, unless the foregoing action is taken, the legislature must pass special laws under which Ogdien officials will be relieved of the necessity of subscribing to an oath to faithfully perform the duties of their offices.

This will be the last of the series which Mr. Eidekin is addressing to the state legislature.

The program arranged for special music and a trio composed of Mrs. Lunbeck, Mrs. Cassidy and Miss Gunnell, will sing. Miss Louise Pierce will play the offertory.

JIMMY HOGAN OF OGDEN HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Jimmy Hogan, a well known Ogdien boy, had a narrow escape from the toils of municipal red tape Friday evening by being mistaken for a runaway from Preston, being threatened for a time with arrest.

Jimmy was in the Elm with some friends, having arrived only a few minutes before from Preston where he had been visiting. Night Watchman Pincock entered the place and asked Jimmy if he had come from Preston. The latter replied that he had, whereupon the officer notified him that he was wanted at police headquarters and ordered him to accompany him to the station.

Jimmy was somewhat taken aback at the promptness with which his return home was being officially recognized, and managed to register a hesitating remonstrance with the representative of the law. There was small doubt in the latter's mind but that he had captured the right person, but Jimmy's friends soon came to his rescue and identified him to the officer's satisfaction. It cost the escaped one a treat, however, and numerous jibes from his friends.

It developed later that an old gentleman had notified the police that his two boys had run away from Preston and he was in hopes of finding them here. Soon afterward the officers were notified that a young man had just stepped from the Preston train and was headed up town. Hence the discovery of Hogan and his narrow escape from arrest.

CONFIDENCE MEN ARE WORKING SUCCESSFULLY

Chicago, Jan. 22—L. Ronemus, of Kansas City, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen of America, has asked the Chicago police to be on the watch for confidence men, who he says have obtained more than $10,000 from merchants and car men by representing themselves to be solicitors for the brotherhood. The men represent themselves as obtaining money for a hospital for broken down car men. According to Ronemus they are equipped with false credentials.
