

LOWER HOUSE HOLDS AN ACTIVE SESSION

Bill Regarding Withdrawal of Money on Joint Account—Measure Providing State Board of Dental Examiners Meets Lengthy Discussion—Public Gymnasium Provision Goes Through in Record Time—Joint Discussion of Des Moines Plan to Be Held Next Wednesday—Salt Lake and Ogden Interested.

The house held quite an active session yesterday, although bills of more than passing importance came up for consideration. House bill 106, with regard to the withdrawal of money on joint account at any time by either of the parties to the account, passed in the house. The bill came up on a special order of business, as there were many among the representatives who believed that the bill would be the means of leading to a great deal of trouble. It was seen, however, that the instrument was so worded as to permit of the withdrawal of moneys only by agreement to that effect on the part of both parties at the time the cash was deposited, and this disposed of all objections. On Thursday, however, the bill led to quite an exciting debate on the part of those who constituting the minority were dead against the measure.

House Bills Introduced. House bill No. 188, by Baker, an act making an appropriation for the improvement of existing roads and bridges in Tooele county.

House bill No. 189, by H. A. McMillin, an act to amend sections 314, 315 and 328 of chapter 1, and section 354 of chapter 2, corporation of Utah laws, 1907.

House bill No. 190, by McCracken, an act to amend sections 545 and 551, compiled laws of Utah, 1907, relating to the terms of office and bond of the sheriff and the county clerk.

House bill No. 191, by Neilson, an act making an appropriation for the construction of a wagon road from Bluff to the natural bridges in San Juan county.

House bill No. 192, by Ashton, an act requiring employees to furnish copies of insurance policies.

House bill No. 193, by McCracken, an act in relation to contributory negligence and assumed risk by employees and other persons and apportioning the damages in cases of contributory negligence.

House bill No. 194, by King, an act making an appropriation for improving certain public highways in Sevier and Plute counties.

House bill No. 195, by Funk, an act to amend section 1801, compiled laws of Utah, relating to creating school districts, dividing and consolidating same and adjusting property rights and burdens of the several districts affected thereby.

House bill No. 196, by Clegg, an act to amend section 1801, compiled laws of Utah, relating to creating school districts, dividing and consolidating same and adjusting property rights and burdens of the several districts affected thereby.

House bill No. 197, by Dyrene, an act to amend section 2575 of chapter 4 of the compiled laws of Utah, so that when so amended the board of county commissioners will have power to suspend the payment of taxes of indebted persons up to $10 and make the same a lien on the property.

House bill No. 198, by Cannon, an act to amend section 4235, compiled laws of Utah, 1907, enumerating those who may work on Sunday.

Bills Introduced in Senate. Senate Bill No. 138—An act to amend section 3181, chapter 33, title 88, compiled laws of Utah of 1907, relating to the dismissal of actions and judgments of non-suit; Honner X. Smith, Committee on Judiciary.

Senate Bill No. 139—An act to amend section 375, compiled laws of Utah of 1907, relating to banking corporations and banks; Carl A. Badger, Senate Bill No. 140—An act terminating the term of office of the present state board of sheep commissioners; Alonzo Brinkerhoff, Committee on Livestock.

Senate Bill No. 141—An act declaring the use of the waters of this state for beneficial purposes to be a public use, and providing for the exchange of waters; John Y. Smith, Committee on Agriculture and Irrigation.

Senate Bill No. 142—An act to prevent the use of defective devices for testing the quality and value of milk, cream, butters and cheese, and providing a penalty for the violation of this act; Charles E. Marks, Committee on Public Health.

Bills Passed by Senate. House Bill No. 32—Defining pawnbrokers and second-hand dealers and compelling pawnbrokers to make reports to sheriff each evening in connection of the first and second class; Claude Y. Russell.

FILIPINO BAND GOES EAST

PASSED THROUGH OGDEN IN SPECIAL LAST EVENING.

Ninety-three Members and Leader Will Participate in Taft Inaugural Ceremonies in Washington.

The Constabulary band from the Philippine Islands passed through Ogden last evening at 10:25 on their way to Washington, D. C., where they will take part in the inaugural ceremonies for President-Elect Taft. The band has been sent from the islands as a compliment to President Taft, and to show the kindly feeling that exists between the United States government and its Oriental dependency.

The company was made up of eighty-six Filipino musicians and their leaders, making in all a party of ninety-three persons. They were traveling in a special train consisting of three tourist chair cars, a baggage car and a diner. It is a military band of great merit. Containing something like thirty stringed instruments, it is readily turned into a symphony band or orchestra.

The company is under the direction of Colonel Hersey, George C. Sellner, former publisher of the Manila Times, acting as business manager. The company reached Ogden about two days behind schedule time, the delay being occasioned by rough seas. Since leaving San Francisco the party has been ahead of their schedule time and they expect to reach Denver today at 2 o'clock p. m. to meet their engagement there. From Denver they will go to Omaha, St. Louis, Lincoln, Des Moines, Chicago, and from there to Washington, D. C.

Mr. Hersey states that the Orientals are standing the cold weather of this country remarkably well, there having been no evidences of colds or other ill health among the brown men yet. They hoped to give a performance at this time. "We will likely play Ogden on our return trip," he said. The company expects to spend six months in the United States and they may possibly tour the European countries before their return home.

AT THE THEATRES

"THE GINGERBREAD MAN" SATURDAY NIGHT.

"The Gingerbread Man," one of the really meritorious comic operas of recent production, has proven its worth for the past three seasons by entertaining millions of people and by earning a small competence for its author and composer. Its music has intrinsic value and is by A. Baldwin Sloane, the composer of a great many musical scores. The book, a fantastic one is by Frederick G. Rankin, who also wrote the lyrics and furnished the very funny comedy with which the piece abounds. It has been embellished a little by the timely quips of some high priced and versatile comedians, but the book in the main is almost solely the author's, and has created a vogue for itself wherever the piece has been presented. Last season this company went to the Pacific coast and made an enormous impression, which is a sure test of its excellence, for the critics of this section are bound by no other ideas than their own. They have their own musical organizations and their own grand opera company, singers of note, and comedians and actors who never come east of the Rockies, and they have a standard of their own by which they judge all productions coming from the east, and to pass muster with them is a sure endorsement of merit. That "The Gingerbread Man" did so successfully is evident by the return trip this organization is making this year to renew old acquaintances and pack the houses as they did on their former visit. This company last season from the time it started on its western trip at Winnipeg, till it reached the coast and got back to the Missouri river, did not know what an empty seat was in any theater they played. This is an unusual record for any theatrical company, but is borne out by the facts and the box office statements.

Most of the original cast still remain in the piece. The production has been rendered everything fresh and new, and in order to bring the piece up to date a new scene has been created, entitled "The New Salome," which panders to the present craze for oriental dances, which seems to have completely fascinated the east. "The Gingerbread Man" will appear in Ogden at the Grand, tonight. Seats now on sale.

PAUL GILMORE, SUNDAY.

In "The Boys of Company B" by Mrs. Reta Johnson Young, Paul Gilmore has the best play since becoming a star, and in the role of Tony Allen he is winning great praise on this tour. He and his excellent company will be seen at the Grand on Sunday night, and a treat in store for local theater patrons. Mr. Gilmore enhances enjoyment of his role through those deft touches of light comedy that are so delightful. He gets all the fun out of it. Some hark back to his portrayals on those delightful drawing room comedies, "A Tyranny of Tears" and "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," but when they see him in "The Boys of Company B," handsomer than ever and even better suited, they will surely change their minds. He is surrounded by a company of strength and capacity. Jules Murry has provided a complete production.

"RIP VAN WINKLE," WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 24.

Thomas Jefferson will come to the Grand next Wednesday. Thomas Jefferson has already established himself a favorite with theatergoers of this city. He scored a hit in the part when here before, and proved himself a worthy successor to his famous sire.

For generations parents have told their children the story of "Rip Van Winkle," of his great love for little folks, with whom he would romp and play, and his affection for his young daughter, Maecle; how every dog in the village would wag its tail for joy at the sight of "Rip," and, with it all, his weakness for the flowing bowl; how he was driven from his home by his wife, Gretchen, and went into the Catskill mountains, where he drank with the ghosts of Hendrick Hudson and his plume crew the fatal draught which put him to sleep for twenty years, awaiting to find his wife married to the man who had aided him in becoming a drunkard, his little daughter, Maecle, grown to womanhood and still in love with Hendrick Vedder, the hero and playmate of her childhood.

It is a charming story, one which will never grow old, and so long as it is played by a Jefferson, and kept up to its present high standing, just so long will it appeal to the better class of theatergoers and remain one of the standard attractions of the American stage.

PRESIDENT BROWNING ABSENT

BOARD OF EDUCATION POSTPONES ACTION.

Several Applications Before Members for Position to Fill Vacancy of Supt. Allison, Resigned.

The board of education at its regular meeting last night did not consider the resignation of Superintendent Allison, due to the fact, no doubt, that President Browning has not yet returned from his trip east. If the resignation of Mr. Allison is accepted by the board there will be a vacancy in the superintendency on March 1st, and the vacancy will very likely be filled on or before that time. Applications for the position are now on file as follows: Joel J. Harris and J. E. Beason of Ogden; Daniel H. Robinson of Manti, and John M. Mills of Salt Lake. It is possible that the resignation of Superintendent Allison will not be accepted by the board and he may be persuaded to remain in the position until the end of the present school term.

The first monthly report of the financial condition of the different schools of the city was presented to the board last evening by the clerk, Miss Ivy Williams. The report is perfectly drawn and it is very comprehensive in its scope. The members of the board expressed great satisfaction over the report. It gives in detail the expenditures of each school for the month, also stating the enrollment of each school. It is a report that gives food for thought on the part of the board members and it is a report that the public should be permitted to read.

In general terms the report for the month shows the receipts to be $180,512.81, and the disbursements $178,336.80. Cash on hand February 1st, $102,275.91. Probed receipts for the balance of the year: From district school taxes, $39,300. From state school taxes, 14,000. From county school taxes, 4,900.

Total, $57,300. The report from Chairman Pingree, of the finance committee, was as follows: Received from the sale of text books since the last meeting, $117; cash on hand at date, $100,825.56; warrants to pay teachers up to February 13th, $9,066.45.

Chairman Farr, of the committee on buildings and public improvements, reported adversely the granting of the portion of the electrical class, asking for the use of one of the rooms of the High School building for study purposes. The report was adopted.

Chairman Coulter, of the sanitary committee, reported three cases of scarlet fever and one case of measles that had occurred among the students since the last meeting. Superintendent Allison reported that the absences from school had somewhat increased during the bad weather, but that the percentage of attendance, even under the prevailing conditions, was 94; absences because of contagious diseases were given as 40; corporal punishment inflicted in four cases, and one student suspended for bad conduct. The board adjourned for one week.

Freight Roughly Handled. Freight is handled in the Philippines by coolies, who, with a bamboo pole and a piece of rope, carry in a most precarious fashion packages that are liable to drop and burst at any moment. Hence the need of good stock for the casings and reinforcement with iron strap bands.
