SURPRISED THE SCHOOL BOARD

THEY READ OF CANNON'S DEPARTURE IN EXAMINER.

Resolutions Censuring Action of Two Teachers Ordered by Board of Education.

The members of the Ogden board of education are somewhat incensed over the action of Professors Steele and Cannon, who recently took leave of absence without the consent of the board from their posts of duty at the head of the departments of history and economics and manual training, their feeling being freely expressed at the board meeting last night. So indignant were they over the affair that they instructed the teachers' committee to draft resolutions censuring the two teachers for their conduct and that a copy of the resolutions be sent to the school boards who had given them employment at the time of year. The board proposes to further discredit such actions on the part of teachers by urging school boards in the various cities of the United States to not enter into contracts at this time of year with teachers who have so unceremoniously left their posts of duty. The board further concluded that they would not employ teachers at this time of year if it were known that they had left another school to accept a vacant place in the Ogden schools. It is very likely, too, that the teachers of the Ogden schools next year will have to utter a contract providing that they cannot abandon their places during the course of a semester's work.

The board members were very much surprised to learn that Mr. Cannon of the manual training department of the High school had left them in the lurch. The first intimation they had of Mr. Cannon's departure was when they read it in the Morning Examiner and could hardly credit the report until Principal Cross of the High school advised them of the fact last evening.

The treasurer's report to the board last evening was as follows:
Cash on hand, March 1st... $89,713.82
Interest on school bonds... 154.17
March 3rd... 154.17
Taxes from issue of 1908... 37,673.38
From county funds... 4,567.55
From redemption fund... 218.02
From Ogden State bank (territorial school fund)... 1,721.50
Interest on territorial fund... 559.50
Total... $134,507.94

DISBURSEMENTS
Warrants paid March 31st... $18,093.99
Cash on hand, March 31st... $126,413.93
An application from Charles L. Ray of the Grant school for the position of instructor in history and economics in the High school and one from Emery Fiburg for the position of supervisor of the manual training department were received and referred to the teachers' committee.

The sum of $2,281, received from the Ogden State bank as territorial school fund, was ordered credited to the building account.

The claim of C. C. Richards for legal advice was referred to the finance committee.
The matter of the board maintaining only one telephone in the offices of the board was held over for final action until the next meeting.
Architect Hodgson of the firm of Smith & Hodgson, having in hand the construction of the new High School building, reported that the building work was going on very nicely, considering conditions. He stated, however, that because of the lack of a brick supply the brick work might be retarded for a few days.
The board ordered the payment of $3,000 to the Eccles Lumber company on the contract for the construction of the High School building.
The matter of naming the High School building was held over until such time as the matter could be given consideration. It is stated by those who claim to know the feelings of the board that this school building will be known as the "Kiesel Ogden High School."

THEATRE

FLORENCE ROBERTS.

Florence Roberts and what the critics seem to agree is a company of really remarkable calibre, will appear at the Grand on Sunday evening, in her latest success, "The House of Bondage," by Seymour Obermer. In this play, Miss Roberts is seen in a character that is said to fit particularly well the great emotional talents of which she is possessed. The Milwaukee Sentinel says of the play: "The play compels instant interest through the dramatic strength of its central theme, a variation of the familiar tripartite idea new to the stage, and which places the life of the unloved husband voluntarily in the hands of the surgeon who loves the wife and is loved by her. It embraces dramatic situations of such original concept and treatment that it gives promise of unusual success. The company is an excellent one and the play handsomely staged. Miss Roberts plays the wife with charm and grace. It is an admirable piece of acting, the more so because Miss Roberts has so many resources upon which the part makes no demands. The support is highly adequate."

VISITED THE VARIOUS SCHOOLS

OF WEBER COUNTY AND HELD INTERESTING MEETINGS.

Superintendent Eggertson Working Toward the Advancement of Work and Co-operation of Parents.

Superintendent L. E. Eggertson, Primary Supervisor Matilda Peterson, and Music Supervisor Albert Powell of the county schools, returned last evening from a number of days' visit to the parents and the schools of the school districts in the upper valley of the Ogden river. Aside from visiting the schools of Liberty, Eden and Huntsville, they held an interesting meeting with the parents of those places.

As stated by Superintendent Eggertson, the object of these parents' meetings is to get the parents more interested in the school work and make them acquainted with the teachers and the work they have at hand. The end to be accomplished is that the parents will become a part of the educational system, so to speak, of the county. The questions discussed at these meetings are: Tardiness, absence from school, care of school books, home study, graduating dresses, the 9th grade idea in the larger districts, the keeping of children at home studies, and how to make the teacher strong with the children.

Mr. Eggertson is a strong advocate of the introduction of the 9th grade in the larger districts of the county, which will furnish one year's course of the high school work, thereby enabling many students to get the high school education that cannot otherwise do so. He also strongly urges the parents to not lead the girls to believe that the great achievement in their graduation is in having the costliest gown.

The instructors state that the meetings were largely attended and that the parents exhibited great interest in them and were pleased to know that they were considered as a part of the educational fabric of the county. At each meeting elaborate programs were arranged for the pupils, which were designed to serve a double purpose, furnish entertainment for the people and the pupils an opportunity to appear in public and give expression to the things they know. The program given at Huntsville Thursday night was as follows:

Singing—We are from the Huntsville School, by pupils.
Prayer—By Chaplain A. E. Berlin.
An Address of Welcome—By Teacher Miss McCugh.
Recitation—"The Boy With the Twisted Knee," by Bennet Wood.
Song—"The Bird's Nest," by beginners and First grade.
Recitation—"The Last Leaf," by Genevieve Garner.

Concert Recitation—"The Address at Gettysburg," by Sixth grade pupils.
Song—"Somewhere, Somewhere," by Grace and Alice Smith.
Reading—Herve Riel, by Leonard Anderson, Eighth grade pupil.
Song—"The Fisherman's Song," by Sixth grade pupils.
Recitation—"The Wind," by pupils of First and Second grades.

Reading—Robin Hood's Death and Burial, by Violet Hall, Seventh grade.
Song—"Abbie With Me," by Isabella Grow and Bertha Nelson.
Reading—Barbara Ellen's Cruelty, by Estella Wangsgard, Seventh grade.
Remarks—Member of board, John Hall.

Remarks—County Superintendent L. E. Eggertson.
Remarks—Mayor A. J. Anderson.
Remarks—Principal T. R. Jones.
Singing—By pupils.
Prayer—Chaplain A. E. Berlin.

BIG SHOOT AT WASATCH GUN CLUB

W. H. ANDERSON CARRIES OFF THE HONORS.

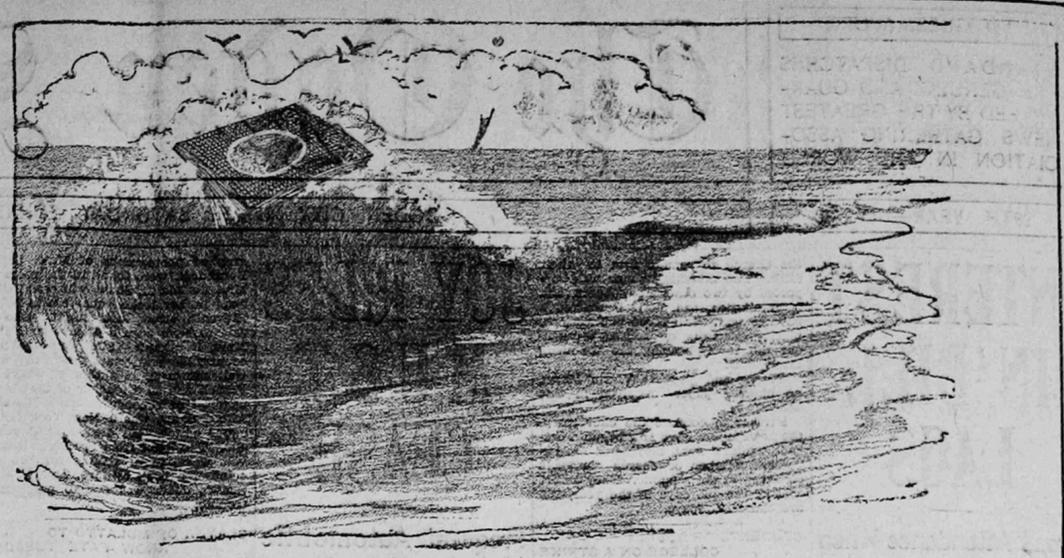

Contest Was for Prize Offered by Browning Bros. and to Decide Award of Du Pont Trophy.

The shoot at the Wasatch Gun club was one of the most enthusiastic that has been held for the last season, though there were but thirteen present, a great many not being able to attend because it was so close to the first of the month.

The weather was fine and some exceptionally good scores were made. William H. Anderson going straight. The shoot was occasioned by a fine prize presented to the club by Browning Bros. in the shape of a fine hunting coat, and incidentally to shoot off the tie for the Du Pont trophy, between W. H. Anderson and D. K. Stuart.

It was a handicap affair or rather a class system of shooting, for example, all shoot from a 15-yard line. Class A shoot at 50 targets and are scored for all that they get and are scratch men. Class B shoot at 50 targets. If any are missed they shoot at two-thirds of the ones missed over again, and are scored accordingly. Class C is allowed to shoot at all targets they miss over again; viz., Class C man gets 40 out of 50. He is then entitled to shoot at 10 more and breaks are added to his original score of 40, therefore if he breaks 6 out of the 10 his total score will be 46.

W. H. Anderson, a scratch man, carried off the honors, winning both the fine coat and also the Du Pont trophy. The following scores were made:

A Great Serial of the Air

The conquest of the air and the invention of a practical aeroplane are yet in the future, but many believe that we are on the threshold of these events. Herbert Quick has written for the Cosmopolitan a serial dealing with the air that is as thrilling as it is odd, quaint and unusual.

268 Pages

Ellis Parker Butler

"Pigs Is Pigs" and Ellis Parker Butler is Ellis Parker Butler. No one can give the quaint turn and the chuckle-compelling twist to a ludicrous situation like Mr. Butler. He will be heard from in the Cosmopolitan this year, and a broad grin is bound to follow the reading of his tales.

More "Aunt Jane" Stories

It is more than ten years since "Aunt Jane" began telling her stories in the pages of this magazine, and there is still call for them from all quarters of the globe. "Aunt Jane" is the "real thing," and her tales are the "real thing." We are going to have more of them during the coming year, and they will be the best things Eliza Calvert Hall has ever done. Once you read them, you never miss any.

14 Short Stories

Edwin Lefevre on Wall Street

There is no writer that understands Wall Street as Edwin Lefevre understands it. Mr. Lefevre, like the Admirable Crichton, has "played the game." He knows every angle of it. Mr. Lefevre will contribute to the magazine in the course of the year a series of articles dealing with financiers and Wall Street methods. He will show how the game can be and is constantly being beaten.

Elbert Hubbard

The writings of Elbert Hubbard on the opening pages of our issues are among the magazine's most popular features, and will be continued during the coming year.

120 Illustrations

A great feature of the coming year will be a life of Charlemagne by Charles Edward Russell, whose forceful and picturesque writings are always welcomed.

Depew's Reminiscences

What names, what majestic figures, what great events, are visualized in the camera-like mind of Chauncey M. Depew! The tale of these men, the moving recital of these great events, will be told in the Cosmopolitan with all the anecdotal fillip and the comprehensive and telling effect of this master orator and raconteur.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL BOARD

HOLD ADJOURNED SESSION OF OLD BOARD.

Minor Officers of New Board Not Yet Selected—No Changes Thus Far Made.

The old board of the State Industrial school held an adjourned session in Ogden last evening at the office of C. R. Hollingsworth, the secretary of the board, Harold Peery being the only member of the new or incoming board of the institution being present.

It was expected that the meeting of the newly appointed board would meet last night, but for the purpose of the old board finishing its auditing of the accounts of the school and arranging to leave the accounts in a balanced condition, it was deferred until some future time, probably next week. The board transacted no business of particular importance except that of auditing the books by way of recapitulation, nothing whatever being said or done regarding the appointment of the minor officers of the board for the incoming term of office. This is a matter that will be handled by the new board.

Vice President Joseph stated that he had nothing to say regarding the matter of contemplated changes in the secretaryship and superintendency and flatly denied that he had given any word for publication in the premises. Mr. Joseph will become the president of the new board of trustees.

FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS ADOPT RESOLUTIONS

San Antonio, April 2.—Concluding their annual meeting, the directorate of the Central Federation of Women's clubs, representing 2,000,000 club women, today adopted resolutions declaring against bill-board advertising because of its detracting from the beauty of the cities and against the Christmas tree inasmuch as "it threatens to annihilate the forests of cedar trees."

Legislation providing for the replanting of the cedar forests is proposed. The board also formally endorsed the work of Dr. Harvey Wiley in his efforts in the interest of pure food and the fight being made before congress to recall the Garfield grant giving the city of San Francisco water supply privileges in Yosemite park. The delegates will leave tomorrow on a tour of Mexico.

CAMBRIDGE AND OXFORD ARE READY FOR ROWING CONTEST

Putney, England, April 2.—Both the Cambridge and Oxford varsity crews took final brief practice spins this morning, and the latest form of the contestants in the rowing event of the year forebuds an interesting struggle tomorrow. Though the Cambridge men are good favorites, the Oxonians are quietly confident of their ability to wear down their opponents in the latter part of the race.
