MINING NEWS

GOOD SHOWING IN MANY NEVADA CAMPS

One of the best evidences of returning prosperity in the state of Nevada, and one that is having a telling effect, is the great influx of people—investors and prospectors—to the new camps of Pioneer and Lucky Boy," said J. E. Polton to a Lovelock Review representative. "If anyone thinks the state is a 'dead one' all they have to do is to visit these camps for a day or so and they will be convinced of my assertion. It is remarkable the attention these two camps in particular are receiving. The time will soon come when all the available territory will have been taken up and the result will be that the overflow will be seeking other new fields in the state which offer just as good opportunities. The state has withstood the long drawn out panic nobly and I believe we are now on the verge of better times."

Mr. Polton, who is interested in the National and Rawhide districts, as well as the Seven Troughs, had just returned from the latter, where he has been looking over his property, the Yankee Boy group. He stated that the tunnel had been driven in for a distance of 100 feet, and that although the property looked very promising in driving the tunnel several blind ledges have been cut and a number of them are productive of very encouraging values. It will require considerable more tunneling before the main ledge of the property is reached, but when this is accomplished something good is expected. When the main ledge is tapped it is intended to not only commence prospecting at the point, but drifts will be run in several of the large ledges cut in the tunnel. Mr. Polton said that while it is true the Seven Troughs district was a little quiet just now, it was his firm belief that sooner or later it would be one of the busiest and best in the state.

In speaking of Rawhide, where he is operating the Rawhide Royal Mines company's property, Mr. Polton said that that camp, as well as others throughout the state, was very quiet, but that its future outlook was very bright.

"We have three mills in active commission at present," he continued, "and the fourth one is building. The one to be constructed in the field is known as the King Helmer process and the promoters announce that they will be able to treat ore for $4.50 per ton. If this is true it will be a great thing for Rawhide as there is an abundance of ore already in sight that will net a handsome profit if it is treated at this figure. The machinery for this new plant is being hauled in now and it will not be many weeks before the new mill will be running steadily."

BALLOON TRIP OVER THE ATLANTIC IS PLANNED

Boston, May 9.—A balloon trip over the Atlantic from Boston to Europe is planned by Prof. Henry H. Clayton, who recently resigned as meteorologist at the Blue Hill observatory. After 16 years of duty on the direction and velocity of wind currents.

Prof. Clayton believes he can cross the Atlantic by taking advantage of an upper air, or planetary, current, which his experiments have shown flows constantly eastward two miles and more above the earth. He declares he can make the distance of 3,000 miles easily in three or four days.

As a sort of preliminary test of the possibilities of the trip, Prof. Clayton is now making plans for an air voyage from San Francisco to the Atlantic coast.

NEGRO FIEND LYNCHED BY MOB

Attacked Wife of Prominent Farmer, Citizens Mete Out Quick Punishment

Jacksonville, Fla., May 9.—Mrs. John Deas, wife of a prominent farmer residing at Camden, was attacked early today by an unknown negro, who was later captured by a mob of citizens and lynched.

The woman's screams attracted her son, who went to her rescue, but the negro had escaped. When the sheriff reached the scene the mob had captured the negro, Mrs. Deas had identified him, his throat had been cut, and his body riddled with bullets.

The sheriff could gain no information as to the identity of those of the mob.

TARIFF OUTLOOK

Washington, May 9.—The tariff bill will continue to divide the attention of the country during the present week. Ostensibly the amendments to the different schedules will be before the senate, but there will doubtless be much general discussion of the whole tariff question. The bill has aroused opposition among Republican senators, which had not been counted upon, and while the finance committee is still confident that it will be sustained there is little effort by its members to conceal the fact that they are concerned over the situation because of the delay if for no other reason. The general opinion is that in the end the committee will prevail, but every turn in the pathway of discussion opens up new vistas for the opposition, and the end is still far off.

There is again talk of lengthening the hours of the daily sittings, but there is fear if this course is resorted to it will have the effect of antagonizing to a still greater degree the opponents of the measure and of this creating delay rather than expediting the measure. The great bulk of provisions to which objection has been made are still to be disposed of. The lead schedule will again be considered when the bill is taken up tomorrow.

In the house the Philippine tariff bill will be reported tomorrow and there will be an effort to consider it Thursday. If there should be objection on account of absence of a quorum, a recess will be taken until Friday, when the house will proceed with the discussion of the bill. There is little or no opposition to the measure.

Owing to the sharpness of the debate in the senate has assumed, most of the prophets are extending considerably the day for final adjournment, and some senators are placing the date as late as the first of August. It probably will not, however, be later than July 1.

RECOVERY OF ANCIENT LUTE LED TO AN ARREST

Los Angeles, Cal., May 9.—The recovery of an ancient lute, valued at $500, from a pawnshop, where it had been sold for $1, was the clue that led to the arrest of Thomas J. Bowen, a machinist, who was locked up today, charged with having stolen $1,200 worth of theatrical costumes and property from the Ben Green Theatrical company, and also with having entered the private car of E. L. Doherty, the oil operator, and taking silverware valued at $300. Bowen had just completed a ten-day term for vagrancy and was about to be released this morning when the detectives obtained the information that resulted in his arrest.

The presentation was made on the quarterdeck of the ship in each man's uniform.

NOT DRUGS

Food Did It.

After using laxative and cathartic medicines from childhood a case of chronic and apparently incurable constipation yielded to the scientific food, Grape-Nuts, in a few days.

"From early childhood I suffered with such terrible constipation that I had to use laxatives continuously going from one drug to another and suffering more or less all the time.

"A prominent physician whom I consulted told me the muscles of the digestive organs were partially paralyzed and could not perform their work without help of some kind, so I have tried at different times about every laxative and cathartic known, but found no help that was at all permanent. I had finally become discouraged and had given my case up as hopeless when I began to use the pre-destined food Grape-Nuts.

"Although I had not expected this food to help my trouble, to my great surprise Grape-Nuts digested immediately from the first and in a few days I was convinced that this was just what my system needed.

"The bowels performed their functions regularly and I am now completely and permanently cured of this awful trouble.

"Truly the power of scientific food must be unlimited." "There's a Reason."

ARE BEING TRIED FOR LIBEL

Two of the American Missionaries in the Congo Free State

London, Thursday, April 29.—All white men in the Congo Free State are interested in the trial for libel of two American missionaries, Rev. Wm. Morrison and Rev. W. H. Shepard, which will begin at Leopoldville, May 20. This case is expected to be a test between the Belgian government and the American missionaries, who have long been a thorn in Leopold's flesh, by their charges of the oppression of the natives.

Suit is brought by a concessionaire company, the Kasai Trust, which has a monopoly of rubber growing in the Kasai region. It claims $20,000 damages from each missionary by reason of "calumnious denunciation."

The Belgian government holds half of the Kasai Trust stock and a majority of its directors are Belgian officers, so the suit may be considered practically one of the Belgian government against the missionaries.

The trial will be held at Leopoldville, where the missionaries are stationed. It is expected that a large number of their time is taken for gathering these taxes, that they are unable to cultivate crops and raise food necessary for their support.

The Rev. Wm. Morrison and Rev. W. H. Shepard are members of the American Presbyterian mission. The American consul, W. H. Handley, has been instructed by the government to go to Leopoldville to watch the trial, which will be conducted by Belgian officials.

About twenty American missionaries are stationed in the Congo and as nearly all of them have made the same charges against the administration, the outcome of the trial will be an important bearing upon their future there.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

New York, May 9.—The long awaited decision of the supreme court on the validity of the commodities clause of the Hepburn act, proved the key which unlocked the speculation in the stocks from the bonds which had been holding them.

The advantage of the coal roads from the practical nullification of the intention of the act to compel them to disappropriate the coal mining property was the chief object of the government stock market lawyers also rushed to some sweeping and loose interpretation of the bearing of the decision on the whole subject of corporation immunity from the power of the government to prevent combinations and mergers and a repeal, in effect of the provisions of the anti-trust law.

Report during the week of proposed amendments to the Hepburn law to make it more effective and of cabinet conferences on the subject had some modifying influence on the stock market sentiment.

Another effective influence on speculative sentiment was the evidence of improvement in financial conditions, namely in the great basic steel industry, and in other metal trades. The arrest of the downward course of quotations of steel products was not unappreciated by the government, and further cut, but it was sufficient to shape a conviction.

In the copper trade the statistics for April to be published tomorrow, are awaited for definite knowledge, but the impression is that the rate of deliveries into consumption has overtaken the rate of production and put a stop to the accumulation of surplus stocks.

The fact that the bank clearings throughout the country for April established a new record is advanced as another evidence of the explanation of business with allowance necessary for the active speculation going on in various lines.

The stock market showed little evidence of disturbance over the large acreage of winter wheat killed and the government report. The eager demand for wheat and the high prices ruling are held out to stimulate the sowing of every available acre in spring wheat.

BOYLES TO RECEIVE SENTENCE PROMPTLY

Mercer, Pa. May 9.—Unless present plans are changed, James H. Boyle and his wife, Helen Anna Boyle, the convicted kidnappers, will be sentenced by Judge Williams in the Mercer county court tomorrow for the abduction of "Billy" Whittaker.

It is certain, if permitted Boyle will attempt to tell a sensational story, implicating a third party in the kidnaping. Mrs. Boyle asserted tonight that she would have nothing to say when sentenced. She added: "Jimmy has something to say and ought not to be gagged. I will not say anything. Seriously, I want to tell you there is going to be a double suicide. I will not spend much time in the penitentiary. I have made all arrangements and have the means now to depart quietly and quickly. Jimmy will do the same."

Women's Tailor-Made Suits Way Under Price

Here is a stock of suits for women so rich in variety and so filled with the charm of soft color and soft linings that their character, their sterling tailoring, their unusual finishing, are almost forgotten in sheer delight of their beauty.

It is not boasting to say that nowhere, outside of this store in Ogden can richer suits be found and nowhere in Ogden City can suits of such cloth lined with such silks, let alone their charm and individuality, be found under half again as much.

We do not promise you extraordinary suits for $11.75, though we have better suits for this price than you will find elsewhere at $15.00. But at $15.75 there are suits equal in tailoring to any in the city of Ogden and for sale nowhere under $25.00. At $25.00 we have suits that can not be matched under $40.00, yet we are conservative. From these prices they go steadily up to $75.00.

We believe that we can suit any woman who comes here expecting an exquisite piece of tailoring made of the rich cloths rarely seen outside of extravagantly costly tailor shops.
