SALT LAKE AND STATE NEWS

CITATION IS ISSUED TO BELLE TOPHAM

Ordered to Show Cause in Third District Court on Contempt Proceedings.

Salt Lake, May 28.—Dora B. Topham (Belle London), president, general manager and treasurer of the Citizens Investment company, must appear before Judge Charles W. Morse of the Third district court at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, June 16, and show cause why she should not be punished for contempt of court for the alleged violation of the absolute injunction entered by Judge Morse, February 15 last, enjoining her and the Citizens Investment company from permitting or suffering the so-called stockade to be occupied by lewd women and used for immoral purposes.

The citation to the woman to appear June 16 was issued by Judge Morse on Thursday. It is based upon the affidavit of George Q. Morris, one of the four who visited the stockade a couple of weeks ago. After setting forth the issuing by Judge Morse of the temporary restraining order, February 15, enjoining the company from permitting the buildings to be used for immoral purposes, the affidavit charges that the London woman and the company have knowingly and willfully permitted courtesans, harlots and other lewd women to occupy the premises for lewd purposes, and cites the cases of Margaret Smith, Della Donaldson and Nellie Blair, all of whom have been convicted in justice courts of soliciting and giving sentences in the county jail from which they have appealed to the Third district court, in proof of this charge.

The affidavit also names the following women who have, it is alleged, been permitted to occupy the stockade at one time or another for immoral purposes: Myrtle Densmore, Louise Hamilton, Alice Mahan, Sadie Clark, Mrs. C. A. Taylor, Nora Mason, Lucile Wilson, Ruby Vauhn, Lillian Parker, Lillian Johnson, Helen Franklin, Anna Harris, Junie Smith, Peach Turfitt, Maxine Brown, Mabel Morano, Lucy Wilson and Mabel Walker.

PROHIBITION LEAGUE ORGANIZED.

Provo, May 28.—An enthusiastic meeting of temperance people was held last evening in the court house with J. H. Frisby temporary chairman and Eugene L. Roberts temporary secretary.

The following speakers addressed the meeting: Louis S. Fuller, superintendent Intermountain State Anti-Saloon league, who spoke most encouragingly of the progress the prohibition movement was making throughout the west and the entire country, Judge J. E. Booth, President J. B. Keeler, J. William Knight, James G. Duffin and others. It was decided to petition the Provo city council to refuse to issue any more liquor licenses after December 31, and also to petition the board of county commissioners to refuse to grant any licenses after that date and to work in every legitimate way for the city and county to go dry. This work was left with the league which was organized with the following officers: James G. Duffin, president; O. W. Andelin, secretary and treasurer; Headquarters committee: Mrs. M. M. Boyden, Jesse Knight, Joseph B. Keeler, Mrs. J. W. Ald, Miss Alice L. Reynolds, L. L. Nelson, Miss Josephine Kellogg, Heber C. Jex and J. H. Frisby.

J. William Knight was persistent in starting the financial ball rolling and as a result a respectable fund was collected to defray expenses of canvassers.

Provo, May 28.—"The Beggar Student" will be presented in the opera house next Monday and Tuesday.

The Provo fifty-thousand-dollar school bond election resulted in a decisive victory for the schools—for bonds, 223, against, 43.

The city attorney has been instructed to commence suit against business men and firms delinquent in the payment of licenses, and to investigate the case of the Wells-Fargo Express company, which will not pay, and in the event of suit being commenced will, it is expected, carry the case to the United States supreme court.

The Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company claims it can not do business in Provo if the proposed maximum rate incorporated in the franchise granted by the city council is maintained. The auditor has appeared before the Commercial club and asked the club's assistance in having the franchise changed. He claims that his company has lost on Provo business $123.03 for the month of March.

Salt Lake City, May 28.—State Engineer Caleb Tanner returned this morning from a three weeks' trip to Seattle. He went there as the state engineer to take observations on an important experiment being carried on there which generally obtains in operations for hydraulic mining. This experiment, it is claimed, is practically beyond the experimental stage and is developing into a success. It consists in washing away whole hillsides near Jackson street and carrying the soil by water down to build up sections of the city below which need filling in. Mr. Tanner is convinced of the value of this principle as applied to proposed operations in Utah. This last consists of similar transfers of soil from the mountain side near Marysville to the distance some distance below. The Seattle municipality is moving the soil by water at an expense of 15 cents per cubic yard, whereas to do the same by steam shovel with the necessary gangs of men would cost about 22 cents.

COMPLICATED MONEY DEAL.

Salt Lake City, May 28.—H. W. Nichols, who, through mistake, was paid twice by the board of education for drawing some plans for the manual training classes, was called to testify in the investigation last night held by the board of education. In regard to this, Mr. Nichols said he had been paid by Mr. Bridwell, superintendent of buildings, before his claim had been passed by the board of education. This amounted to $51.75. Later he received a notice from J. P. Judd, clerk of the board, he said, that there was some money for him at the office. Nichols called there and received the amount, which was $51.75. When he received the money the second time he thought it was for overtime, he said, until he looked the matter up on his books the next day. He discovered the mistake and took the money back to Mrs. Bridwell. At a former investigation Mr. Bridwell admitted having received this money from Nichols. Bridwell said at that time that he had advanced the money to Nichols out of his own personal account, he intended to show. The money that Nichols received from the board Bridwell credited to his own account to reimburse himself for the same amount which he advanced to Nichols. In this Bridwell intended to show by his books that the board of education lost nothing through the transaction. Bridwell says that Nichols signed the payroll after he had been paid in advance and then signed a voucher in the clerk's office. In this manner the records in the clerk's office show that Nichols was paid twice, but in reality the board lost nothing.

Thomas Leslie, now janitor of the science building of the High school, but formerly janitor of the Lincoln school, testified that only once was the school shut down because of the heating plant, and that there was nothing wrong with the power plant. There will be another session of the investigation at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

FRANK MANTELL PAYS VISIT.

Salt Lake City, May 28.—Frank Mantell, the well known welter-weight boxer, came from the coast this morning and leaves tonight for the east to visit his home. Since Mantell left Salt Lake some months ago he has won six straight fights but did not pick up any great amount of wealth. The fight promoters whom Mantell has exhibited his prowess apparently do not believe in giving the principals of the shows any more than they can possibly help, but on the coast Mantell picked up some coin. His last contest was at Sacramento on May 21 with Frank Mayfield, whom he beat in the thirteenth round. Mantell now has a match on for July 5 at Sacramento with "Mike" (Mike) Sullivan and he is confident of beating him. In one of his recent contests Mantell easily defeated Rube Smith.

NEW INCORPORATIONS.

Salt Lake City, May 28.—The Western Amusement company filed its articles of incorporation today with the county clerk. It has a capital stock of $2,000 divided into shares of one dollar each. The company will carry on a general amusement business in Salt Lake City this summer. The officers are F. W. Meyerhoeffer, president and general manager; Elmer E. Hall, secretary and treasurer.

Articles of incorporation of the Ashton Brothers company were filed today in the county clerk's office. With a capital stock of $20,000 the company will carry on a general building and real estate business in Salt Lake City. The officers of the company are Edwin F. Ashton, president, George S. Ashton, vice president, and R. J. Ashton, secretary and treasurer.

TO EXPLORE CLIFFS.

Salt Lake City, May 28.—Preparations are being made for another trip this summer to that part of southern Utah generally occupied by the cliff dwellers, from which so many valuable relics have already been taken. In addition to visiting and making further excavations at the ruins discovered last year, the party going this summer intends to visit part of the Navajo reservation and go over into Arizona. The expedition is being financed by part of the appropriation of $2,000 set aside for this purpose by the last legislature, augmented by a gift from Colonel Wall of $600. Those taking part this season will be Dr. Edgar L. Hewett of Washington, D. C., director; Dean Cummings, Nell Judd, Stewart Farnum, Dis Fred J. Pack, Dr. William Blum and Donald Beaugard of the state university.

In memory of what they greatly thought and nobly dared.

OVERHEARD (LONG DISTANCE)

SALT LAKE: "Say, Ogdem, you ought to come down (off the perch) to the wonderful sales we are having in Salt Lake. The big department stores are all having sales and marking everything, even feather beds and pillows DOWN."

OGDEN: "You don't say! Business must be on the bum down there. It's on the bum up here. The Reed Hotel and the Arlington have been 'polishing up the knobs to beat the band.' You have to telegraph ahead to secure a berth. In order to be sure of it. You ought to come up on the Sunday excursion. We'll take a nickel and walk up the Canyon to the Hermitage on the new Electric. Maybe one of the Wright boys will be there with one of their flying machines and take us up Malan's Heights to Nob Hill, and we can look over the ground for the new Capitol building. Monday everything will be dead. It's Decoration Day—We decorate in the hallowed spot where the brave old soldiers lay in peaceful rest—Not dead. It's a terrible thing to be dead. You had better come to Ogdem where things are alive."

MEMORIAL SERVICES OF WOODMEN OF THE WORLD

Weber camp No. 74, Woodmen of the World, will hold their annual memorial exercises Sunday, June 6, when they gather at their lodge rooms and ride to Mountain View cemetery and unveil the monuments of Neighbors S. Nelson and E. R. Speak, and decorate thirteen graves of their departed brothers. The services in the morning, which begin at 9:30 o'clock, will be under the direction of Past Councilor W. M. Pigott, assisted by the uniformed degree team of the order.

In the afternoon the members, nearly 600 strong, will gather at K. of P. hall at 1:30 to form and parade to the city cemetery, where the monuments of Neighbors Lutz and Allard will be unveiled and twenty-three graves decorated. The afternoon services will be in charge of Past Councilor Doyle, assisted by the uniformed degree team.

The services will be held at the Woodmen of the World lot at the burial grounds and will include special music by the band, with singing by the Woodmen male quartet. Council Commander Samuel Kline will introduce the orator of the day, Judge J. A. Howell, who will speak to the members of the order on an appropriate topic.

The committee in charge of the services are Samuel Kline, E. South, James McBeth, Sam Jost, Henry Silvertorn, B. VanDerschuit and Matthew Galt.

The line of march and order of parade follows:

The order of parade:
Mounted police and sheriff's officers. Bearers of United States flags and lodge pennants.

Uniformed degree team of the order. Twenty-five flower bearers. Twenty-four piece band. Lodge officers. General membership.

SPEEDERS WILL RECEIVE ATTENTION OF OFFICERS

Numerous complaints having been received by the police department regarding the apparent disregard of automobile, bicycle and driving ordinances, a fresh campaign against the reckless ones has been instituted. Officer William Reast has been detailed to pay particular attention to violators of the speed ordinances, those who ride bicycles on the sidewalks, and drivers who leave their horses standing un hitched in the city streets. As previous warnings have been numerous, little leniency will be shown those who persist in disregarding the law in these matters, and the police judge has also stated that offenders will be prosecuted without distinction of class or occupation.

TODAY IS CHILDREN'S DAY AT SYLVAN PARK

Today is the big day at Sylvan park. Bert Morphy, "the man who sings to beat the band" and incidentally the man whose voice defies the elements, will devote his time exclusively to the children. The afternoon has been declared by the management to be children's matinee and the youngsters will be given free rides on the merry-go-round, while the famous singer will render nothing but children's songs.

A special vaudeville matinee will be given in the big theater and it is expected that the children will visit the park in force.

It is indeed unfortunate that Mr. Morphy has met with such discouraging weather as has recently prevailed in this city. He likes a crowd—the bigger the better—for his voice in the open air is intended for a large gathering. It is not out of the ordinary for a man to sing into another's ear and Mr. Morphy and his wonderfully penetrating voice is almost lost unless there are present enough people to appreciate the range. He can sing better and be heard better by the ones on the outskirts of a big crowd than of a small gathering. Mr. Morphy's act is a freak one and if the elements will allow he will startle the people of Ogden before his next week's engagement is finished. All he asks is a clear evening and a crowd large enough to appreciate the range of his voice.

Drink IRONPORT. You'll like it. At Soda Fountains and in Bottles.
