MAMMOTH STRIKE BEGINS TONIGHT IN PITTSBURG

TEN THOUSAND SKILLED WORKERS ARE TO QUIT WORK.

American Sheet and Tin Plate Company Will inaugurate "Open Shop" Plan.

Pittsburg, June 30.—At midnight tonight more than 10,000 skilled workers, members of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, employed by the American Sheet and Tin Plate company in various places throughout Pennsylvania, Ohio, Virginia, and Indiana, will quit work.

At that hour the "open shop" order of defeat for the Amalgamated Association, it is generally means the taking away of its power in the affairs of the United States Steel corporation, of which the American Sheet and Tin Plate company is a subsidiary.

That the company is working toward a "closed shop" is apparent, it is alleged, from orders issued yesterday, calling for the immediate resumption of several non-union plants, which have been idle for over a year.

EXPLORER IN FAR NORTH REPORTED TO BE SAFE

Winnipeg, June 30.—A rumor comes from the Far North that George Caldwell, the explorer who left three years ago to make a trip from Hudson Bay, westward to Slave Lake and down to Edmonton, and who had been given up as lost, is reported by a native runner to be safe. Caldwell is probably now at Lowell.

FIREWORKS ON FOURTH WILL ILLUMINATE SKY

Twenty-Eight Divisions in Which Aerial Bombs, Rockets, Set Pieces and Other Fireworks Will Be Set Off on Sunday Night—Description of the Different Pieces

The fireworks program Sunday evening, July 4, 1909:

First—Grand opening salute.

Two pieces of mammoth reporting bombshells fired from mortars to a height of 500 feet in the air and exploded at that height. They will be heard for miles.

Second—Carmine illumination of 30 pieces of excellent fire, playing to the heavens at one time.

Third—Union battery of 12 display "National Colors" tri-color, union 30-shot cannons, emitting balls which, while in the air, divide into three brilliant stars—red, white and blue.

Fourth—Aerial bombshell display, composed of Japanese night shells, showing revolving cascades, shooting stars, magic serpents, golden cloud and rainbow trees in the most brilliant colors known.

Fifth—Flight of six geysers of umbrellas of fire, forming an immense revolving column of brilliant fire, ascending high in the air, emitting showers of golden spray, terminating in a crown of variegated colored stars of every kind, forming fantastic circles of fire and colored rings.

Sixth—Prismatic wheel display, 14-inch vertical showers of fires in every direction.

Seventh—Rocket flight, four pieces, making a parachute with floating stars, changing colors, making a most beautiful display of a parachute in the air.

Eighth—Flight of fiery dragon, 10 pieces, mammoth dragon's nest, new and startling article in fireworks, which commences with discharging electric stars, each in flight creating a number of smaller stars and flashes, and as a final outburst, hissing fiery dragons appear with loud noise and disappear in trails of hissing fire.

Ninth—Rocket flight, exhibiting beautiful "willow trees" in all colors of the rainbow, the branches reaching from the heavens to the ground.

Tenth—Wheel display—double radiators, producing fires and halos of great variety and beauty, throwing fire and stars in every direction.

Eleventh—Two-inch bombshell display, exhibiting the most beautiful combination of color and design and magical changes and effect known to pyrotechnic art.

Twelfth—Storming Niagara—110-shot Niagara battery, throwing a steady stream of falling stars and meteors, which have the effect of flights of rockets and colored streamers.

Thirteenth—Rocket display, assorted, fancy, same as No. 14, but eight-pounders—same as No. 18.

Fourteenth—Rocket flights, six-pounders—same as No. 18.

Fifteenth—Cascade battery of bombshells, displaying a battery of variegated meteors, ending with a multi-giving bombshell effect high in the air.

Sixteenth—Floral fountain display, extra large, novel and beautiful, representation in floral fire of a fountain, throwing upward and outward liquid drops of spangles and spray fire which resemble a large fountain in action.

Seventeenth—Flight of Japanese fire flies, four-pounder Japanese rockets, introducing an aerial display entirely new in the United States, throwing batteries and fountains at the highest points in the air, with meteoric effect of many colors, making a most beautiful picture.

Eighteenth—Battery of weeping willow trees, with 48 pounds of powder, with magnificent scenes in many colors.

Nineteenth—Garden of prismatic herbs, extra large, brilliant, variegated fountains and fires of a million sparks, all combined.

Twentieth—Palmetto fountain display, representing a gorgeous fountain of brilliant fire, intermingling with stars of various colors and liquid fire drops with sparkling scintillations.

Twenty-first—Battery of twelve Japanese bomb shells.

Twenty-second—Umo show batteries, each with three dozen No. 10 shower candles, which produce showers of most beautiful and brilliant scintillations.

Twenty-third—Set piece, the Gallopade, revolving with great rapidity and discharging in every direction streams of brilliant and sparkling fire, with several changes, making a fantastic and pleasing display.

Twenty-fourth—Set piece, Revolving Arcade. A beautiful combination of pyrotechnic movements and effects, with several changes, commencing with an illuminated hexagon wheel, changing and extending into a magnificent electric cascade of liquid sprays of fire, surmounted by revolving fountains and variegated stars, thrown to a great height.

Twenty-fifth—Two meteor batteries, consisting of three dozen each 10-ball meteor candles, displaying a colored meteor each, leaving behind them as they ascend long trails of a brilliant rain of fire.

Twenty-sixth—Balloons representing animals, fishes, etc. some of them emitting streams of fire as they ascend.

Twenty-seventh—Set piece, Polka Battery. A combination of illuminated wheels, fountains, circles of golden fire, with crimson and emerald centers, which on each side are displayed jets of variegated stars and streamers.

Twenty-eighth—Ninety-seven sky-rockets of four to eight pounds each, will be fired off in batteries of six and twelve.

Twenty-ninth, grand finale device, "Goodnight," flanked on either side by mammoth whistling jacks and mammoth flights of bombshells—a grand fitting close of such a grand scene of beauty and splendor.

Remember, the program will begin at 8:30 p. m., sharp, or as soon thereafter as it grows dark.

ENTER CARBON COAL LANDS

Four Thousand Acres Taken at Total Cost of Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars.

Application for entry on 3,840 acres of coal lands in Carbon county, this state, was made in the United States land office in Salt Lake yesterday morning by a party of capitalists from Michigan and Wisconsin. There were in all twenty-four applications for entry, and were in most part in one solid block, all the lands lying in township 15, range 14 east. The lands are located immediately south of the property of the Utah Fuel company at Sunnyside.

The land on which the application for entry was made is under two classifications, one portion costing $30 an acre and the other $50 an acre. In all the land will cost the entrymen close to $150,000. While no information is given by the parties filing on the land, it is believed that immediate steps will be taken to develop these coal fields.

TWO YOUNG TRAVELERS WITH THE "LAT-ST" WAGER

Carl and Herman Livingston are the last arrivals, who are out on a wager to reach the fair at Seattle and perform other "stunts." They left their home town, Tulsa, Okla., May 24 and are to return November 25 with $1,000 dangling from their belts. In the meantime they are to ride on trains without heating their way; they are to eat regularly and sleep soundly in the best hotels. For this kindly caring of themselves on their return home they are to be urged town with a brass band made to accept in the presence of the population of the greater Oklahoma, a large sum of money.

This certainly is something in the line of wagers, and the idea of the brothers must be the only thing lacking to turn a dream of happiness into a fact, that each of the brothers must be an heir with a villa by the sea.

The youngsters, in having conceived something out of the ordinary, demonstrate that their fertility of mind is urging them on to hitch their wagon to a star. They are destined to succeed in this world.

F. J. CANNON MARRIES IN DENVER

MISS MAY BROWN OF OGDEN COMES HIS WIFE.

She is a Sister of the First Mrs. Cannon—Ceremony Performed by Judge of Supreme Court.

A dispatch from Denver contains the announcement of the marriage of Frank J. Cannon of Ogden as follows: Denver, Colo., June 29.—Former United States Senator Frank J. Cannon of Utah was married here today to Miss May Anderson Brown of Ogden, Utah. The bride is the sister of Cannon's first wife, who died a short time ago. The ceremony was performed at the Colorado state capitol by Chief Justice R. W. Steele of the supreme court. Cannon is 60 years of age and his bride is a number of years his junior. Cannon is one of the editors of the Denver Times. Among the witnesses of the ceremony were the bride's brother and former United States Senator T. M. Patterson of Colorado.

The wedding was a quiet affair attended by a few newspaper friends of the groom, who made a request that the event be given bare mention in the press.

Coming! Be Sure To See

This week, beginning tomorrow continuing until Saturday night, both wives and others of Ogden are to give a treat in the form of demonstration on cereal foods by representatives of The Quaker Oats Company.

Besides being the best cereal in the matters of purity and nutrition, Quaker Oats Company thousands of dollars yearly in the public the best and most some way to prepare and serve foods. This is a rare opportunity the ladies of Ogden.

If you will attend one of the demonstrations, you'll feel fully Don't miss it.
